Elder Gains As Last Precincts Turn In Votes

Leads Blank For Commissioner By Margin Of Forty In Unofficial Count

NO OTHER CHANGES MADE IN COUNTY

Official Count Will Be Eagerly Awaited In Commissioner Contest

On the face of unofficial returns made late today, it appears that P. O. Elder, contractor of New Castle, has been nominated on the Republican ticket for county commissioner, over Charles H. Blank of Ellwood City, by a narrow margin.

The total unofficial vote is Elder, 4435; Blank, 4395. These totals may be changed slightly by the official count, but it is believed the figures are nearly accurate. The race between these two men was one of the outstanding features of the primary election. As the day of primary came nearer it became apparent that each of them would be a strong contender.

Totals For County.

When the News came out on Wednesday, the totals were not all in the table for the reason that four precincts were not reported. These four in the county districts were South New Castle Boro, Enon Valley, North Beaver 3rd, and Union 1st. These totals are in the table on another page and make no material change in the standing of any candidate except to that of P. O. Elder. These precincts were the deciding factor in his nomination, providing that the figures

Arguments Heard In Wrangle Over Judgeship Act

Question Of Whether Local Court Has Jurisdiction Was Principal Point Raised

Arguments on the petition of William E. Marquis for a declaritory judgment, on the validity of the act providing for an additional judgeship for Lawrence county, and on the petition of David S. Pyle, Harry K. Gregory and Rev. Samuel Irvine, asking that the Marquis petition be dismissed, were heard before Judge Parker in Lawrence county court Wednesday afternoon.

Attorney C. H. Akens appeared for the Marquis petition, taking the position that it was within the jurisdiction of the court here to pass upon the validity of the act. Attorney Wm. McElwee, for dismissal of the Marquis petition, argued that the local court did not have jurisdiction, but that it was a question for the supreme court to pass upon. Attorney John P. Lockhart, appearing for the county commissioners, took the same position as Mr. McElwee.

After hearing the arguments in the case Judge Parker took the papers in the case and will hand down a decision later. The trouble grew out of a mistake in the printing of the act providing for another judge in this county, the error being with reference to the time when the act became operative.

Now We Know Why Lindy Made Successful Trip

(Special To The News)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 22. Lindbergh has been welcomed to all his various old homes, but Wednesday I saw a sight worth remembering.

It was the other half of "We" landing on the field where she was made.

San Diego can rightfully claim a great credit in the flight.

But you cant beat Los Angeles. They had to get in on it somehow. They claim they raised the pigs that the ham sandwiches were made from that Lindy took to Paris.

The pigs was raised in Hellmans ranch and cured by Joe Toplitsks.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

TRIPLET COW-GIRLS FROM TEXAS

Pecos, Tex., claims the only triplet cow-girls. These young women who are said to have "grown up in the saddle," are, left to right, Eleanor, Conie and Elsie Robertson, 16. They have ridden bronchos since early childhood.

TO OPEN GIRL'S HOME TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

That October 4, will be the opening date for the Crawford-Oakridge home was announced at the regular weekly meeting of the Quota club in the Granada Tea room on North Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. John List Crawford of New York City, without whose help the home would have been an impossibility, have notified the members of the club that they will attend the opening, and will stay in New Castle for the dedication, to be held Sunday, October 9. Anyone wishing to attend the opening will be welcomed, state members of the Quota Club.

At the Crawford-Oakridge, a home for under privileged girls, open house will be held October 4, 5, 6, and 7. The Quota club plans to invite all of the civic organizations to see the home during the opening days.

The members of the club feel that they have been very fortunate in obtaining the services of Mrs. Ida Robinson, who will fill position of hostess at the home. Her charming personality eminently fits her for the position.

To the working girl, the Crawford-Oakridge home will offer endless possibilities, and the doors of the house will always be open to everyone.

Miss Emilie Salomon, the art supervisor of the public schools, entertained the members of the Quota club at their meeting Tuesday evening when she gave an impromptu talk on her experiences in the Yellowstone Park and in California this summer.

Error Results In Warren Attorney Being Nominated

Young Attorney Nominated As County Auditor, Grandfather Was Candidate

(International News Service)

WARREN, Pa., Sept. 22.—Through a typographical error, James S. Berger, youngest attorney ever admitted to the Warren county bar, was nominated county auditor at the primaries Tuesday, it was revealed today.

Berger's grandfather, James H. Berger, was seeking the post, but through error the middle initial "H" was changed to "S" and the grandson received the nomination.

Court house officials stated that young Berger would have to run in the November elections. The belief was expressed here that he would resign should he be elected, in favor of his grandfather.

It was expected that in the event young Berger resigned, Judge D. U. Arlad, would appoint the grandfather as the young man's successor.

CHURCH PASTORS IN CONVENTION

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 22.—More than 100 ministers of the Allegheny county conference of the Brethern Church registered here today for the 90th annual session.

The five day conference opened in the Park Avenue United Brethern church with Bishop William Melvin Bell, of Harrisburg, presiding. Bishop Bell delivered his opening address this morning.

Letter As Clue May Result In Murder Arrest

Anonymous Letter To Officials And Postmistress Furnish Murder Clues

ARREST EXPECTED TO BE MADE TODAY

Officials Baffled By Strange Slaying Of Dr. Lilliendahl In New Jersey

(International News Service)

HAMMONTON, N. J., Sept. 22

An anonymous letter to authorities and an affidavit furnished by the postmistress at South Vineland, combined to form the latest development today in the search for the slayer of Dr. William Lilliendahl, 72, with an arrest predicted by detectives within the next few hours.

That the murdered physician suspected his 42-year-old wife, now under $25,000 bond of carrying on correspondence with another man was testified to by Postmistress Mrs. William Tamberlain in a signed affidavit.

Mrs. Tamberlain, declared, according to Police Chief J. E. Gebhart, that Lilliendahl came to her two months ago to verify his suspicions of his wife's correspondence with another man. "I did not know Mrs. Lilliendhal and when he described her to me, I told him I knew her by the name of 'Peggy Anderson'" Mrs. Tamberlain said, according to Chief Gebhart.

The name "Peggy Anderson" had previously been mentioned by the authorities.

An anonymous letter obviously written by a man on learning and regarded by authorities as being of genuine import was the source of considerable speculation today. Chief Detective Harrold said the information in the letter was extremely valuable and has requested the writer to come forwad and assist in the investigation.

Although an arrest was predicted for today no hint was given as to the identity of the suspect nor the charges to be filed.

Lee Continues Spokane Flight

(International News Service)

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 22.—E. H. Lee, of Chicago, in his Yackey monoplane, entry No. 7 was forced down near Deerlodge, 45 miles west of here late yesterday, and after a searching party was organized to determine his whereabouts he was later reported to have landed on account of motor trouble, but later proceeded to Spokane.

Cross Country Racing Planes Reach Spokane

Two Sections Have Arrived; Watch For Winner Of Third Section

NON-STOP FLIGHT EFFORT IS MADE

Two Planes Are Competing In Last Event Of Aerial Derby

(International News Service)

FELTS FIELD, SPOKANE, WASH., Sept. 22.—With two sections of the triple-class transcontinental aerial derby already arrived at their goal, all eyes turned eastward today for first sight of two giant Class C planes, racing westward in a non-stop flight from Roosevelt Field, N. Y.

Three planes were entered for the non-stop race, but only two were able to get off the ground. The pilots are Eddie Stinson of Detroit, flying a plane of his own make, and C. A. "Duke" Schiller, of Windsor, Ont., flying the "Royal Windsor."

The planes left Roosevelt Field yesterday afternoon and are expected here about 4 p. m. today. Barring trouble, the giant planes should be able to negotiate the 2,300 mile course in about 24 hours.

Wins $10,000.

C. W. Holman of St. Paul, won first prize of $10,000 in the Class A event. He roared across the finish line as ten thousand spectators cheered. His elapsed time from New York to Spokane was 19 hours, 42 minutes and 52 seconds.

A few minutes after Holman landed, J. S. Charles of Richmond, Va., and C. W. Meyers of Detroit, sailed down from the clouds practically in a dead heat for first prize money in the Class B event.

Charles was the first to land, but Meyers will probably be declared the winner of the $5,000 purse on elapsed time. This is a matter which the officials will have to decide.

The successful aviators all agreed the race was the most thrilling and hazardous of their several careers.

There were fifteen starters in the Class A race. Eight of these finished, the others being forced down at various points along the route or failing to take off. Of 25 entries in the Class B flight ten finished the race.

Spokane is undisputedly the present center of the aviation world as planes seemingly from all points of the compass have been converging here for the 24 hours. Beside the great tri-section derby from New York, this was the terminus for other races from southern coast cities.

A series of impressive army maneuvers will climax the aerial carniv here.

Stinson Sighted.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 22.—A plane believed to be the one in which Eddie Stinson of Detroit, is flying from New York to Spokane in a non-stop flight was reported as having passed over Minneapolis at 3:35 this morning.

"The plane was a Stinson-Detroiter" Lloyd Ruth, local aviator, said. "Stinson has visited my home a number of times and I believe he roared over my house this morning to let me know he was passing through Minneapolis.

JURY HANGS FIRE FAR INTO NIGHT

In the case of the Commonwealth against Clarence Wheeler and J. T. Consla, charged with receiving stolen goods, in the Lawrence county court, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, after remaining in the jury room until 3 o'clock this morning. The jury was composed of six men and six women.

The case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon. When an agreement was reached the verdict was sealed until this morning when it was delivered in court.

Appointed To Court Vote At Tuesday Primary

County Commissioners have appointed Mrs. Henry Badger, Mrs. J. D. Long, William Moore and Miss Olive A. Davis to count the vote cast at Tuesday's primary. They will begin their work at noon on Friday.

It is expected that the work will require several days, as in addition to the large number of candidates on the ticket, there were a great many names written in for different offices.

NEWS TO PRESENT CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLE BLOW BY BLOW

Following out the usual plan of serving the people of New Castle in the best manner possible, The News has arranged for special telegraph wire service to the ringside at the Dempsey-Tunney battle in Chicago tonight and will megaphone the fight to the crowd in North Mercer street as the battle progresses.

Although some other plans have been tried at times, the most satisfactory method of getting the battle to a large crowd such as that which congregates at The News office seems to be the telegraph and megaphone system. Eddie Fritz, News sports editor, who knows the fight game from start to finish, will handle the megaphone and keep the crowd informed on what's doing.

While the main bout does not start until late tonight, The News telegraph wire will be open an hour or more before the battle, and it is probable that megaphoning service will be started sometime before 10 o'clock, New Castle daylight saving time.

Immediately following the end of the fight, within a few moments' time, The News extra will be on the street with an account of the battle.

Awaiting Weather

Miss Frances W. Grayson, above, student flyer of Long Island, N. Y., is awaiting favorable weather conditions for beginning a transocean flight to Europe. Miss Grayson's plane is a giant, two-motored amphibian.

NEW TEMPLE WILL BE USED

1st Service In New Temple Israel To Be Conducted Friday

On Friday evening, September 23, at 8:00 o'clock the first religious services will be conducted by Rabbi Menkes in the new edifice of Temple Israel which has just been built on Highland and Moody avenues.

Rabbi Menkes will speak on the topic "Our Task." Both Jew and Non-Jew alike are welcome at the services which are largely held in English. Saturday morning services will be held at 10:30 a. m.

Formal dedication of the Temple will take place in the very near future, when due notice will be given of the occasion.

Attending Pirate Giant Game, Today

T. E. Dukes, ticket clerk at the P. and L. E. ticket office and Garvin Ligo and James Snyder are attending the Pittsburgh-New York game at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, today.

Ligo and Snyder motored down this morning and Dukes left by train and will meet them to go to the game this afternoon. This series between the two leading teams of the National League is attracting a lot of attention.

Legionnaires Refuse To Urge Action Upon Immigration Project

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

TROCADERO PALACE, PARIS, Sept. 22.—A sharp conflict on the immigration question featured the closing business session of the American Legion convention today.

After a bitter debate, the Legionnaires declined to approve a proposal to make the president of the United States an "immigration dictator" empowered to raise or lower the barriers of immigration at will.

Move Rejected.

The proposal was contained in a report presented by the Americanization committee of the Legion, urging congress to grant this power to the president.

Delegates from Illinois and Pennsylvania condemned the proposal as an effort to grant the nation's chief executive a "monarchical and grave delegation of power."

After a verbal battle lasting half an hour, the Pennsylvania and Illinois delegates won their fight to have the resolution sent back to committee for revision.

Business And Horse Play.

A mixture of business and horseplay occupied the delegates on the closing day of the convention. With solemn ceremony, the Legionnaires elected Jay Ward, five years old, of Manicock, Penna., official mascott of the Paris pilgrimage.

Thirty-nine resolutions dealing with various aspects of hospitalization and compensation for disabled veterans were passed by the delegates.

Awards in several of the Legion's contests were announced today.

The Illinois delegation won the first prize for its male quartette, with Wisconsin- second. The California delegates were awarded the Galbnaith medal for having traversed the greatest number of miles to reach th convention site. Florida was second in this unique contest.

Eight Granted Re-Hearing By Pardon Board

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 22.—Eight of the thirty-two pleas for re-hearing of pardon cases previously refused have been granted, F. H. Hoy, secretary of the state board of pardons, announced today. The board refused twenty-two cases, continued one and one was withdrawn.

Rehearing cases are submitted to the board on papers filed. The cases were considered in executive session last night.

Hall Resigns As Commission Member

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Henry C. Hall of Colorado, today sent his resignation as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission to the White House.

Ill health was given by the veteran member as the reason for his decision.

Hall, a Democrat, was appointed to the commission by President Wilson.

Last Precinct Does Not Change Result In City

No Changes In Winners By Tabulation Of Complete Vote

ELECTION MADE MORE DECISIVE

Total Vote Cast In City Primaries Breaks All Previous Records

Because the returns of the first precinct of the first ward were not totaled Wednesday at the time the News went to press, it was not possible to include these figures in the city table of returns. These returns have now been added and while they do not make any change in the winners, they make some slight shift in the relative standing of some of the candidates, below the winner column.

The total city vote for each city office, as shown by the complete News table follows. This table may be changed a very little by the official count, but unless there has been error in the return board figures, this table will probably be within a few votes of the count of the official return board.

New York Man Is Elected Head Of Legion Hosts

Edward E. Spafford Is Unanimously Elected President Of Legion

VICE COMMANDERS ARE ALSO NAMED

Heated Debates Mark Discussion Of Projects Before Session

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Edw. E. Spafford

All opposition to Spafford's election faded out in the final hours of the session. No other nominations were made, and the new national commander's election was accomplished without the formality of a roll call, for the first time in the history of the legion.

Spafford was escorted to the stage amid pandemonium. The Buffalo fife and drum corps acted as his escort.

The only serious contender for the office at any stage of the convention was J. Monroe Johnson of South Carolina, whose friends are confident they will secure his election next year.

The unanimous choice of Spafford as the new national commander was in marked contrast to the stormy scenes which had rocked the session in an almost continuous uproar from the first fall of the gavel.

Five national vice commanders were elected. They were James Raftis of Washington state, Paul R. Younts of North Carolina, J. M. Henry of Minnesota, Dan Spurlock of Louisiana and Ralph T. O'Neil of Kansas.

Many Debates.

Amid heated debates, which at times were almost violent and recriminatory, the legion dealt with a host of resolutions which ranged from proposals to make the president of the United States an "immigration director", and the establishment of a sep-

Old Ballot Boxes In County Jail

Senatorial Ballots To Be Held Until Probers Desire Them

Prothonotary R. M. Campbell, custodian of the old ballot boxes, which were ordered impounded on the day before the primary, has them locked securely in cells in the county jail, where they will remain until they are wanted in the Vare-Wilson senatorial fight.

The boxes were delivered by the judges of election in the different precincts. They were all inspected by Mr. Campbell, who found that none of the seals had been tampered with.

The world moves on with its usual rush, and each day brings something new, which is just the reason why newspaper men have always something to do. Murders and weddings and suicides, elections, conventions and fights, are the answer to why most newspaper men are working their days and their nights. For every time there is something on, you want to know how it came out, and the newspaper man must be here and there, and constantly moving about. Each day brings something entirely new, and the newspaper cannot wait, for everything done can be classed as news, the weather is fifty-eight.

Deny Rumors Butler Will Resign Post

Administration Leader Forestalls Resignation Rumor Concerning William Butler

WILL CONTINUE AS REPUBLICAN LEADER

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Persistent rumors that former senator William M. Butler, of Massachusetts, close personal friend of President Coolidge, shortly will resign as chairman of the Republican national committee, were denied today by an administration spokesman.

Butler will remain as titular head of the committee, it was said, until the next Republican convention selects a new standard-bearer to lead the party in 1928. This procedure was said to have been decided upon by Butler at the expressed wish of the president.

Mr. Coolidge was pictured as feeling he should remain out of the next Republican convention fight and that if Butler resigned at this time, it might provoke dissension in the party through a fight over naming the new chairman. The president was said to feel that the committee should be headed by a "neutral" man until a new standard bearer is chosen and that Butler amply fitted the task.

Two men however have been mentioned prominently as Butler's successor in rumors going the rounds of the capital. They are C. Bascom Slemp, former secretary to the president, and Charles D. Hillis, New York Republican leader.

Prefers Schools Be Closed Friday For County Fair

Discussing the county fair this morning County Superintendent John C. Syling said that he would prefer to have school directors close for the fair, which begins next week, on Friday. By closing on Friday there would be but little break in the week's work. If schools should be closed on any other day the pupils would do very little good for the balance of the week as they would be excited over what they had seen at the fair.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE NAMED FOR CONVENTION

Fred L. Rentz, chairman of the reception committee of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association convention which convenes in New Castle October 12-13-14, announces the members of his committee which are given below.

The reception committee of course will be on hand at the cathedral to welcome visiting delegates and each member of this committee, as well as all committees, will wear "Ask Me" badges with ribbons naming the committee. The reception committee also has charge of furnishing the automobiles to meet the trains and bring the delegates to the cathedral for registration, and also to furnish transportation for the delegates from the cathedral to the homes where they have been assigned. The reception committee will also have an information bureau in the lobby of the cathedral and Miss Cora Ritchie, the secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., will have charge of this bureau. A. C. McCoy is chairman of the automobile committee.

The chairman of the reception committee, Mr. Rentz, has been actively on the job for some time and is securing the cooperation of the city officials in seeing that every courtesy is extended to the visiting delegates who will be here from every county in the state in large numbers.

Seeking Good Foe For Emmett Rocco

If He Can Be Secured Another Fight Will Be Staged Here

Officials of the New Castle baseball club today sent telegrams to Jack Renault and Johnny Risko offering them a chance to fight Emmett Rocco at Centennial ball field early in October. "We want the best heavyweight we can get as Rocco's opponent," said an official of the club today. "The fans demonstrated they want fights and if we can get a good opponent the fight will go on."

Rocco has been offered fights at McKeesport, Youngstown and Pittsburgh and on account of his quick knockouts of Joe Burke, Romero Rojas and Sailor Maxted is attracting notice from fans.

Local Legionnaires Enjoy European Tour

Harry M. Long and Orville Brown, two of the four representatives of the American Legion at the Paris convention, have been enjoying a tour of Europe, according to word received by friends in New Castle.

Word has been received from them on their way through Belgium and Germany. They also expected to visit Switzerland, Italy and southern France before they returned to Paris for the convention.

Walter Hagen Is Now In Baseball, Purchases Club

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Walter Hagan, one of the world's outstanding golfers, has invaded the domain of baseball.

This was revealed today by an announcement that Hagen, Bob Harlos, his manager, and J. Ganzel have purchased the Rochester club of the International league from John Hicks and William Gilbert.

The announcement stated Hagen would be president of the club and Ganzel would manage the team. The club under Ganzel's management won pennants in 1909, 1910 and 1911.

The price involved was not disclosed. The new owners will take charge of the club immediately.

Fly-Tox Helps Reduce Infant Mortality

Every year in the United States 250,000 children under 5 years of age die. Health authorities say it is significant that more deaths occur during the time flies are most active. Flies transmit more than thirty different diseases. Every fly should be killed. Fly-Tox kills flies. It is fragrant, safe, stainless, sure.—Adv.

Probe Charge Of Chicken Theft

When complaint was made to the police this morning that chickens were missing from 1022 South Jefferson street, Detective C. C. Horner and Officer Thomas Lynch were detailed to solve the mystery.

Now these gentlemen of the police force have good noses. It's not recorded at the police station just how they discovered the supposed whereabouts of the chickens, but some of the chickens were in the pot, it is alleged, when the visited the place of Mrs. Mary Mitchell, rear 901 Moravia street, and the odor of good chicken may have attracted these officers.

At any rate, Mrs. Mitchell, Thomas Johnson and Guy Tisdel, all negroes, were arrested this morning by Officers Horner and Lynch at the Mitchell place when cooked chicken and other chickens ready for the pot were found at the place.

They are being held at the city police station on a charge of suspicion pending the outcome of the investigation now under way, which the police say indicates that the chickens in the Mitchell place were probably those missing from 1022 South Jefferson street.

MISS MARTHA HOUK WEDS H. L. SHELLITO

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Houk, of R. D. 6, Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Martha Alice, became the bride of Harry Lynn Shellito, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Shellito of Grove City, Pa. The ceremony took place in the living room before an embankment of gladiolii, with Rev. G. R. Krupp, pastor of the Center U. P. church officiating. Miss Ruth Houk, sister of the bride played the wedding march.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of tomato crepe romaine, and carried Ophelia roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Isabel Houk, who wore cinnamon canton crepe, with velvet applique, and carried Columbia roses. Dr. Eugene Hillsell of Pittsburgh served as best man.

The bride attended the local high school, and graduated from the New Castle Business College. For the past seven years she has been employed with G. W. Moody and son.

Mr. Shellito is a graduate of Grove City High School and State College, where he is a member of the Alpha Zeta fraternity. He is now associated with his father in the construction business in Grove City.

After October 15, Mr. and Mrs. Shellito, will be at home in Grove City, Pa.

450 MILES ON A GALLON OF GAS

The president of the General Motors Research Corporation, in a recent article points out that there is enough energy in a gallon of gasoline, if converted 100% in mechanical energy, to run a four cylinder car 450 miles. Much experimenting has been done to convert this latent power into mechanical energy, but at present the annual waste in gasoline is appalling. In an effort to conserve gasoline and to increase motor efficiency, Mr. Oliver, noted automotive engineer, has perfected an invention that slashes gas costs to the minimum. He is launching a campaign to equip every car with this wonderful invention, and as he is now appointing agents, is willing to send a sample for trial. For full particulars write Mr. Oliver today in care of The Whirlwind Mfg. Co., 999—1236 E. Third St., Milwaukee, Wisc.—Adv.

DEBT CANCELLATIONISTS AGAIN

RETURNING tourists who made a "comprehensive study" of the European attitude and international relations during their two weeks abroad this summer are pleading with congress to cancel the war debts so the English, French and Italians will "love us." Their pleas are actuated by conversations abroad in which they learned that the debtor peoples are "disappointed" with the American people.

If the debtor nations succeed in convincing the hundreds of thousands of American tourists that America's claims should be canceled and send all back as their propaganda agents, another season should see the American people solidly with the cancellationists. Either Europeans are convincing or Americans are easily convinced.

What these enlightened tourists are asking is that the American people buy the "love" of the debtor nations. In other words, only a little matter of a few billions of dollars stands between the United States and its former allies. It will be remembered that this country bought that same love back in 1917 by lending to the allies the billions now in dispute.

Why is Europe "disappointed" in America? Is it because President Wilson failed in his mission to bring perpetual peace to Europe? Is it because penniless Europe is envious of prosperous America? Or is it because Europe has picked the United States for an easy mark? Whatever the answer, there are many Americans, knowing they must pay every dollar of debt Europe fails to pay, who are disappointed in their former allies.

These tourists who presume, after a hurried journey through some foreign land, to counsel their government on foreign policy are not to be ignored because they exert an influence upon public opinion far greater than is commonly supposed. They can do a world of mischief.

THE CROSS-CONTINENT DERBY

THERE was no cry for government intervention to prevent the New York-to-Spokane Air Derby because of the risks involved, although at the time there was much agitation in many quarters for prohibition of transoceanic flights. Since the derby fliers covered a greater distance than the overwater distance covered by Atlantic and Pacific fliers, it follows that the public makes a distinction between ocean and land flying.

The public was not inconsistent. It merely betrayed a belief that flying above land is safer than transoceanic flying. A few years ago it considered any form of aviation more hazardous than continent-to-continent flying now seems to it, which leads one to suppose that a few years hence not even long distance flights over water will be looked upon as unnecessarily risky.

No insurmountable obstacles were involved in the transcontinental derby and practical purposes of aviation were served. The division of the derby into three classes was for the purpose of ascertaining the feasibility of nonstop commercial flying from coast to coast in comparison with one-stop and two-stop coast-to-coast flying.

Flying across the United States is not a feat wholly devoid of danger as the flight has already shown. Added to the ordinary risks of flying are the dangers encountered over mountain wastes, plains and desert country. Between the two coasts an aviator will run the whole gamut of atmospheric conditions from tropical heat to zero temperatures and from fog to snow. Climatic conditions present one of the greatest obstacles to commercial aviation in the United States.

FOLLOWING THE LEAD

THE movement of peoples seems to have gone through several phases in its evolution. In the early days the right of immigration was asserted by force of arms and members. When nations became too crowded they sent forth an army to conquer and colonize a less thickly populated neighboring land, thus solving the domestic problem of population while adding to their dominions.

After the discovery of the New World, settlement was largely a colonial enterprise. The Old World had more people than it could feed and the New World had need for immigrants in unlimited numbers. With the opening of the American West the peoples of Europe were welcomed as immigrants and came over by the millions. In time the principal immigrant-producing countries looked upon immigration as a right no country could refuse to citizens of another country.

Had not some of the home governments of Europe sought to exercise control over their emigrants in the new homeland and had not the movement of the people been in such great masses, immigrant-receiving nations would probably never have questioned the right of foreigners to come to their shores.

Mass immigration taught this country that unemployment in Europe would stimulate the desire to leave and that hard times in this country would create opposition to the admission of large numbers of foreigners. At the same time the racial and national jealousies raised by the war made thoughful Americans see danger in unrestricted and unregulated immigration.

Canada and Australia and now France have sustained the principle of restriction as promulgated by the United States after a long struggle with the problem of immigration.

The pastor of a Presbyterian church in Omaha is going to have a radio that will give the Tunney-Dempsey fight blow by blow in his church so all those who attend the services can hear the results. It's getting so now people will not go to church just to hear the old-fashioned service of long ago.

No mayor has ever been elected from the North Hill. One was appointed once from the North Hill to fill out an unexpired term. That was a mistake at that some people contend.

Most all the mayors have come from the Third ward. A few from the Fourth and one from the Sixth ward. No mistake was marde in nominating Mr. Genkinger. He will make a good mayor and New Castle at this time needs a mayor who will work for the best interests of the city instead of quarreling about small matters.

And by the way, speaking about ex-mayors, two of them live within a hundred yards of each other on the same street on the North Hill.

Today's Storyette.

An automobile dashed along the country road. Turning a curve it came suddenly upon a man with a gun on his shoulder and a weak, sick-looking dog beside him. The dog was directly in the path of the motor car. The chauffeur sounded his horn but the dog did not move until it was struck. After that it did not move either.

The automobile stopped and one of the men climbed out and came forward. He had once paid a farmer $10 for killing a dog that belonged to another farmer. This time he was wary.

"Was that your dog?"

"Yes."

"Looks as if we had killed him."

"Certainly looks so."

"Very valuable dog?"

"Well, not so very."

"Will five dollars satisfy you?"

"Yes."

"Well, then here you are." He handed a five dollar bill to the man with the gun and added pleasantly: "I'm sorry to have broken up your hunt."

"I wasn't going hunting" replied the other as he pocked the bill.

"Not going hunting? Then what were you doing with the dog and the gun?"

John L. and Mitchell.
A Suicide's Lament.
Ask Him For An Option.
$1 Becomes $1,000.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

Fighting has changed. On March 10, 1888, this writer saw John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell fight in a muddy, slippery 24-foot ring on Baron Rothschild's training grounds near Chantilly in France. It was not like arrangements for tonight's fight.

Thirty or 40 men stood around the ring. One was Billy Porter, the bank burglar, who afterwards died in the German salt mines. He had a revolver in each overcoat pocket, and notified those in Mitchell's corner that Sullivan was to have fair play. Sullivan got it.

The men fought with bare fists soaked in walnut juice, and had long spikes on their shoes.

Sullivan requested Mitchell to "be a gentleman, you —— —— ——, if you can," when Mitchell drove a spike into Sullivan's instep.

The fight was under London prize ring rules, each round ending when either man went down with one knee on the ground. No gate receipts, no purse, only a side bet.

When the fight ended in a draw both men were locked up by French gendarmes at Senlis, bombarded by Germans. This writer saw them there. The French jailer had taken away their silk handkerchiefs "to prevent their hanging themselves." Both wept. Both are dead. What would they think of a modern fight with $3,500,000 gate receipts?

Frederick Gastier, a teacher of languages, killed himself, leaving written in correct Latin this, "I am nobody, I never was anybody."

That could be said truly in many languages by 999,999 people in a million. With few exceptions, nobody is anybody. We are human microbes doing work for which we were put on earth, then disappearing.

A microbe has no right to expect that he will ever be anybody, but the fact that he is nobody is no excuse for suicide.

Mr. J. J. Mitchell, able and conservative Chicago financier, who says stocks are too high, does not like "the antics" of the market. Ask Mr. Mitchell what he would charge for one year's opinion on 10,000 shares of General Motors, for instance.

Every well managed, necessary American concern is selling for less than it is worth. Ten years hence the country's wealth will be scores of billions greater than today, and that increased wealth will be reflected in prices of good securities.

Speaking of American wealth increases, the Chase National bank dug out of an old vault Tuesday a faded copy of its first report issued 50 years ago.

The Chase bank then had in all $1,042,000. The same bank told the comptroller of the currency last June that it had one billion and forty-two million dollars. Every dollar the bank had 50 years ago has grown to a thousand dollars. That's how this country goes ahead. Many things that foolish men are selling short now, 50 years hence will be worth a thousand times what they are today. Make a note of it, but DON'T GAMBLE.

Colonel Ralph Isham brings to America the "Boswell Papers." Unpublished writings, insured for $570,000 and worth it.

Samuel Johnson, thanks to Boswell, lives in the minds of thousands now as he lived in London in the 18th century. And now, as then, people are familiar with his conversation that never read books.

As time passes we know more about Johnson's personality, less about his writings. That's unusual. His conversation was marvelously direct; his writings rather "high-stepping." Burke said of Johnson's descriptions of women: "All the ladies are Johnsons in petticoats."

Johnson is not read as he should be. Young advertisement writers might try their hands at writing better prose than the opening lines of Rasselas—written by Johnson in a few hours to pay for his mother's funeral.

"Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of hope; who expect that age will perform the promises of youth, and that the deficiencies of the present day will be supplied by the morrow—attend the history of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia."

Mr. Morrow gives up his partnership with J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. to accept a poorly paid job as minister to Mexico. This he does to oblige his friend and classmate, President Coolidge.

Many ministers, ambassadors and others would gladly give up their diplomatic jobs for a partnership with Morgan & Co.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

A BUSINESS ROMANCE

Just another one of those amazing stories of the rise from nothing to affluence, stories which are so common now in America.

Many people know that the motor business is becoming quite common, but few of them are aware of how important a part it plays.

Only a few years ago, in 1912, a man by the name of Hayes had to leave Mexico and he located in San Diego, where he could be near his Mexican interests. Here he found he had to make a living, and with a second-hand Ford automobile he established a regular route for passenger traffic between the towns of San Diego and Escandido, a distance of about 50 miles.

That little industry has now expanded until it has 438 regular schedules with buses that arrive and depart with the accuracy of railroad trains.

It covers territory from Portland to Amarillo, Texas, a distance of some 5,000 miles.

It serves some 1,000 towns with its various branches. Between San Diego and San Francisco it runs de luxe buses that serve meals, have toilets and wash stands, radios and card tables.

Many people find it pleasanter to travel by bus through the country than to travel by railroad.

It is as safe or safer than railroad travel, for only one person has been killed in the last three and a half years.

It makes its own buses, it buys second-hand motors of the very best quality and makes them over, so that the buses are not run by cheap and shoddy motors.

It buys no tires; in fact, it does not own any tires, but rents all its tires at so much per mile.

In six towns it has terminal buildings for its passengers and in two towns it owns hotels.

The man who ran a second-hand Ford and carried passengers between San Diego and Escandido fifteen years ago is still the managing head of the company. It is now a public utility under the control of the state.

To increase a business from a little private automobile to a huge flock of buses operating on 438 schedules is going some. The man has scored a signal and typical American success.

REASONABLE ATTORNEY'S FEE

There are many people who cannot refrain from writing letters to newspapers. The newspaper publisher always welcomes these letters if signed by the writer. Many such letters are interesting, instructive and very worthy of publication on that account. Some are not so instructive but are quite amusing, and are worthy to be printed, that they may add to the Gaiety of Nations. A business man in a town not a thousand miles from New Castle became seized with a desire to tell the public about his troubles, and wrote a letter to his local newspaper. I quote a paragraph from this letter.

"Interrupted here by a man who wanted to borrow ten to pay back a ten which he did borrow from a man who, with another, had signed a 30 days' note at a banking house, and the time having arrived, the bank did notify the man, and the other who had signed with him, to please call at their convenience, if their convenience was immediately, and take up the note or renew it according to the discount rates, and if they, or either of them, failed to call and do so, the bank would be compelled by the law and its charter to turn the note over to a barrister for collection along with a reasonable attorney's fee; and the one who did wish to borrow the ten from me said that that's where the sticker is, that reasonable attorney's fee, as no man living had knowledge what it should be or was, and in faith, so continued the man, the attorneys themselves knew not what it was or would be, and the man did fear that, failing to get the ten to pay the man so he could pay the bank, he might lose all he had, since a reasonable attorney's fee might be such as would plunge him and his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns into debt forever. So after I had carefully resolved this thing out I gave the man the ten because, granting that I never see it again, I shall receive my reward in the shape of a fine grade of player harp in the next world by saving this poor man and all his descendants from the direful possibilities of a reasonable attorney's fee."

Grover Cleveland in his lifetime might have written sentences equally long and equally involved, but how different!

In Day's News

Harry E. Hull, who advocates a liberalization of certain sections of the United States immigration law to permit the entry of parents of American citizens who under present conditions are barred, has been commissioner general of immigration since 1925. Previous to his appointment to his present position Mr. Hull had served four terms in Congress as a representative from Iowa, of which state he is a native. In early youth he removed to New York City and later returned to Iowa to make his permanent home. He located in the town of Williamsburg, of which place he later served as alderman, mayor and postmaster. Mr. Hull believes that the present immigration law has resulted in many cases of unnecessary unhappiness and should be revised as an act of mercy.

KNOWLEDGE FOR EVERYBODY

You don't have to know Greek and Hebrew and Syriac in order to be educated, these days. Of cqurse, if you do know those languages, so much the better.

But the difference between being educated today and being educated fifty years ago, lies very largely in the fact that knowledge has been put on the lower shelf, where we can all reach it. Formerly, you had to stand up very tall and straight, or maybe climb upon a step-ladder of ancestry or wealth, in order to get yourself enough knowledge and culture to be classed among the knowing ones.

During the last twenty years the process of democratizing knowledge has been going on at a tremendous pace. In fact, this process is the outstanding mark of our civilization.

Nearly all children go to high school now. Everybody learns enough English to be able to read the newspapers. Even if one read nothing but good newspapers nowadays, one would soon become quite familiar with a goodly portion of the world's great body of knowledge. Most of the newspapers now print a great deal of cultural and educative material.

* * *

Within the last few years, authors and editors have been at work on books that are designed to place the most important cultural information within the reach of all who have learned to read well.

Hendrik Willem Van Loon contributed vastly toward this desirable objective when he wrote his "Story of Mankind." He produced a history of the world on a new plane. Whoever can read a Fourth Reader can read the "Story of Mankind." And whoever absorbs the knowledge and considers well the implications in his book has ceased to be ignorant about some of the very important phases of life in this interesting world.

* * *

Now there has been announced a prize of seven thousand five hundred dollars for the best book of "humanized knowledge," the Forum magazine and the publishing firm of Simon & Schuster co-operating in furnishing the money, striking a medal, and publishing the book.

Such a prize doubtless will bring out something monumental in a popularization of knowledge. It won't be a royal road to learning. No; what's wanted is a democratic road to learning, so that everybody will know something and whoever wants to learn will know enough to make life interesting.

By the way, are you reading any of the good books already published for the purpose of humanizing and popularizing knowledge?

Ty Cobb Through For Season, Plans For Hunting Trip

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Ty Cobb may not play again with Connie Mack's Athletics.

The great Georgia Peach left last night for a hunting trip in Wyoming, discarding his uniform at the close of the fifth inning of yesterday's game between the A.'s and Indians at Shibe Park.

"I have enjoyed my year with the Athletics," declared Cobb before leaving. "Connie Mack has asked me to return next season. I won't decide until this winter. I've been playing for more than 20 years, and while I may give up the game, there is a chance the sport may lure me back."

Cobb, it is understood, drew a $60,000 salary with the A.'s. If he cares to play again next season it will be renewed.

As a Mackian Cobb was a decided success.

Boyd Winner On Democratic Ticket For Commissioner

Three Precincts Missing In Democratic Contest Not Likely To Alter Result

With but three precincts missing from the tabulation, returns of Tuesday's primary show that Calvin Boyd of Pulaski, has won the Democratic nomination for county commissioner. Boyd had 610 votes against 413 for Tad Shields, his nearest opponent. Craig had 202 and Drake 261. It is not likely that the missing precincts will make any change in the result.

Former Residents Here; Surprised At Growth And Progress Of City

J. P. and Thomas J. Lanigan of Cortland, N. Y. residents of this city back in the seventies, accompanied by the latter's son Harold Lanigan, stopped over here Tuesday to visit the old home town of the first two named men.

It was the first occasion on which Thomas J. Lanigan had returned here in nearly fifty years and the second occasion on which J. P. Lanigan has visited here since residing in the city. It was the first visit of the son of the former.

Thomas Lanigan and son were especially surprised by the size and appearance of the city, the former stating that there had been many changes since he left here. He was able, however, to discover a few old landmarks which made him feel more at home.

Even J. P. Lanigan was surprised at the appearance of the city, although it is but five years since he paid a visit here. Most of the many magnificent buildings erected here in recent years have been erected since his former visit.

Both of the elder men worked in the old mill when residents here. While here Thomas Lanigan played a clarinet in St. Mary's Parish Band of those days. He has since played under one of the most noted band leaders of the day, named Patrick Conway, who conducted a band at Cortland, until he became more famous. Now he travels all over the country.

J. P. Lanigan is continuing at Cortland in his business of heat treating and tempering metals and blacksmithing. Harold Lanigan is employed in the office of the Cortland County Traction company.

They dropped over here for the day, stopping at a local hotel. They went to Pittsburgh today to see the ball game at that place. While here they visited The News office and other places of interest and met a number of old friends.

They first came to this city in 1874 and resided here for seven years before going to Cortland to make their home.

Virgin Mary Mirage In Pittsburgh Home Attracts Attention

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haber, and their family were convinced today that a miracle has happened in their little home in this city. The outline of the Virgin Mary has appeared on the wall of their home, they say.

The outline appeared on the wall a week ago last Tuesday, and has remained. For a few days the outline appeared to be fading, but since has become clearer again, today being almost as perfect as when it first appeared, the Habers reported.

Thousands have visited the Haber home since the outline first appeared. The crowds finally became so great, it was necessary to ask for police protection, the officers finally coming to close the house to all visitors.

The outline first appeared after Rita Haber, cleaning the house, accidentally dropped a statue of the Blessed Virgin, in the pose of the immaculate conception. The statue shattered as it fell to the floor. Three weeks later the outline appeared on the wall.

Priests, nuns, police, nurses, laymen, doctors, newspapermen, even children, visiting the home have reported seeing the outline.

CORNS

Ends pain at once!

In one minute pain from corns is ended. Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads do this safely by removing the cause—pressing and rubbing of shoes. They are thin, medicated, antiseptic, healing. At all drug and shoe stores. Cost but a trifle.

GARDNER

The announcement had been made that Rev. J. R. Routledge, pastor of Providence Baptist church at North Sewickley, would be the speaker at the service at the county home last Sunday afternoon, but upon the arrival of Miss Reece from Wilkinsburg, Mr. Routledge withdrew, and Miss Reece gave an inspiring message, and Mr. Routledge will be the preacher next Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Altman and two children of Butler, and her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Badger, of Gardner, were guests at the Robb home in Gardner where Miss Gladys Palm, of Butler, is spending her vacation.

Mrs. Whitaker of East New Castle, entertained the E. M. C. club on Wednesday.

George Maxwell of the old Pittsburgh road, and Gordon Peterson, of New Castle, left last Friday for an automobile trip to Florida, to spend two weeks.

Mrs. Lucile Showers, of Pittsburgh, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Huey, of East New Castle.

Gardner Sunday school will meet next Sunday at ten o'clock, Eastern Standard Time. The children were pleased last Sunday to find forty beautiful new books in their library. The books came from Charles E. Graham, of Newark, N.J., and are lovely. They are all Bible stories.

Rev. Mr. Wagner will preach at the East New Castle Mission next Sunday night. Sunday school is at three o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

Mrs. Mary Miller of Basil, Ohio, is spending her vacation with her relatives, the Comstock family at Gardner.

Miss Pearl Zehner, of New Castle, was a recent guest of Mrs. E. O. Alexander and called on other friends at Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clapper and daughter, Savilla, returned to their home at Gardner, after an automobile trip to Lewistown where they spent a week with their relatives.

Rev. Claude Downs, pastor of Savannah M. E. church, returned last Monday from Westfield, New York, from the conference which was presided over by Bishop Francis McConnell. There were three hundred ministers of the Erie conference present. Savannah church raised the pastor's salary two hundred dollars. Mrs. Downs went to Westfield with the delegates from their church, Mr. and Mrs. Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Hanna, and all returned on Saturday. Frank Reno who lives next door to Mr. Downs was helping to pull a tree across the road and in some way his leg was broken and he is now in the New Castle hospital.

Miss Emma Body, a member of Savannah church, is confined to bed with rheumatism.

Joseph Weinschenk is bedfast with a mild case of pneumonia.

Mrs. Roy McDanel of Lilyville, called on friends at Gardner on Wednesday.

Have You Piles

Then You Have Something to Learn

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in hundreds of cases with a marvelous record of success, such a wonderful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from McKee's Kut Rate Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and must do the same for you or money back.

Women's Societies At Pulaski Church

Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church of this city will possibly be well represented at the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Sharon and New Wilmington districts, Friday, September 22, in the Pulaski Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Alexander M. Lamb of the national board of missions will be the speaker of the afternoon. She will tell of the work of national missions.

Mrs. S. A. Kirkbride of New Wilmington, will speak during the morning session on "Reminiscenses." The business session will be in charge of the president, Mrs. J. J. Fisher.

Clearfield Boys Get Autographs Of Noted Men

(International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Curtis and Max Smith, brothers, bass drummers in the American Legion band of Clearfield, Penna., have obtained a prize collection of autographs.

They have requested, and received, the signature of General Pershing, Marshall Foch and hundreds of other celebrities on the broad white expanse of their drumheads.

The brothers are displaying their trophies with pardonable pride, and expressing the conviction that the names will "go over big" with the folks back in Clearfield.

REES NOMINATED FOR CONSTABLE

W. G. Rees was nminated by the Republicans at the primary of Tuesday for the office of constable in the Neshannock township district. He will take the place of Howard D. Leslie who recently resigned that position.

Symphony specially demands and develops the power of music to sustain itself in flight unaided, and is the supreme test of musical airmanship. —Sir Walford Davies.

Yoemen Will Hold Special Meeting

The local lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yoemen will hold a special meeting Friday evening September 23 in the Alexander Cut Rate store on East Washington street. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock that evening. Mr. Roberts of Ohio will be present and have matters of interest to discuss with the members.

Notice

Sunshine Quartet are giving a concert at King's Chapel church on the Pulaski road Friday night, September 23. Adults 35c, children 20c. Everyone welcome.

Some Local Comment Ideas and Suggestions As Given To News Man

By ALFRED SWIFT

SAMUEL FALKNER, Madison Avenue.

When the Dodgers set back Pittsburg things are beginning to look rather bad. It seems that Donnie Bush's boys would have to fight to get a chance at the flag, after all.

But I am sure of this: If they do get a wallop at the pennant they will put into their effort to win it all that they have and I am sure that they will bring home the bacon, not only for Pittsburgh, but also for Western Pennsylvania, since many of the boys hail from Western Pennsylvania towns.

MILDRED JOHNSON, Chestnut Street.

Speaking of dancers the most famous male dancer, to my mind is the late Maurice, the Frenchman, who died just recently.

Although he seemed to have had rather a sorry time keeping partners, yet in them he developed a sense of rhythm which made them famous even without his guiding hand.

He himself was the acme of rhythm and grace. He did not dance, rather he seemed to glide across the floor. And he performed the most intricate of steps without hesitation, the thing which seemed to be the fault of so many of the social dancers.

M. D. JOHNSON. Madison Avenue.

New Castle, it seems, is going to have another winning football team. And why they should not win I do not know. They have everything which should go to make up a team which will bring home the bacon to the town.

One of the best high school coaches in the east is their tutor and the boys themselves are no slouches. Then they are always in training, a thing which is so seldom found in a high school aggregation. And besides they play football as a game and not as a profession, which goes to make up for a good deal of sportmanship which is often missing from a team.

EVELYN DAVIS, Harrison Street.

There are many people who think that bobbed hair has come to stay, but I count myself with the number who predict that it will not be long before long hair will again be the style.

Short hair, while it seems to be old as the race, can never be popular for long, for it has always been conceded that the crowning glory of a woman is her hair and if the hair is shorn the glory seems to be gone, although I have seen some women who look much better with their hair bobbed than any other way.

SPECIAL TRAIN IN COLLISION

(International News Service)

ROME, Sept. 22.—A special train carrying 300 former Italian soldiers from Naples to Rome, collided at 6 o'clock this morning with a freight train near the Tiburtina station. The two center carriages of the special train overturned and 50 of the occupants were injured.

The accident was believed to have been caused by a sudden fog which obscured the engineers' vision.

The Great New Light

DUPLEX-A-LITE

Like the sunset from the sky
Without a glare to hurt the eye

SCIENCE and Art together have developed the perfect light---Duplex-a-lite. The light that banishes glare and gloom---the light that conserves eyesight.

GOVERNMENT investigators have found that approximately 25% to 30% of the children in public schools have defective vision. The alarming fact is that this percentage increases with grade progress through the schools.

The Government has published a booklet, "The Eyesight of School Children," treating on this condition. It cites as one of the chief causes the poor lighting by which children read, write, study and do their lessons at home.

Adults' eyes are affected in the same way, though there are no places like schools in which to gather statistics.

Installation of Duplex-a-lite in America's homes will remedy this condition.

After many months of careful study we now make this truly unusual offer as a service to our customers. To all we give an opportunity to install this modern and beautifully decorative light at a special low price and on remarkably easy terms.

The Duplex-a-lite is practical as well as beautiful. It floods the room with a light like warm sunshine. It provides you with home lighting to suit your taste—and your eyes. The light is always soft, well diffused and pleasing, eliminating glare and dark corners.

It is the ideal light for dining room or living room. Special convenience outlet for the dining room permits use of any electrical appliance at the table.

Special Offer!

Celebrate Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn of London celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 17. The celebration wah held in the London Grange hall on the Mercer to Butler pike.

A sumptuous dinner was served at noon. Generous portions of chicken was one of the unusual treats of the dinner which was served by the friends and neighbors of the couple. After the dinner hour was over the relatives and friends gathered in the upper story of the hall where a program of speeches was presented with John F. Nelson as toastmaster. Rev. S. A. Kirkbride, D. D., of New Wilmington a former pastor of Center church, spoke a word of greeting and congratulations. He was followed by Rev. S. C. Elder of Jackson Center, also a former pastor of Center church. A letter of greeting and congratulation was read from Rev. A. Fulton who is a student in the Union Bible school of New York city, recent pastor of Center church. Short talks were given by Robert McClelland, David Gilson and Mrs. S. C. Elder.

The closing talk was made by the groom who thanked the friends for their kindly greetings after which the audience stood and sang "God be With You Till we Meet Again." Prayer was offered by Rev. Elder and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Kirkbride.

The remaining part of the afternoon was spent in conversation and the recalling of pleasant memories of the past 60 years. In the farewell greeting the hope was expressed that they might all meet again at the diamond wedding anniversary in 1942.

Ground Drops 18 Feet As Farmer Stops Plowing

SALINA, Kan. Sept. 22.—On the farm of Prosper Lahey, twelve miles east of Saline, the earth fell in about eighteen feet deep, making a yawning hole about the size of a large room. The dropping of the ground is a mystery to Mr. Lahey and the neighbors who have seen it. Mr. Lahey was plowing in his field and he had driven his tractor and plows over the ground. He felt the ground tremble, but thought nothing of it until upon his return trip with the machinery he observed the large hole in the ground just in time to stop the tractor.

What lies at the bottom of the hole is not known, as an investigation has not been made, but there is no water in it. There seems to be rocks about the cavity. So far as can be learned, no other ground has disappeared since the opening of the first cavity.

Hard Times In Japan Slowing Up Marriages

(International News Service)

TOKIO, Sept. 22.—Even in prolific Japan, hard times have a pronounced effect upon marriages. The Census Bureau has just issued figures showing that 18,591 fewer marriages were celebrated in Japan during 1926 than during 1925. This marked decrease is attributed entirely to disordered economic conditions. There is said to be every evidence that a further decrease will be recorded in 1927, as business is even worse than in 1926.

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

WASHED UPON THE ROCKS

"Salt Water Turtle stopped his story telling and looked at the crowd gathered about him.

"'Well, grandson, what are you thinking of now?" asked his grandmother. 'Something interesting, I'll be bound."

"The traveler nodded.

"'I was just wondering if you folks had any idea how many creatures there are that can live on the land as well as in the water besides ourselves and the Frogs and the Beaver and your very near neighbors of the pond and field. I tell you, one doesn't have to go to school to learn things when one can travel. Poor Mother Seal! What a shame!'

"'Who is Mother Seal? What is a shame?' demanded inquisitive Box Tortoise.

"'Two questions at once!' exclaimed the jolly Tar. 'And I'll answer both, but in my own good time.

"'One fine afternoon I was sleeping on the sand in the sun when I was awakened by the strangest noise. "Thud! Swish! Flap!" I couldn't imagine what it was. I opened my eyes with a start and cautiously turned my head in the direction of the sound, ready to crawl off at top speed should any danger threaten me. But what I saw was such a surprise I couldn't move a foot. Only a short distance away from me was the strangest animal I had ever seen.

"'"A dog," thought I. Nothing but a dog has a round head and pointed nose and such bright eyes as that, and just at that moment the creature barked—"Woof, Woof!" Then I was sure my guess was right.'

"'"Hello, Dog," said I. "What are you doing on this lonely beach? I never heard that you were a long distance swimmer, and you never came down over all those great rocks above us."

"'I was going to ask more questions when the creature made a sudden turn and I saw that instead of having four legs like a dog its body was long—must have been every bit of six feet—and as slippery looking as an Eel's, and tapering from the shoulders down, ended in two fish tails at the end.

"'"Hello, yourself, Turtle. Basking in the sunshine, as usual, I see. Oh, that I could have made my own home rock, but the waves were too strong for me, and washed me ashore here. Better here than in the depths of the ocean, I suppose. Although my baby should have seen the light of day on the rock of my birth if it had not been for that blow on my head. It weakened me. I must have a nap now. I am all worn out struggling with the waves. Tell you all about it when I wake up."

"'And before I could say another word the stranger had clambered with his funny flippers up higher on the rocks and fallen into a dose, from which I had not the heart to waken her.'"

Next—"Seal Cub's Cradle Song."

2–Wins 1st and 2nd places in Atlantic City Stock Car Race!

3–Climbs Pikes Peak–22 minutes, 47 seconds!

During the first week of September, The Studebaker Commander, by thrilling victories over time and space, again proved itself "the greatest achievement of post-war automotive engineering."

Endurance—Stamina—Dependability

New York Harbor to San Francisco Bay in 77 hours and 40 minutes—total elapsed time. You may not have Ab Jenkins' craving to shatter records, but you will find in the car which he used dependability, freedom from repair expense, long life, and abundant, eager power for all your needs.

Speed—Smoothness—Comfort

Two Studebaker Commanders were entered in the 75-mile race for stock cars listed below $2000, at Atlantic City on Labor Day. They finished first and second, with average speeds of 85.95 and 84.58 miles per hour. The latest models of Chrysler "72," Buick Master Six, Nash Advanced Six and Hudson were also entered.

You won't ever want to go that fast, but you can find daily use for the acceleration, the smoothness, the comfort which the quiet Big Six motor offers at ordinary speeds.

Mountain-Climbing

In the stock car race to the top of Pikes Peak on Labor Day, The Commander was second only to a car which lists at three times The Commander price.

Thus we not only claim but prove that this versatile automobile will out-perform any other car within a thousand dollars of its price.

No wonder The Commander outsells the combined totals of all the other cars in the world that equal it in rated power.

NEW LOW PRICES

All Studebaker models have more than $100 in extra equipment without extra cost, including front and rear bumpers; shock absorbers; coincidental lock to steering-ignition; engine thermometer and hydrostatic gasoline gauge on dash; etc.

October 1 Will Be Straw Hat Day For Ambridge Men

(International News Service)

AMBRIDGE, Pa., Sept. 22.—Let Paris rave—Ambridge is going to wear its straw hat as long as it likes.

Aroused by an edict that the fashionable man should have discarded his straw hat on Sept. 15, a group of Ambridgeites formed a club wherein each member has pledged himself to wear his straw hat until Oct. 1, weather permitting.

Rev. Bernard Fetterly was named president of the new association, and John S. Duss is secretary-treasurer.

Radio Advertising By Government Is Stopped By McCarl

Comptroller General Orders Government Cease Using Radio Stations

Payment Of Funds To Broadcasting Stations Will Not Be Made In Future

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Radio advertising by the federal government was put on the taboo list today by Comptroller General J. R. McCarl.

Payments of funds to broadcasting stations for this purpose will not be aproved in the future unless specific statutory authority is obtained, according to a letter from McCarl to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

The incident arose over a series of short stalks by Undersecretary Ogden L. Mills, Assistant Secretary Charles S. Dewey and J. U. Calkins, governor of the federal reserve bank of San Francisco, urging the public to replace Liberty bonds with other federal securities.

Cost Mounts

The talks cost $5,781, payment in that amount having been made to the National Broadcasting company, which arranged a nation-wide hookup of stations. McCarl, while approving the payment, advised that congress did not contemplate the use of appropriations for broadcasting purposes. He suggested to Mellon that in the future should it be advisable to employ radio for advertising, proper authority must be shown.

"It is understood that the cost of advertising through the usual mediums of the public press and posters in public buildings has been considered a legitimate expense under the appropriation for administration of loans, but it would seem that the radio talk is not in this instance so clearly advertising, as it is in the nature of information which appears in financial newspaper columns without charge," McCarl declared.

"Radio communication is a modernism, but in recent years the automobile in its sphere was equally so, yet Congress has and still does require specific authority in appropriations to authorize the purchase of passenger-carrying vehicles.

"Credit will be allowed in the accounts of the disbursing clerk of the Treasury Department for the payment referred to, but the Congress has shown in the past a purpose to control uses of appropriations in expending for modernisms, so I feel it proper to ask if advertising loan issues by radio talks is desired hereafter more specific statutory authority be shown than now appears."

McCarl questioned whether or not radio expenditures come within the heading of "necessary costs". None of the treasury appropriatons specifically provide for this form of advertising, but possibly a fund for the purpose will be asked in the next budget.

Levine Again Delays Flight

(International News Service)

CRANWELL AERODROME, England, Sept. 22.—A further postponement which is authoritatively expected to result in complete abandonment of the long delayed eastward flight of Charles A. Levine, American transatlantic airman, was announced here today.

Levine sprang another sensation on England in the early hours this morning when, although everything was in readiness for the attempted non-stop flight to India, Levine called up his British pilot, Walter G. Hinchcliffe, and announced the weather was too bad to attempt a start.

Close Rase For Nomination In Mercer County

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Unofficial returns compiled in Mercer county for the Republican party primaries, this afternoon, showed the following to be county nominees:

Sheriff—W. H. Eagleson.

County commissioners—Harry Hunter of Leesburg and Harry Gibson, of Sharon. W. A. Bone, of Mercer, is but 16 votes behind Gibson, and the official count may be needed to determine the winner.

Leo McKay of Sharon was nominated for District Attorney.

Gun Wounds Are Fatal To Officer

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 22.—The death list in the battle between four police officers and a negro here Tuesday night stood at two today, following the death of Thomas Biczko, 44, a policeman. Charles Kormanik, 43, another officer, was the first to succumb.

John Milkovich and his brother Stephen, both wounded in the affray, will recover, according to hospital authorities.

The negro, Robert Armstrong, is being held in jail.

arate department of aeronautics, coequal with the army and navy, to details of the legion's child welfare work.

A proposal to empower the president of the United State to raise or lower the barriers of immigration at will, was voted down after a bitter debate, in the course of which the Illinois and Pennsylvania delegates declared the proposal would grant the nation's chief executive a "monarchial and grave delegation of power."

The convention became involved in another row over aeronautics when General William Mitchell, former head of the American army air service, as chairman of the aeronautics committee, brought in a report favoring the establishment, immediately, of a separate department of aeronautics in the American government, to be co-equal with those of the army and navy.

New York Now Interested In Foreign Movies

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Interests is being shown by New York's movie-going populace in foreign film offerings.

The technique of the German film makers has almost become a by-word with a number of domestic producing organizations, and the newspaper critics, hailing certain new pictures as potential successes, are inclined to judge the American products by foreign standards.

The producing organizations in Hollywood are making much of the fact that their directorial ranks have been augmented by foreigners, and the American products of Paul Leni, F. A. Murnau, E. A. DuPont and others are heralded as great successes.

IOWA WINS

Two brothers, an Iowan and a Californian, were arguing heatedly as to which state raised the largest products.

"We raise oranges so big," boasted the Californian, "it takes a team of mules to pull off a strip of peeling."

"It that the best you can do?" sneered the Iowan. "Why in Iowa we raise corn so tall we have to climb up and pull the stalks over to let the moon pass by."—From the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

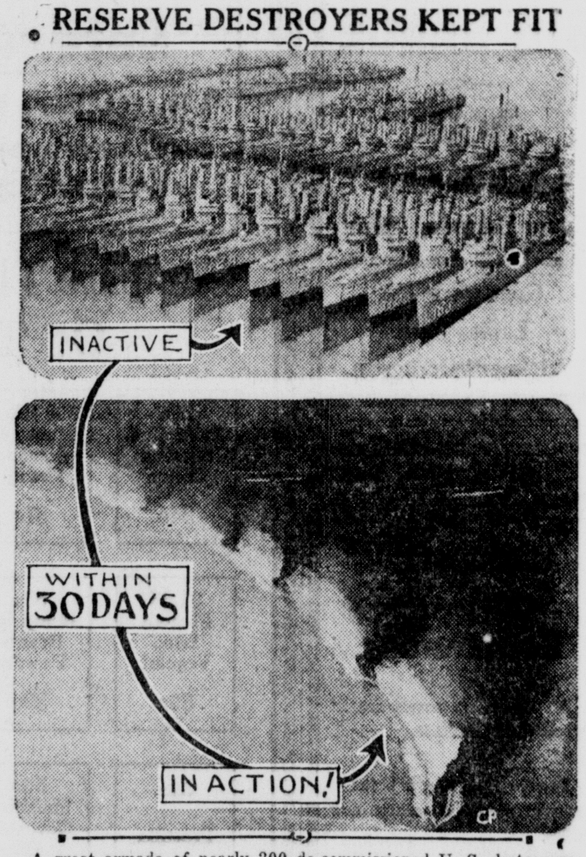
RESERVE DESTROYERS KEPT FIT



A great armada of nearly 200 de-commissioned U. S. destroyers, anchored at Philadelphia and San Diego, Calif., is kept fit for almost instant service by regular quarterly inspections by the navy's bureau of engineering. The ships, most of which saw service during the World war, could be sent out upon the seas to face an enemy within a period of 30 days. Top photo shows a view of the destroyers anchored at San Diego, Calif. Below another group of them is seen in battle formation, under full steam.

"Everybody else seems to be talking about Rinso, so I want to say a few words, too. My grocer had been boosting Rinso to me as a great work saver, so one day I got a package. It's simply grand! All you do is soak the clothes in Rinso—you don't even need a water softener—then give them a good rinsing—and your wash is done. And, mind you, it's cleaner and whiter than if you had spent hours scrubbing and boiling it. It's surely the safest and easiest way to wash clothes. We also use Rinso for dishes, woodwork, windows, and all the other cleaning. It's just wonderful!

MRS. ROY HAINES,
15 Atlantic Ave.,
New Castle, Pa.

Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.

This new kind of soap makes hardest water soft and sudsy

Soaks clothes whiter than you could scrub them

A GRANULATED laundry soap—that makes the hardest water soft, rich and wonderfully sudsy.

That's Rinso! Once you try it for the week's wash, you'll never go back to old-fashioned methods again.

There's nothing like Rinso! It soaks dirt and stains free without one bit of hard rubbing. No boiling, either—for Rinso soaks clothes so clean they're actually sterilized!

In washing machine or tub, Rinso gets the wash whiter, brighter than ever! Millions everywhere know this to be true. No wonder the makers of 31 leading washing machines endorse Rinso!

With Rinso, you need nothing else on washday. It takes the place of water softeners, bar soaps, chips, powders.

And Rinso is so safe—contains no acids or bleaches of any description.

Saves hands—saves clothes

Clothes last longer with Rinso. This is because even the most soiled parts—cuffs, hems and edges—come snowy with just a gentle rub or two between the fingers. They don't need to be scrubbed threadbare.

Saves hands from getting red and washworn, too. Try Rinso this washday, and see! For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on the package.

If you wash by hand
—you'll be amazed to see how Rinso saves you hours of hard rubbing. It actually soaks clothes whiter than you could scrub them!

Reveal Acts Of Heroism In Mission Fire

MISSION LOCATED IN ISOLATED SECTION

(International News Service)

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 22. — The tragic story of how eight members of the Order of Grey Nuns and eight brothers of the order of Oblate Fathers worked heroically to save the lives of 80 Indian children in a fire that destroyed the Roman Catholic mission at Beauval Monday night was revealed today.

Sister Lea and 19 of the children perished in the flames, according to the news brought here by Dr. Amyot of Regina, who flew to this city in an airplane to request that doctors and nurses be sent to those who escaped with their lives.

Beauval is 125 miles north of Prince Albert, through treacherous country, and is an isolated section of the province.

Many children were able to escape from the burning mission, Dr. Amyot reported. Those who did screamed in terror and clung to the veils of the nuns.

The fathers, headed by Father La Jaunesse, Father Ancel and Father Adam, worked heroically to save the 20 persons caught in the fire trap.

There are several buildings in the mission, Dr. Amyot said. The fire swept through the dormitory and hospital. Many of those who died were patients in the hospital and were unable to help themselves out of the burning buildings.

The fathers and nuns worked to save the children until it was obvious that further attempts to enter the blazing inferno would be foolhardy.

Temporary hospital arrangements have been made at the mission, Dr. Amyot said, but insisted that doctors and nurses are needed to care for the patients.

The exact cause of the fire, Dr. Amyot said, has not been determined. It occurred suddenly, he said he was told, and it was impossible to do anything but attempt to save lives.

Prayer easily sinks into inert meditation.—The Rev. W. Hodson Smith.

W. C. T. U. Organized In Seventh Ward

West Side W. C. T. U. Organizes Union; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Wednesday afternoon in the ladies parlor of the Mohoning Presbyterian church the West Side W. C. T. U. held a meeting for the purpose of organizing a new union in the seventh ward. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Roy E. Long, president of the West Side W. C. T. U. About fifteen were present.

Interesting talks were given by Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoning Presbyterian church and Miss Margaret Walker, president of the Lawrence County W. C. T. U. Rev. Schnebly, spoke of the history of the organization. Miss Walker told of the work done by the organization, how to start a new union, and work that might be done by an organization of this kind in the seventh ward.

Mrs. D. C. Schnebly, was elected chairman of the organization to act as leader until other officers were elected. Five members were secured for the organization at the meeting. A number of years ago there was an organization of the kind in the seventh ward.

Friday evening at 7:30 Eastern Standard time, there will be another meeting in the ladies parlor of the Mahoning Methodist church. At this meeting, which is open to all ladies of the ward, officers will be elected.

LARKSPUR KENSINGTON

Mrs. Al Johnson of Rosemont, O., was hostess to the members of the Larkspur Kensington at a 12 o'clock dinner at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Chris Ketzel on East Madison avenue, Tuesday. Nine were present. Following the dinner the afternoon was spent informally at the Ketzel home.

In two weeks, the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Stickle on the West Side.

AT ENERGY

Mrs. D. S. Evans of East Cherry street is spending today at the home of her son William Evans and family at Energy, Pa.

HAVE CORN ROAST

Wednesday evening the teachers at Mahoning school had a corn and weiner roast. Immediately after school the teachers left the school via cars for Flat rock, where they had their corn roast.

About thirty were present. On the huge flat rock leading down to a natural pool in Hickory Creek, the bonfire was built, and corn and weiners roasted. A delightful time was had by all present.

Committee in charge of the arrangements for the event was comprised of the Misses Geneva Flemming, Thomas, McElron, Helen Drumn, and Messrs. D. W. Burnsides and Wayne.

HAVING CORN ROAST

The Senior Christian Endeavor of the Mahoning Presbyterian church and friends will have a corn and weiner roast, Friday evening.

AT BUTLER

Mrs. Adda Robinson and Mrs. Charles H. Clark of Sunny Side, and J. M. Bevan of West Clayton street were at Butler, Pa., on Wednesday where they represented the Madison Avenue Christian church at the state convention of the Disciples of Christ being held in the first Christian church at Butler. This convention concludes this evening.

INFORMAL PROGRAM

Sunday the annual rally and promotion will take place in the Madison Avenue Christian church. As planned, there will be a short Sabbath school period conducted, then an informal program will be carried out.

There will be a number of recitations and the promotion of Bible school classes. Committee in charge of the program is comprised of Mrs. Mrs. C. J. Bernhart, Mrs. Adda Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Gilmore, Mrs. C. H. Clark and J. F. Edmunds.

BANK FUNDS AT SCHOOL

Tuesday was the first day the pupils of Mahoning school had their bank day this term. About nineteen dollars was banked by the pupils of the elementary grades. The Junior High pupils have their bank day today.

MAHONING BOOK CLUB

The members of the Mahoning Book club had a business meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. W. L. Jenkins of Sheridan avenue, this afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to have their annual business meeting and the election of officers for the year. No meetings of the club had been held throughout the summer.

TO MOVE SOON

Mrs. William Carnes and family of North Liberty street plan to move soon to their property on Wayne street.

Primary Results In Butler County

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Complete returns from Butler county show that District Attorney Thomas W. Watson was defeated for the Republican nomination to succeed himself by Charles H. Miller.

For register and recorder Roy E. Phillips won the Republican nomination against three candidates. W. Marks Starr for clerk of courts defeated Lloyd E. Henry. N. N. Moon, Republican, was nominated for prothonotary in a field of four. Frederick McGregor, Butler chiropractor serving time in jail for practicing medicine without a license, was second.

Ten Republicans contested for commissioner, the winners being E. H. Hutchison and John Faull. There was a lively contest for coroner, Dr. William F. Pohl of Butler, winning the Republican nomination against three candidates.

Democratic nominees for county commissioner are Isaac M. Dyke and J. D. Fleming. One Democrat will be elected to the bi-partisan board.

BESSEMER SCHOOL REPORTS ACTIVITIES

FOOTBALL.

Monday evening, this year's football team had its first real scrimmage Although the team this year is light the boys are gaining some real speed and expect to put up a good fight at their first game on October 1. The scrubs are also working hard and report having given the regulars a hard fight. The strong opposition of the scrubs held the first lines to two touchdowns.

Grist, a freshman, is showing up well at center. Snyder, Stanich, Glassic and Shrefler are doing good work in the backfield.

CHAPEL.

The second assembly period at the Bessemer high school was undoubtedly one of the best in the history of the school. The program was presented by the senior class under the able leadership of Miss Keys.

The program was a graduation farce with the motto, "Unfinished, But Not so Dumb." After devotionals, Naomi Farrell, as salutatorian made her bow finishing her speech with the word "Welcome."

The president's speech by Hettie Crum and the class history by Ina Reine were both humorous addresses. John Rader as class poet, cut ridiculous capers, Joe Stanish as class knocker proved well versed in the faults of his fellow students. The class will by Wilbur Stanley, class prophecy by James Williams and the valdictorian's speech by Robert Griffin were all well developed.

The faculty address to the seniors was given by Mr. Colton. After the class song "Ain't We Sweet" Dorothy Byrd presented each senior with a mock diploma which had been tied with long strings of black candy.

SEN-SOERS.

The Sen-Sores met for tehir first class Monday evening. Nine members were present. The first half hour was spent in class work, everyone working on the same project. After the half hour of class work each member began her own individual project. Dresses were cut out, aprons were begun and some fancy work begun. Misses McLaughlin and McClelland, hostesses for the evening served a light lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

MANUAL TRAINING.

Two machines were installed lately in the manual department a circular saw and a joiner. The saw is constructed along the line of the larger kind and is handy though small. It has an improved safety device.

The joiner is constructed about the same as a plane. It has a large motor and a cylinder with three blades on it which do the planing or smoothing. Both motors are run off an ordinary light socket. Boys that know something about it will be able to use them and they will be a great help to the department which is supervised by Mr. Lukkatila.

Last year an exhibit was given of lamps, radio tables, stands, etc. This year an even better exhibit is expected on account of the new tools.

HEALTH PROGRAM.

The regular health program begins this week. The boys and girls of the junior high have classes twice a week. The boys of the senior high are also going to have a health program this year.

SCHOOL PAPER.

The members of the Journalism class have just completed their first paper. The manuscript went to press Wednesday and the paper will be on sale the last of the month. There are 16 members in this class and each has his own particular work to do. Aside from the editor-in-chief there are ten minor editors, a business manager an advertising manager and three reporters. Miss McClelland is the instructor.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Thirty-seven students are enrolled in the typewriting classes this year. Thus five new typewriters had to be purchased in order to furnish the students with equipment. Many students which are not enrolled in the regular commercial course are taking such subjects as business law and typewriting in addition to their regular course.

Opportunities for a business career are far greater today than ever before. It is necessary in order to be successful in business to have special training in a business line. It is the aim of the commercial department of the Bessemer schools to give this training so that they may go out into the world and take their places with men and women who carry on the commerce of the world.

Those who study the rudiments of a business education may not always remain a stenographer or bookkeeper, etc., but it gives them an opportunity to come in contact with the big business men of the country and it is not long until he has risen to the position of manager, superintendent or president of the business. Sucess comes to those who prepare for the minor positions. As Mark Twain says "Do not stare up the steps of success. Step up the stairs."

There are more American actors who can play gentlemen than there are American dramatists who can write them.—Percy Hammond.

Machine production is learning that beauty is not the foe but the friend of utility.—Glenn Frank.

Mayberry Jury Out All Night Discussing Case

Two Women And 10 Men Are Apparently Deadlocked Over Form Of Verdict

NO SIGNS AT NOON OF ANY AGREEMENT

Apparently there is a serious deadlock of the jury, composed of two women and ten men, who heard the evidence in the case of Fred Mayberry, charged with involuntary manslaughter, in connection with the death of Mary Emma Gibson. The trial, which started Monday before Judge Hildebrand, ended yesterday afternoon, so far as the evidence, arguments of counsel and charge of the court were concerned.

Attorneys argued the case yesterday forenoon. Judge Hildebrand began charging the jury upon the convening of court Wednesday afternoon. It was about 3 o'clock when his charge was completed, and the jury retired.

The jury was taken to a nearby restaurant for supper, and went back to deliberate. All night long the case was discussed. This morning, looking somewhat worse for wear, the jury was taken down to breakfast.

This forenoon was again spent in the jury room without an agreement being reached. The jury was taken out for dinner, and again retired to continue deliberations.

Owing to the length of time the jury has remained out there is considerable speculation as to what the verdict is likely to be. The jury can bring in a verdict of acquittal, one of guilty, or can report a disagreement.

The jury is composed of the following persons:—

Edward Winter, laborer, Union Township.
Clyde N. Griffith, steelworker, Second Ward.
W. H. Morgan, laborer, Fifth Ward.
E. W. Eiler, carpenter, Fourth Ward.
A. S. Eberhart, engineer, Seventh Ward.
G. S. McCurdy, steelworker, First Ward.
Guy Fullerton, farmer, North Beaver Township.
Samuel P. Long, carpenter, Second Ward.
Laura Fullerton, housekeeper, North Beaver Township.
Mary Adams, housekeeper, Pulaski.
Francis Reno, farmer, Shenango Township.
Leroy H. Smith, farmer, Perry Township.

YOUNG COUPLE GIVEN SURPRISE

Mistaken For Bride And Groom Gang Was Awaiting

Perhaps there is one thing which happens only once in the life of the average young man or woman and that is being serenaded, but last evening a celebration was staged on Beckford street which was entirely uncalled for.

A large group of young boys and girls were seated on the steps of a store on the corner of Washington and Beckford streets waiting for a recent bride and groom. All of the noise makers known in the realm of childhood were gathered together; they were sure that the celebration would lack nothing.

One of the boys with sharper eyes than the rest and a more vivid imagination saw a young man and woman walking up Washington street. Promptly he called to the rest of the gang that "there they were."

In a very short time the young couple were surrounded and accompanied up Beckford street. Despite their protestations, the youngsters still believed them to be the happily married pair.

But even nightmares, for it was a nightmare for the young man and woman, end some time and when they turned into the wrong house on Beckford street the children passed on headed for the home of the real bride and groom.

Assault Case Is On Trial Today

The case of the commonwealth against David R. Lewis, charged with attempting to assault his step-daughter, Carlotte May Eskew, at their home on South Mill street, is on trial before Judge Hildebrand this morning. There are three women and nine men on the jury. Much of the testimony is unfit for publication. Lewis denies the charge.

Democratic Slogan For 1928 Advanced By Governor Ritchie

"Less Government In Business", Maryland Executive Tells Insurance Men

Warns That States And Business Will Be Swallowed Up By "Federalism"

By KENNETH CLARK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—A campaign slogan for the Democrats for 1928 was advanced here today by Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland. It was:

"Less government in business."

The steady encroachment by the federal government into the state fields, the development of federal bureaucracy and the growing tendency of the government to get into business are problems which must be faced squarely by the voters, he told the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies.

Unless this trend is checked, he said, the states and business will be swallowed up in an era of "excessive federalism."

Significance was attached to Ritchie's views because he is regarded in influential Democratic circles as a possible legatee of the political strength of Governor Al Smith of New York should the latter fail to receive the presidential nomination next year. Like Smith, Ritchie is a wet but he has not stressed the prohibition issue other than to declare that the question should be solved by the states, rather than the federal government. Some southern leaders have declared that Ritchie would be more acceptable than Smith. He will go into the convention with the solid Maryland delegation.

Plan Platform.

There is a growing feeling among Democrats here that the party in the next campaign should go before the country on a states' rights platform. This, they hold, would give them a definite line of attack upon the more federalistic political philosophy of the Republicans. Ritchie has taken the lead in advancing this view, to the exclusion of almost all other issues.

"Personally I am of the Jeffersonian school of Democracy which believes that the government governs best which governs least," he declared.

"The country's annual grist of laws is affecting and regulating our social and economic and personal habits and customs and methods of life until one begins to wonder where the Goddess of Liberty will find an abiding place.

"Everyone who wants something changed or who wants somebody reformed or protected or punished or saved, tries to get a law passed to do it, until if Solomon with all his wisdom were with us today he could not know or even understand a fraction of the laws which would govern him.

"Anything that chills the free enterprise of business or that deadens its initiative or interests arbitrarily with the free play of economic opportunity is destructive of social and economic progress. Too much government in business does this."

Bergdoll Will Be Given Right To Return Home

Order American Consul To Issue Passport To Grover Cleveland Bergdoll

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the draft dodger who fled to Germany, will be issued a passport to return to the United States, it was announced at the State Department today.

Instructions to give Bergdoll a passport were sent to John E. Kehl, American consul at Stuttgart. Kehl had received a letter signed by Bergdoll which asked for a passport. The passport will not permit Bergdoll to visit any other country.

As an American citizen Bergdoll does not need a passport to return home, but it was explained that it would be issued to prevent any trouble he might encounter in crossing European countries on the way to America.

If Bergdoll returns, federal officers will be waiting to take him into custody for fleeing the draft.

Governor Fisher Grants Respits

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 22.—Governor John S. Fisher today issued respites for Raymond Winter and William Meyers, Allegheny and Philadelphia murderers, who were to be electrocuted Monday. The date for their electrocution, if they are adjudged sane, was fixed for November 28.

The respite today was the second for Raymond Winter, who was convicted of the murder of two small children near Pittsburgh. The board of pardons has received a report on tests made of Winter's mentality but want to continue observation on the case.

The board at its session yesterday agreed to the appointment of a commission to determine if Meyers is sane. Meyers was convicted of the fatal shooting of a Philadelphia patrolman.

I think I am safe in saying that we (Great Britain) are willing to enter into official relations with Russia again as soon as the government chooses to behave toward us as one civilized government should behave toward another.—Sir Arthur Willett.

Rushing Work Feverishly At "The Castleton"

Preparatory to the grand opening, to be held the first week in October, work at The Castleton has reached fever pitch as men are being rushed in all departments so that the hotel can open complete on the date set.

Representatives of the W. G. Chew company of Pittsburgh, hotel outfitters, are busily engaged in laying the carpeting and placing the furniture in all of the guest rooms. An army of cleaners, hired by the hotel management, have practically completed washingdown the bed room floors.

In the lobby, workmen of the H. J. Conrath company of Erie, who are erecting the hostelry, are putting on the finish woodwork. Floors, which are of a special tile construction have been laid, and as soon as the woodwork is applied, they will be finished.

This morning the refrigerating system for the hotel arrived, of the very latest type, and especially adapted for hotel work.

To the emploment office, which is temporarily located on the third floor, many local people are going, where they fill out an application blank prior to receiving employment.

According to the assistant to the manager, William Huskamp, applications for rooms for the opening, and requests for reservations are continuing to pour into the hotel office, and will be taken care of immediately.

D. A. R. Delegates Seek To Elect New Officers For Year

(International News Service)

BEDFORD, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Interest in the 31st state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution being held here, centered today on the election of officers scheduled for this evening, following a series of entertainment features. Attorney General Thomas J. Baldrige is scheduled to speak after the election.

An address by the Rev. H. Howard Stiles, an automobile trip to points of interest as the guests of the Bedford Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis club and a tea by the civic club and the Bedford County Federation of Womens clubs also were on the program for today.

Chambermaid Dies From Injuries Due To Fall Out Window

(International News Service)

DONORA, Pa., Sept. 22.—Madeline Jaco, 17, a chambermaid in the Hotel Donora fell to the street from a fifth floor window and was fatally injured today. She leaned too far out of the window while shaking a rug and lost her balance. Her back and neck were broken. She died an hour later in Monongahela Memorial hospital.

The girl fell at the feet of two pedestrians about to enter the hotel.

Miss Lee's Concert Friday Evening

Program For New Castle Girl's Concert Is Announced

Friday evening, September 23, New Castle will be given the opportunity of hearing Loretta Lee, a New Castle soprano who seems destined to reach the topmost pinnacle of success in her chosen field.

Miss Lee graduated from Peabody Institute in Baltimore, Md., in June, the third diploma graduate of this historic institution in 57 years. Her teachers and her coaches, and the musical critics of Baltimore are unanimous in predicting a glorious future for her, and in her success New Castle can again take pride, for Miss Lee follows in the train of a procession of splendid singers who have come out of New Castle.

The concert Friday evening is being sponsored by the Music Club and will be given in the New Castle Senior High School auditorium at 8:30 o'clock Daylight Savings Time. She will be accompanied by Howard Green. Her program follows:

Election Boards Do Excellent Work

Boards In Large Precincts Cooperate Wonderfully With News

With the returns of every precinct in the county reported, the work of the election boards for the primary on Tuesday, September 20, stands out as a splendid piece of work. Particularly is this true of the work of the boards in New Castle and Ellwood City where the vote was most heavy.

The request of The News of a week ago that the boards co-operate with this paper in getting returns as they were completed for each office, was met with in almost every case. The city boards in New Castle reported their returns as they made them and through this co-operation The News was able to give the citizens of the county some idea of how the election was running.

The total vote in the entire county was about 18,000, with approximately 10,750 of this coming from the city of New Castle.

Prather Loses Out In Crawford County

Judge Thomas J. Prather of Crawford county, who is well known here, where he has assisted local judges, lost out in the race for nomination for a third term at the primary Tuesday. He was beaten about two to one by Attorney O. Clare Kent.

Discharged: Fred Beck, Neshannock avenue; Jennie Dukukn, New Castle, R. D. 9.

Many Get Votes For County Surveyor

It will take the official count to determine who has been selected by the Republicans for the nomination as county surveyor. Some indication of the problem in counting the votes of this office may be seen in the returns of the first district of the First Ward. There, names of ten different persons were written in on the ballot. Most of them received but one vote and it is probable that there will be at least as many names for which the vote for county surveyor must be counted as there are districts in the county, namely 81. In fact, if the record of the first district of the First Ward is any criterion, there will be a record number of names for which those making the official count will be required to compile their votes.

READING

Summer is over and summer sports give way before the lengthening shadows of fall and winter. It is time to read. Don't worry if you are not keeping up with the new books. Read the old ones first—the ones that have stood the stormy weather of the years. If you are about to read a modern novel, change your mind for a few days and read Thomas Hardy's "Tess of the D'Ubervilles" or "The Mayor of Casterbridge" or "Jude the Obscure." If you care for realism they have more realism and better realism than all the moderns.

* * *

KNOWLEDGE

Speaking of reading, recall the words of Daniel Webster: "Knowledge, in truth, is the great sun in the firmament. Life and power are scattered with all its beams."

There is no getting away from the fact that the prizes of the world are for those who know.

* * *

An old proverb says to "be content with your lot while you look for a better."

That's more than merely an old saw. It expresses the desirable end of a whole personal philosophy. The calm confronting of circumstances, the acceptance of things as they are—that is the way to peace. But this does not mean we should lack the enterprise and courage to change our circumstances when the way really opens.

* * *

DIVORCES

Seventeen thousand divorce suits are pending in the Chicago courts. This does not mean that the system of marriage is a failure. It merely means that too many young folks are getting married before they are prepared, financially or otherwise. They lack the judgment of maturity. Youth must ever proceed by mistakes. It is too bad that some of their mistakes must last so long and be so serious.

* * *

AMBITION

A traveler in England finds the state of the British workingman much below that of the American. The principal reason is not merely one of wages and home conditions. Britain is a country of classes. The thing that makes the American worker what he is will be found in his determination to better himself—to rise from the place in which he is to a better place. He knows that no social barrier stands in his way. He will be accepted for what he is worth. Nobody cares who his grandfather was.

The difference between a "going" man, and one who is not, lies in the single word ambition. The right to ambition is the single greatest heritage of the rank and file of us in America.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Wily New York photographers, in the summer dog-days of slack business, canvass the suburban districts. My neighbors in Mamaroneck and Larchmont are continually being besought to sit for home photographs, which, says the silken-voiced lady at the other end of the telephone, are sure to be shown in the suburban society sections of the metropolitan papers. Usually this bait works, and usually, also, a good sized order results from the tryout. The prices are high, and so the scheme repays the firms which use it.

One of the daily devotees at a Westchester beach is the town fire chief. I asked the police in charge of the beach if it weren't unsafe for the village to be unprotected as its fire boss ploughed around among the jellyfish. He gave me a contemptuous look. Ain't had a fire since the first of May," he told me, witheringly.

"Good News," a fair-enough musical show of the campuses, has turned up an original, a really first-rate comedian, in the person of Gus Shy. This man Shy is as funny as his name, and all without effort, apparently. Dorothy Gish laughed herself sick at him the second night.

You are lucky if some woman member of the Cosmopolitan club, at Fortieth street and Lexington avenue, invites you to dinner there. Contrary to all I have ever heard about pallid food and indifferent service at women's clubs, this one does its members awfully well. The other night we had roast duckling cooked with oranges, in a way to cause an epicure to shut his eyes for very ecstasy. The soup, too, had a subtle flavor, and the service was sure footed and quiet. The club has an inner courtyard which defies all city heat and dirt by remaining cool and green as a California patio which has been well watered.

The glimpses you get into tenements from the New York Central tracks uptown fascinate me. The only trouble is, I find the train goes too fast to give me a really good look at any one establishment. Here, in these honeycombed tenements, life seems pretty much to circle around the kitchen. Even when I ride home on the late theatre train, I see whole families gathered around against a background of white kitchen dressers and pots and pans. Usually there is an eating fest in progress. (Food is one of the joys of the poor in New York, especially in the tenement neighborhoods, where pushcarts bulge with cheap, excellent edibles.) Then, on Friday nights, along the railroad right of way, I always watch for the glimpses of lighted candelabra in the flats of the orthodox Jews. Every other window, it seems, blazon, this symbol of the old religion, fast dying out among the Park avenue members of the same race.

* * *

The lady who teaches in Brooklyn's tenement section says, composedly: "Italian wine? No, none for me, thanks. My pupils all stay home during the wine making season; we just can't get them to come, and I think the grape stomping is part of the annual bath for them."

USELESS

We are reminded that the open season for conventions is now on by a snatch of conversation we heard in a hotel lobby recently. Two brother something-or-others had bumped into each other.

"Did you get a room all right?" one of them asked.

"What do I want with a room?" replied the other with disdain. "I am only going to be here three days."—The New Yorker.

It is great to have a clear skin

A clear skin means everything to the popularity of men and women. If you are unfortunate enough to have pimples or skin blemishes, in justice to your friends and yourself, you should treat the source of the trouble. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much desired.

Thousands have been enabled to free themselves of unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

S.S.S. helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I was troubled with pimples and blackheads, but thanks to S.S.S., I got rid of them. My face now has a smooth feeling. I think S.S.S. does many wonders for the system. Besides giving me a clear complexion, it gave me a healthful look." Miss Angela Annunzio, 1007 S. Racine Ave., Chicago, Ill.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants. It is time-tried and reliable.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Auto Is Overturned, Destroyed By Fire, Couple Escape

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex McC. Campbell of the Atlas hotel, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon, when their automobile turned over on the road near McBride crossing, Plank road, and was completely destroyed by fire.

According to a report of the accident, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were going towards Pittsburgh and were nearing McBride crossing when Mr. Campbell noticed two automobiles approaching from Pittsburgh.

As the cars neared each other, the second car approaching Mr. Campbell attempted to pass the first car, causing Mr. Campbell to turn off the road to avoid an accident.

Mr. Campbell is said to have attempted to return to the road and in doing so, lost control of his car, causing it to turn over and catch fire.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell escaped with minor injuries, and the machine was completely destroyed. The drivers of the other cars are not known as they continued on their way to Butler.

PROSPERITY PAYS A VISIT

Prosperity came to the poor man's door,
And a welcome sight was he,
For he had struggled to win him o'er
For his wife and his children three.

So he greeted him with a radiant eye
And he wished him long to stay,
And the woman uttered a joyful cry
As their poverty went away.

"Since wealth has come as a lodger here,"
Said she to her children three,
"We are done at last with our neighbor's sneer,
As proud as they are we'll be."

"Beware of me," said their new found friend,
"Though I shine in all men's regard,
Thousands have learned e'er by visit's end,
I'm a difficult guest and hard."

And the man said: "Let us stay humble still.
Let us cling to our manners plain,"
But the woman had wanted to work her will,
And the morning found her vain.

She dressed her children in gaudy style
And she gave them gold to spend,
She ceased to teach them the things worth while
And they came to a shameful end.

At last to her lodger the woman said:
"Never friend comes here to call,
We were happier far when we earned our bread
And we had no wealth at all."

"I'd have kept your friends had you wished," said he,
"But you turned yourself to the new,
And you lost your heads at the sight of me
As so many people do.

"Now you've found the truth at my visit's end
Which all men come to know,
To the wise Prosperity is a friend,

English Educator Dies At Cambridge

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, England, Sept. 22.—Sir Arthur Shipley, Master of Christ's College, Cambridge, died here today at the age of sixty-six.

Sir Arthur was one of England's foremost educators. He was formerly vice chancellor of Cambridge University, and held many important posts in educational institutions in Great Britain during his career. He was the authority of a number of educational works.

Sir Arthur held degrees from important British universities, as well as from the University of Michigan, Princeton University and the Drexel Institute of Philadelphia.

Things to Know Before Baby Comes

During expectancy and at childbirth many muscles, tissues and nerves undergo great strain and tension. Much of this suffering may be avoided by simple means.

The method is not a new thing. It has been successful for over three generations.

Tonight! apply Mother's Friend to the abdomen, back and hips. It relieves tension and soothes the nerves. Do this each night and you will be amazed how effectively Mother's Friend aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily during expectancy.

"Everyone was surprised how well I got along," writes Mrs. Alfred E. Ammon, Muncie, Ind. "My pains disappeared after using Mother's Friend and I was sick only an hour and a half at baby's birth."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

Fifty Local Church People Hear Famous Canton Minister

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Fifty members of the Christian church of this city took advantage of the proximity of Dr. P. H. Welsheimer of the Canton Christian church, and journeyed to Butler last evening to hear his address on "Mipisters of Jesus Christ," at the Convention of Western Pennsylvania Christian churches conducted this week in Butler.

Dr. Welsheimer is a huge man physically as well as mentally and spiritually, standing about 6 feet four. His Bible school at Canton is the largest in the world, boasting an enrollment of 6,600, and the church proper covers one entire block. Dr. Welsheimer attributes his success to hard labor, and an infallible system of keeping track of new people coming into Canton. His organization is so trained that any of his men can spot a newcomer, and take special pains to make him welcome.

He has been preaching in the Canton church for 28 years, and still looks youthful, in spite of the years which must be behind him in his church record.

It is rumored that his services are sought for the dedication of the First Christian church of Ellwood City.

Mrs. Reinhart Is Speaker At Meet

Try Marshroot For Sleepless Nights

When your bladder is irritated and you have to jump out of bed two or three times every night it breaks your rest and you feel tired and weary during the day.

Time then to think of Marshroot because this good old medicine is guaranteed to help this condition or money back—and no time is wasted doing it either.

If you want to sleep sound at night, keep free from bladder weakness and gain in energy, get a bottle of Marshroot. It isn't expensive and is guaranteed. Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., sells lots of it.

New Secretary Is Elected By Class

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Twenty members of the Margaret Pugh Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church conducted their monthly business meeting and tureen dinner last evening in the dining room of the church.

The important business of the evening was the election of Miss Freida Wadsworth as the new secretary. Mrs. Sharp Jackson was named as a delegate to attend the Sunday school convention in New Castle October 12, 13 and 14.

A delicious menu was enjoyed, and a charming arrangement of fall flowers provided the color note. Members of the committee in charge of the dinner were: Mrs. George Fordyce, chairman, assisted by Miss Eleanor Humphrey, Miss Freida Wadsworth and Miss Sara Aiken.

Dr. Cook Of Valley Will Speak Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Dr. William Cook of Beaver Falls, a well-known man in public circles, will for the second time appear in this city in the capacity of speaker at the local Rotary Club dinner meeting which takes place this evening in the dining room of the First Presbyterian church.

His talk will be a continuation of his subject the last time he visited here, "International Convention of Rotary Clubs which took place at Ostend, Belgium". Dr. Cook will show a number of pictures taken at the convention and will be able to paint an interesting word picture of the activities there.

WILLING WORKERS ENJOY MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Ten members of the Willing Workers Society of the Trinity Lutheran church met in the church yesterday all day for the purpose of quilting. Many matters of importance were planned, however, and will be announced as soon as definite action is taken on same.

Pretty Luncheon For Mrs. Hainer

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Complimenting Mrs. Kathryn Hainer, who returned last Friday from an extended trip to Alaska and the California coast, Mrs. R. T. Brown entertained 20 guests at a pretty bridge-luncheon at the Ellwood Country Club Wednesday afternoon. Fall flowers formed an attractive center for the tables.

At the conclusion of the menu four tables of bridge and one of 500 were in play, at the conclusion of which Mrs. H. E. Helling and Mrs. Ben Gardner won score honors in bridge and Mrs. Retta Johnston the 500 prize. Assisting Mrs. Brown in receiving were Mrs. R. C. Stiefel and Mrs. L. L. Gelbach. The honor guest gift was a beautifully arranged basket of mixed fall flowers.

Those enjoying the event were: Mesdames Kathryn Hainer, R. C. Steifel, Adda Fisher, L. L. Gelbach, Lillian Thomas, M. W. Conway, W. R. Johnston, Retta Johnston, Harold Seidel, Ben Gardner, C. M. Iseman, Cleo Ferguson, Marie Benford, E. T. Hazen, H. B. Anderson, H. E. Helling and George Pugh.

Mrs. Snedden Is Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Tillman Snedden of Ninth street entertained the members of the T. S. B. Club at her home last evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ross were special guests and a pleasant evening was passed at bridge.

High score honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levere. Later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. King, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levere, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoover and Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Lawther.

Mrs. Rupp Marries In Florida

Pirates Down Brooklyn, 4-2

Pittsburgh Now Three And One-Half Games To The Good In Pennant Chase

MILJUS HURLS FIVE-HIT GAME

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 22.—Donie Bush's Pittsburgh Pirates advanced another notch toward the National league flag yesterday by downing the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-2 here in their final game at Forbes field this year. The Pirates are now three and one-half games to the good over the New York Giants, nearest contenders for the flag.

It remained for John Miljus to set the Dodgers down. He allowed but five hits and not a man passed first base until the eighth inning. He hurled a masterful game. McWeeney hurled for the Dodgers and was effective throughout but loose fielding by his mates caused his downfall.

The hitting of Lloyd Waner who registered three hits yesterday and four fast double plays, three of which were executed by the Pirates, were features of the game.

Mail Carriers Win Over Bankers, 3-2

Wilson And Funkhouser Engage In Mound Duel; Clark And Flynn Hit Doubles

New Castle Bankers dropped a close game to the Mail Carriers last evening at the Croton field, the setto ending 3 to 2.

Wilson and Funkhouser engaged in a mound duel with the latter having a little the better of the argument. Wilson was nicked for six blows and Funkhouser touched for four. Loose playing behind Funkhouser caused his downfall.

Clark, Johns and Nixon featured at the plate, each connecting for a pair of bingles. Clark hit two doubles and Flynn was credited with one.

French scientists report this was a wet summer, says cable. Yeah, over there.

The Greek influence will predominate in women's fashions for this winter. Right now the garlic influence predominates down at the corner restaurant.

Won't husbands ever get a break? London cable says those new boots for women take six minutes and 20 seconds to lace.

The way some ball teams fold up in the middle of a campaign one would think they had spent the spring in training cramps.

SATURDAY IS "HOME-COMING" DAY AT GENEVA

Davis-Elkins To Oppose Geneva In Opening Game Of Season Saturday

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Sept. 22.—"Geneva Prepares for Home-Coming Day." On Saturday, September 24th, "Bo" McMillin's Golden Tornado will meet "Cam" Henderson's "Scarlett Hurricane" of Davis-Elkins, at Reeves Stadium in the annual Geneva Alumni Home-Coming Day festival. Every effort is being extended to get in touch with all Geneva grads in order to make this the biggest and best Home-Coming Day Geneva has ever had.

Plans are being made for all class reunions on the campus and the usual alumni banquet will be held after the game.

The 323rd Field Artillery is having their reunion in Beaver Falls and are the guests of the Geneva students at the game. A special section of the stadium is being reserved for the soldiers who will furnish a lot of pep through the mediums of their military band.

Geneva has another great team this year and expect to enjoy a banner season, but in Davis-Elkins they have an exceedingly tough assignment for the opening game. The Covenanters are putting on the finishing touches for the big game and should be in tip-top shape and ready to go at the whistle on Saturday.

A special program has been arranged by the students for the entertainment of the spectators between halves.

Pennant Chase Is Now Interesting Pittsburgh Fans

Western Pennsylvania Speculates On Outcome Of Championship Melee

By CARL L. TURNER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH Sept. 22.—Smoketown is finding it extremely difficult to keep its mind on business and politics these hectic days with the Pittsburgh Pirates almost certain of winning the National League pennant.

Down where the Allegheny and the muddy Monongahela converge they are talking baseball mor earnestly than at any time since 1925 when the Dreyfuss hirelings won the National League and subsequently the World Series flags.

Pittsburghers are well initiated to the famous and widely heralded tumbling act their major league has staged so often in the final and telling days of the pennant chase, yet for all their experience it is difficult to find a fan west of the Alleghenies who does not consider the Buccaneers "in."

As far down the Monongahela as Morgantown and as far north as Bradford and Erie the baseball fans are arranging their chores to allow them to get away to Pittsburgh foe envisioned Pirate-Yankee melee early in October.

In Oil City where Joe Harris, one of the mainsprings of the Pirate offense, could almost unanimously be elected mayor this year, if the baseball fans constituted the bulk of the electorate, it is beginning to look as if business will be at a standstill if the big event comes to Pittsburgh.

"Coulter" Joe spends the off seasons in Venango county and his popularity is outdone only by the valiant Lindbergh in the oil country.. Farther north, at Corry, the boys are equally excited about the post-season class. Carmen Hill ace of Pirate pitchers, hails from Corry.

Out at Forbes field the venerable Barney Dreyfuss whose pockets bulge with the gate receipts of one of the Pirates most remunerative years, maintains the attitude of a poker player with three aces in his hand waiting for a duffer with a pair of kings to lay his money on the line.

Barney won't talk about a World Series—yet; not superstitious, of course but nevertheless not wanting to lay down any mental or imaginary barriers between his team and the bunting by making world series preparations with the Pirate not quite "in" numerically.

But after awhile Barney will have plenty to say. He'll tell about the flock of circus seats. He is secretly contemplating now; he'll tell the hungry mob of fans his nice baseball orchard will accommodate only so many thousand and the rest will have to take a little static with their World Series.

Pittsburgh's all too few first class hotels report wholesale World Series reservations at this early date. And the New York Yankees, American league champs, expect Pittsburgh to win in the senior league too, it would seem. They have placed reservations for 75 persons at a local hotel.

Optimism here has reached the stage where the boys down at the corner drug store are speculating on which pitcher Manager Donie Bush will start in the first game with the Yankees.

SEVERAL HURT ON ALLEGHENY FOOTBALL TEAM

MEADVILLE, Pa., Sept. 22.—After two weeks of hard training in the Allegheny College football camp, with practically no injuries, several blue and gold gridders have, within the last day or two, developed minor ailments that have compelled Coach Merritt to excuse them from practice.

Moon has developed a "charley horse", Lusk a knee injury, C. Davis a bruised leg, N. Kinnunen a bad ankle and C. Behrhorst a strained tendon. The absence of these players from active practice has given an opportunity for other candidates to step into the limelight.

Thompson Impresses

In today's scrimmage the varsity backfield was composed of C. White, quarterback; Hepler, left half; Thompson, right half, and Forbes, fullback. This combination performed exceptionally well, the work of Thompson of Coraopolis high school attracting special attention. The scrimmage session lasted but 15 minutes, but it was long enough for the varsity to carry the ball the full length of the field for two touchdowns.

Kinnunen at Tackle

The announcement of Coach Merritt that Niles Kinnunen would be transferred from end to tackle was enthusiastically received by followers of the team. Kinnunen is a sturdy lad weighing 180 pounds, who possesses considerable speed and plenty of fight. Coach Merritt is well supplied with ends, but is in need of additional tackles. It is believed that Kinnunen will quickly develop into a sterling tackle and that he may be found holding down the regular tackle job that was filled by his brother, who was captain of the team last season.

New Men Joining Westminster Squad

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—Contrary to expectations Westminster's grid squad instead of decreasing numerically is steadily gaining in numbers. In the last two days three new men have reported to Coach Beede for tryouts on the Blue and White eleven. Though these men have arrived too late to be of any assistance to Beede in the game with Carnegie Tech this Saturday they will however, according to the dopesters greatly enhance the potentialities of the blue-jerseyed squad.

The new men are Cameron, a 160 pound end from Turtle Creek; Finney, a 170 pound lineman from McKeesport and Clark a 175 pound guard from Bradford. With these new additions the squad now numbers about 33 men.

It is only a matter of seven or eight years before we will have between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000 registered motor vehicles on our streets and highways.—Walter P. Chrysler.

Miser Who Lived On Dollar A Day Dies Worth $800,000

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Word has been received here from Honolulu telling of the death of John R. Keys in the Queens Hospital. Keys lived in the Salvation Army home and made it a point to live on a $1 a day.

He was seventy-nine and little was known of him. Investigation, however, revealed Keys had an estate of more than $800,000, largely in realty, from which he drew an income of more than $1,500 a month. He also owned blocks of sugar and pineapple plantation stocks and bonds, and had substantial deposits in sevral Honolulu banks.

A canvass of the banks confirmed the reports that Keys carried large balances. The banks declined to make any statements concerning the amounts.

An old friend of John's, who walked into the city department of a Philadelphia newspaper, said he wasn't laying claim to the $800,000; just wanted to say he was convinced the John R. Keys, who died in far off Honolulu, was the same John R. Keys he knew twenty-five years or more ago.

Named After Character

"We called him 'Happy Jack'," said the visitor, Albert G. Haines, a bookbinder, who resides at No. 3328 North 18th Street. Back in the nineties he worked for the National Publishing Company on South American Street near Locust. Denman Thompson then was starring in 'The Old Homestead,' and there was a character in the play who was for all the world like Jack Keys. 'Happy Jack, the Rover' was the character, and our Jack became 'Happy Jack.'

"Judging from the despatches 'Happy Jack' had not changed very much. He was always eccentric and loved to hoard his money. It is said that Keys lived on a dollar a day. Why, he must have become extravagant! When I knew him he used to boast that when out of work he lived on exactly $1.27 a week.

"'Happy Jack' lived in a room, which he furnished himself, above a barber's shop on Fourth Street near Vine. He wasn't a bookbinder; only did odd jobs around the place. Work was scarce and he felt the pinch of poverty and when he had employment he made it a point to save his money. H paid specified sums weekly into an insurance company to guarantee him an annuity. He made up his mind that his would not be poverty-stricken in his old age.

"Keys was very methodical in his habits. When he worked for the publishing company he ate at a restaurant on Second Street at the same time every day. As soon as he entered the place the waiter would sing out, Pot pie and plenty of crust!"

"In those days saloons served free lunch. Keys would stroll into a barroom, watch his chance, grab a partly consumed blass of beer and then demand, "Where's my lunch?"

"When out of work he would sleep until noon to save breakfast money. He cooked his lunch, and his daily repast was prunes and coffee. Then he would saunter up to the Y. M. C. A. and spend most of the afternoon and evening reading. When he was put out at 10 o'clock, he would go to one of the railroad stations and continue his reading until early in the morning."

"Happy Jack" was born in Ireland. He served in the British Army and also in the American marines. Haines thinks he may have a few relatives in this country, but believes most of his folks are in Ireland.

CHURCH CRUSADE STARTS SUNDAY

Dr. Earle Wilfley To Be One Of Speakers At Series Of Meetings

DR. EARLE WILFLEY

The program of the National City Christian Church Crusade will be launched in Lawrence county on Sunday, September 25, which speakers will address the congregations of the Christian churches of the county.

Dr. H. J. Corwin will speak at the First Christian church of New Castle at the morning hour; Rev. S. R. Bradley will be at the Central church and Rev. C. J. Robertson will speak at the Madison Avenue church in the evening. Rev. Carl Cheek will address the Ellwood City congregation, Rev. G. W. Wise the Chewton church and Rev. Robertson will be at Edenburg in the afternoon.

On Tuesday evening at 6:45 o'clock at the First Christian church a fellowship banquet will be served to which all adult members of the above mentioned churches are invited and urged to be present. The dinner is complimentary and no call for funds will be made.

Dr. Earle Wilfley of Washington, D. C., will be the principle speaker of the occasion. Dr. Wilfley is a speaker of great power and well known by many of this city having formerly been pastor of the First Christian church.

The National City Christian Church Crusade is a brotherhood movement among the Christian churches to build a great representative church at the nation's capital. Many meetings have been held throughout Western Pennsylvania where hundreds have gathered to learn more of the purposes and plans of this great project.

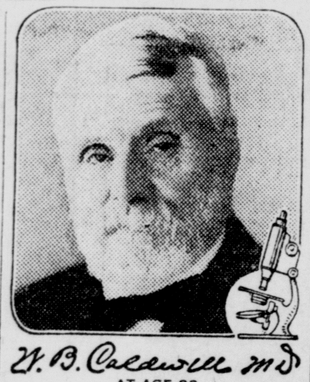
Doctor Found Women and Children Sick More Often than Men

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have gotten many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.



While women, children and elderly people are especially benefited by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, it is promptly effective on the most robust constitution and in the most obstinate cases. It is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause griping and strain. Containing neither opiates nor narcotics, it is safe for the tiniest baby. Children like it and take it willingly.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep a bottle in your home,—where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

Forty Civil Cases Listed For Trial

Prothonotary R. M. Campbell has prepared the common pleas trial list for terms of court beginning October 10, 17 and 31 and November 14. There are 40 cases on the list. The cases will be taken up in the regular order in which they are listed.

—being another vital health lecture by "The Doctor In Candy Form"

GREAT concern is felt by many when an infernal machine (bomb) is discovered hidden under some structure, sizzling, ready to destroy life at a given time. Yet few people pay attention to another kind of "internal machine" that is sizzling with dangerous, poisonous bacteria that will surely destroy health and life if not put out in time.

This "internal machine"—seething with millions of disease-producing germs—causes System Poisoning, professionally called TOXEMIA. Constipation keeps it sizzling. Nervousness, sleeplessness, weak and dizzy spells and forty other symptoms tell you the bomb is getting ready to explode your health and happiness. Ordinary laxative pills and waters do not put it out. But if you will just take Partola, the internal antiseptic and laxative (The Doctor in Candy Form) you will clean out the poisonous toxins that cause it, and thereby prevent bodily disaster. Partola is fast becoming the National system cleanser and health preserver. Safe, pleasant, economical. All good druggists sell regular box 30¢, double size 50¢.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Work has been started on paving of Mills way on the North Hill.

Just one thing after another. Election excitement one day and now comes the Dempsey-Tunney battle.

Election board workers in one North Hill precinct report that one voter entered the booths on Tuesday afternoon and asked for a non-partisan ballot. Another board reports that one of the ballots was found marked with one cross, the voter evidently believing that he was voting it straight.

With the nomination of Louis Genkinger as the Republican party standard bearer for mayor, a well informed local citizen comments that it has been the history of the city that most of the mayors have come from the east side section of New Castle.

Two more days of daylight savings time. Church services Sunday will be on eastern standard time.

Negroes Attack Young Nurse, Is Severely Beaten

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Three negroes attacked Miss Frances Kline, 20, a nurse at the Montefiore hospital here early today after taking her from a parked car where she had been sitting with a friend, according to attaches of the hospital. The young woman was in such serious condition, hospital authorities refused city detectives permission to question her. A search for the negroes was fruitless.

Small Truck Drags Airplane Fuselage Over City Streets

Last evening there was a great clatter at the intersection of Morton and East Washington streets. At about 11 o'clock a small truck panted painfully up the hill, dragging an airplane fuselage, which was painted green.

Up the hill the truck chugged, and every minute seemed about to be its last. Finally, though, when it reached the turn, it went triumphantly down Morton street.

BULLET CRASHES THROUGH WINDOW

When a .45 calibre bullet crashed through the plate glass of the front door of the home of John Rote, 1025 East Washington street, last night, breaking the plate glass into many pieces, he called the police.

Officer Samuels and Officer Lockard were detailed and could find no indication of where the bullet came from or why it had been fired.

Fortunately no person was in line of the bullet or they might have been seriously injured or killed. The police secured the bullet and are holding it at the police station.

GENE TUNNEY-JACK DEMPSEY READY

Chicago Seething With Excitement As Fight Hour Nears

Both Fighters In Prime For Gruelling 10-Round Battle Tonight

Largest Fight Crowd In History To Witness Championship Go

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Chicago, tingling, truant town of romantic realism, was a cauldron that lived and breathed and seethed in the emotion of the greatest moment today, a melting pot of all that was good and much that possibly was bad among the froth and dregs of a sporting nation; a melting pot that made over all classes into the great class, fired with the abiding idea of witnessing tonight the second episode of the Dempsey-Tunney serial for the heavyweight championship of the world.

It was to be circus day at the old county seat all over again, only on a bigger and better scale. And so a record multitude of 150,000 tramped the streets and gorged the lobbies, while late detachments rushed in from the hinterland by air, steel, concrete and water.

Rome, with its first night show at the Colisseum, was just a little, sleepy country village compared with the Chicago that today saw and knew; Ninevah, Babylon and Tyre didn't have a thrill or a throb in them by comparison.

For here was a great town running riot over the greatest show on earth, as another Barnum would have put it, a show that meant a record crowd, a record gate of some $2,500,000, and a spectacle by night such as seldom is given to the eye of man to behold. The fight itself, while the focal point of all the excitement, was merely secondary to the fun and the frolic that has gone with such an occasion since the first day the old circus came to town to the present moment of spectacles and extravaganzas in the heavyweight division.

Chicago Excited

The wine of keen excitement was in the air itself, for the day was cool and the weather general fair, which was quite the contrary to the conditions that prevailed at the first Dempsey-Tunney meeting last year. On that occasion the hittherto invincible Dempsey was shorn of his proud title in a deluge of rain.

On that occasion 130,000 persons gloated over the man's downfall because they liked him not and didn't care who knew it. But defeat brought him the popularity that had been denied him in victory, and so tonight's great crowd and tonight's great money and tonight's gripping drama has been made possible only because the country at large wants to see Jack Dempsey become the first heavyweight champion to win back a title he had lost.

Commission Rules

Such a performance, of course, would upset all precedent. But, as to that, this has been and will be an unprecedented fight.

No fight in boxing history, for example, ever was fought with the understanding that, if the decision of the referee and two judges is not satisfactory to the boxing commission it will not be announced from the ringside. Neither had any one ever heard of a provision whereby a referee may be tossed out of the ring in the midst of the bout if his work does not please the commission. In this event another of the six men nominated would be substituted and the bout would proceed as before.

Unusual? Yes. But think of a crowd of 150,000, straining with open mouth and lifted ear for an announcement that may never be made. Think of the buzz of wonder and comment and speculation that would follow the withholding of the decision, the sly winking behind the hand and the exultant chorus of "I told you so's" that would make the night hideous.

Dempsey blew his title by losing virtually 10 rounds out of 10 to Tunney last year. They will fight another 10-round bout tonight, and, so well has the ex-champion intrigued the popular imagination that many people are expecting him to win the majority of the rounds, if he doesn't win by a knockout.

Dempsey, a prey to devastating worries in 1926, admittedly was a better man for tonight's test; in fact, his speed and general condition were esteemed over that which he had the night, two months ago, when he knocked out Jack Sharkey in his official comeback.

But Tunney was a better man today, too; at least, he was physically. Psychologically, however, his position of 1926 was reversed, since this time he had all to lose and nothing to gain, also, he was under the handicap of having had no fight since that dank, forbidding night in Philadelphia when he lifted Dempsey's crown to the amazement of the multitude.

But did I say he had nothing to gain? Well, to be frank, he had nothing to gain but a cool million dollars. That will be his reward tonight merely for stepping into the ring. If

Cool And Cloudy Weather Outlook For Big Battle

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"Cool and cloudy" is the weather bureau menu for tonight's big battle as forecast by Prof. Henry W. Cox of the weather bureau.

"The weather tonight will be partly cloudy to cloudy, probably without rain and certainly none of consequence. Cool weather will continue, the maximum during the day probably being under 60 degrees and the temperature in the evening at the time of the fight about 55 degrees. The winds will be gentle to moderate and variable."

New Wilmington Tennis Club To Function Again Next Summer

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—At a meeting of the executive committee held here last night the activities of the New Wilmington Tennis Club which has been holding matches during the summer were formally closed until next summer by a unanimous vote of the committee.

Those who played for the local club were the Cummings boys, Clark, O. Crowe, Kirkbride, Herriott, Barnes and Kuhn. Due to illness, Clark was unable to play all of the season, but it is expected that he will be able to wield his racquet for the organization next summer.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

PICKS JACK DEMPSEY

Any man who can like Jack Dempsey always has a chance, and while ring tradition says Gene Tunney should retain his championship, I'm playing a hunch and pick Dempsey to win.

In picking the ex-champion I'll confess that I'm banking on Gene's mental state, the fact that he hasn't fought in a year and Dempsey's sincere desire to win back his crown.

Before Dempsey fought Tunney he had the notion he was invincible and when he entered the ring to be defeated by Tunney a year ago he suffered from ego.

Tunney, the not too powerful, but accurate puncher, fought a cagey battle and determined to take a lead, keep it but not take any chances on being knocked out.

Several times during the fight he had Dempsey in a bad way, hit him on the "button", but his blow failed to stop Dempsey—proving his vaunted punch had been left at Stroudsburg.

Gene battered Dempsey's face and took the championship on a decision and as soon as Jack realized what the loss of the crown meant he turned about face.

MONEY TALKS

He determined to attempt the "impossible". He picked on Jack Sharkey and in that actual fight sharpened his eye for judgment of distance and the training helped condition his body.

In the meantime Tunney bided his time. He only trained when he felt like it, but the big point is that he has not fought for a year, and no fighter can lay off 12 months and not suffer some.

There are other things beside loss of fame that hurt Dempsey. Producers failed to pay the prices demanded for motion pictures of his wife, Estelle Taylor.

This meant probably the loss of a million dollars. Several entirely uncalled for remarks about Estelle, reported to have been made by Tunney attaches, also made Dempsey eager for revenge.

During the past week or more the Dempsey crowd fired verbal broadsides that have annoyed Tunney. In other words, he is the man with the sword hanging by a thread over his head tonight.

Dempsey can hit better than Tunney.

Tunney's legs are better than Dempsey's.

The assimilative qualities of Tunney are unknown, as he has never had to "take it."

Dempsey can absorb terrific punches and recuperate quickly.

He is an instinctive fighter—the cave type. Firpo knocked him through the ropes and he came back into the ring in a daze and whipped the Argentinian.

"MOB" LIKES JACK

Dempsey is cunning, Tunney is a thinker. Dempsey will take instantaneous advantage of every break. Tunney will adopt a plan before the fight and adhere to it throughout.

Should Tunney take a slight lead at the start and find he can outbox Dempsey, he will play it safe, ride his bicycle and coast through the bout without taking any chances with his title.

If Tunney can get that desired lead and finds he can tie up Dempsey at close quarters, he will not stand up and slug and should be returned the winner on points.

But somehow or another I believe this really is not the old ballyhoo, but a "battle of hate". Dempsey will try to make Tunney fight at Dempsey's terms, and if Gene does, I'll pick Dempsey.

The reason for all this is, Tunney is unpopular. Why—I cannot say, excepting that the "mob" regards him as a "foul ball". He does not care for the "associations" that have earned him millions.

Dempsey is unusually popular. The

FORMER COLLEGE STAR IS VISITOR

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 22. One of Westminster's former gridiron warriors, George W. Mansell, who captained the Blue and White varsity eleven in 1910 and 1911, graduating with the class of '12, returned to the home of his alma mater yesterday for a visit about the old college campus.

Mr. Mansell, who at the present time is general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Bradford, Pa., captained the team in the days when Hollenbeck of Colgate coached the Westminster teams and such men as D. G. Ashton, DeOrmand McLaughry, R. M. Russell, L. H. Conway and Everhart were gracing the United Presbyterians' lineups.

On his visit here, Mr. Mansell remarked on the progress that Westminster has made and lauded the men who were making the progressive era possible.

Both Principals In Tonight's Battle Are Claiming Knockouts

Jack Dempsey Says He Will Win By Knockout In Seven Rounds

Tunney Declares That He Will Win Tonight And By Knockout Route

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"I think I'm good enough to win by a knockout in seven rounds."

Restlessly pacing his suite in the Morrison Hotel like a caged panther, Jack Dempsey made this assertion to close friends today as he waited zero hour tonight when he will have his golden chance to win back the heavyweight championship of the world which he lost in a downpour of rain in Philadelphia just a year ago.

And, at the same time, out at his camp at Lake Villa, Gene Tunney, unruffled and serenely confident, had this to say:

"I expect to win without any great difficulty, this time by a knockout."

The principal actors in the dramatic ring spectacle that is to be staged under blazing arc lights in the vast expanses of the egg-shaped Soldiers' Field before the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a sporting event, had secluded themselves from the public. They were waiting as calmly as they could, for the last few trying hours to pass before the bell summons them to the twenty foot ring pitched close to the breezy shore of the lake front.

Heavily guarded by police, Dempsey came into Chicago last night from his training headquarters at Lincoln Field and went into retirement at the Morrison. He was accompanied by his attractive dark-eyed wife, Estelle Taylor, screen star, who, after kissing her husband goodbye and wishing him "loads of luck" retired to her apartment in the fashionable Edgewater Beach.

Dempsey Up Early

Dempsey was up early this morning, ate a breakfast of bacon and eggs, did light calisthenics in his rooms, and then played cards with friends. Now and then he left the game and walked restlessly around his suite. He was in good humor, however, and joked with his companions. His father, Hiram Dempsey, who came here from Utah to see his son try to regain his lost laurels, visited him and they had a long chat.

Tunney, fresh from a ten-hour sleep, arose this morning in the best of spirits. He jollied with Lou Fink, his trainer, and Sergeant Bill Smith, his bodyguard, who slept in the same room with the champion.

"It won't be long now," Tunney commented. "Cheer up, you fellows, you seem to be taking it harder than I am."

The champion's main concern seemed to be about the weather. "I hope it will be good and cold tonight," he said. "The colder it is the faster we will have to move in the ring. The faster we move the quicker it will be over."

It was clear and cold with a biting autumnal wind sweeping across Fox Lake.

Tunney planned to leave for Chicago shortly before noon and is expected to put up at the Sherman Hotel where his baggage now awaits him. The camp was deserted except for detectives and a few of Tunney's close friends. Tunney ate a hearty breakfast at 8 o'clock and then retired to his rooms to await his departure to Chicago. Two police cars, armed with detectives, arrived shortly after dawn heralding the departure of the champion.

Telegrams Pour In

Both Dempsey and Tunney have received hundreds of telegrams wishing them the best of luck. Scores of telegrams came to Dempsey from the motion picture colony of Hollywood. Many of the telegrams to Tunney were from business leaders, society personages and statesmen. Theodore Roosevelt and Joseph Tumulty were

High Team Ready To Meet Franklin

Coach Bridenbaugh Sends Gridders Through Stiff Practice Wednesday

Franklin High Will Bring Strong Team Here Saturday To Battle Locals

Scrimmage was on the bill-of-fare for the New Castle High football team last night, at the Ben Franklin stadium, in preparation for their coming battle Saturday afternoon, with Franklin High.

Coach Bridenbaugh issued orders that all gridders be equipped with head-gears and shoulder pads and after the usual limbering up exercises led by William Klee, the boys were ordered into scrimmage.

The varsity team and second team battled for more than an hour, and then the second team was called on to do conflict with the third team. The practice yesterday proved to be one of the heaviest of the week.

The varsity lineup for Saturday's game will be intact with the possible exception of Paul Reider the quarterback who is suffering with a badly swollen ankle. Reider was injured last Saturday in the opening game shortly after his two long dashes around left-end that paved the way for two of the Red and Black touchdowns. It is likely that Sillman the quarterback from last year will be called on to bark the signals.

Whether or not Reider would be out for the remainder of the season was doubtful today. The injured ankle is being nursed along and it is hoped that the "galloping ghost" gets back in the game before long. Mooney and Sherer were also laid up following the Grove City game, but both boys are now fully recovered and they will no doubt see some action in the Franklin game.

New Castle High got away to a fine start last Saturday by toppling Grove City, and they hope to continue their streak against the strong Venango County outfit on this coming Saturday.

Coach Eddie Treadwell of the Franklin team witnessed the New Castle-Grove City game here last week and went on record as saying that his team would give the Red and Black boys a stiffer battle than the Mercer Countians. It will be the opening game of the year for Franklin High. In Miller McClintock the Franklin team has a man who will give the locals plenty of trouble if he breaks away in an open field, the youngster is a 100 yard dash expert and is reputed to be one of the fastest football players in Northwestern Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO SEETHING WITH EXCITEMENT AS FIGHT HOUR NEARS

they carry him out, he still will get the million.

However, the sharpshooting and clean hitting Tunney, with his pestiferous, pecking punches, did not figure to be carried out, although anything was possible when a man like Dempsey starts shooting that terrible left. His legs might be unstable, his right hand may have lost its old message. But Dempsey still can give a licking and take one, and that is one of the reasons he is an even money choice against a younger and faster man today.

Dempsey's end for the fight will be approximately $450,000, which was more than the champion, challenger and promoter combined were able to drag away with them for heavyweight championship bouts five or six years ago.

But times have changed, indeed, they have changed so much that $40 ringside seats were being counterfeited by the thousands last week. They have changed so much that only the fact that Soldiers' Stadium is too big to give the five and 10-dollar man a chance has prevented a complete sell out.

The betting has been light in this town, where betting on anything usually is heavy, but the money was going down on the line last night mostly was laid on the basis of dollar against dollar.

Betting Even

For, in spite of the fact that every disciple of the gloved fist from east, west, north and south will be there to see it, there has been much backstairs gossip about this fight and the so-called smart money has been said to know more than it should.

It is for this reason that the commission took its elaborate though rather unskilled measures to prevent the wagering tongue of scandal to run wild. The board, of course, concedes that it can't reverse a decision of its properly constituted officials, but it feels that it would be justified in withholding "an improper decision until justice is done".

To further strengthen the integrity of its position, the commission has declared itself for two prominent citizens to act as amateur judges and the whisper today was that they would be none other than George Lytton and Marshall Field himself.

The referee will be selected from among Dave Miller, bellwether of local officials; Joe Choyinsky, the old heavyweight; Dave Barry, another; Jimmy Gardner, former welterweight; Emil Thiry, old-timer of the game in this section, and Tommy Thomas. Most of those mentioned were said from time to time to have little chance to get the nod. Yet so uncertain is the referee situation in this section that one of the six cannot miss because they are all there are, there are no more.

However, in spite of all the rumblings from under cover, Dempsey's popularity has carried him into the betting as an even money favorite, where once he was a 5 to 7 short choice.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

"mob" likes him because he has never proved a "wild pitch" in the ring. He goes here, there, everywhere, scatters money, strings with the "mob" and doesn't "high hat".

In playing the hunch that Jack will win I also consider the statements alleged to have been uttered by Tunney's camp that the photographers, when they asked for Tunney matter, were told:

"Why not go over to the Dempsey camp and get some publicity in the way of love scenes between Dempsey and Estelle (Taylor)." This was uncalled for.

BATTLE TO DEATH

This remark, plus the slacker talk, has fired Jack to the point where he means to win or go down trying. It means millions to him and greater popularity than ever.

Fighters are booked for big bouts on account of their popularity. No one will say there is Dempsey sentiment lacking. Tunney is too quiet to get along with the fight public.

Tonight Dempsey will enter the ring without worries. Tunney has been annoyed and in addition must bear the responsibility of retaining his championship.

Tunney should win by every known tradition of the ring. They never come back, the old saying says, but somehow or another I'm playing a hunch that Dempsey will smash tradition tonight.

Clifton Flats Defeats Bakers

The Clifton Flats team downed the Model Bakers 13 to 8, in a game played last night, at the Clifton Flats field. The game was halted in the sixth inning due to darkness.

Quinn and Shoaff on the mound for the Clifton Flats boys allowed but six hits between them, while the Flats team gathered twelve safe blows from A. Mehalic and Russell.

On Tuesday night the Clifton Flats team defeated the Central Christian church team by a score of 11 to 5.

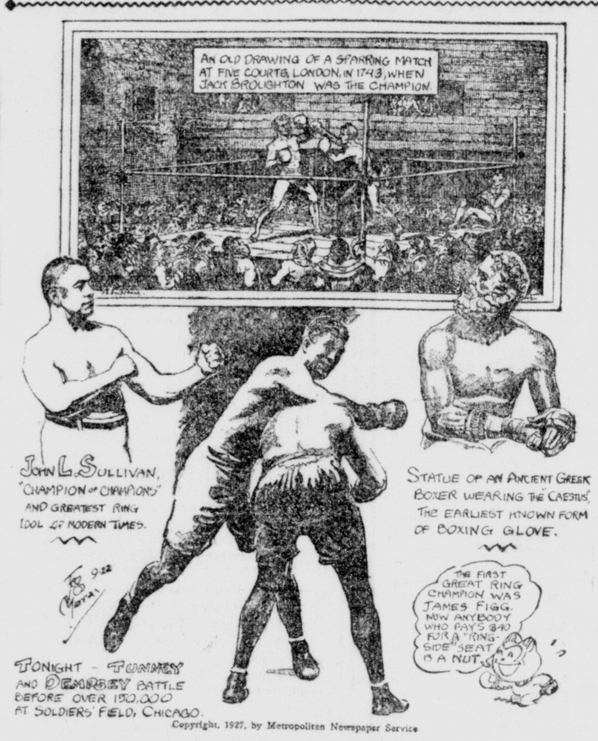
Some Boxing History — By Feg Murray



Tonight, in case you have forgotten it, Dempsey and Tunney meet in Chicago for the world's heavyweight championship. About 150,000 people will pay close to $3,000,000 to see the contest. A little boxing history, therefore, should not be out of place at this time.

Greek mythology and history are full of references to boxing, which the ancients looked upon as a common accomplishment and a popular sport. The invention of fighting with the fists, which the Greeks regarded a contest of skill rather than of brute strength, was ascribed to Theseus, a son of Zeus. Homer, the first sports writer" in history, tells in the Odyssey of a stirring battle between Odysseus and Irus, and in the Iliad he describes the knock-out of Euryalus by Epeius for the prize offered by Achilles at the games of Patroclus.

The caestus, or first boxing gloves, were made of soft leather thongs to which later were added strips of hard stiff leather, and later still, presumably by the Romans, masses of lead and iron. These cruel affairs were never seen in the Olympic games, however, but delighted the bloodthirsty Romans in their exhibitions in the Colosseum.

Skipping down through the years, we come to James Broughton, champion of England from 1732 to 1750, and called "the father of boxing in England" because he drafted the first set of rules for the game in 1743. The first glove contest of modern times was not that between John L. Sullivan and Jim Corbett in 1892, as gloves were used in sparring in Broughton's time, and in 1818 a French publican tells of a fight between two Englishmen, each of whom wore "huge padded gloves." The mighty "John L." won the last world's championship bare-knuckle fight when he defeated Jake Kilrain at Richburg, Miss., in July, 1889. He got $10,000 for going 73 rounds, while Tunney will get about 100 times that amount for going only ten rounds tonight. Oh yes, boxing has made great strides ahead, all right!

Feg Murray Says—

A "Glossary of Technical Terms Employed in the Game of Golf" says that "a gobble" is "a rapid, straight putt into the hole," but it does not say that it fills the cavity best on Thanksgiving day.

Westminster Opens Season On Saturday Against Tech Team

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 22.—Coaches "Dyke" Beede and "Johnny" Lawther of the Westminster football team have put their men through the last stiff scrimmage sessions before the Carnegie Tech game and are now engaged in polishing up the fine parts of the Blue and White gridiron machine.

Little is known concerning the team which will start against Carnegie Tech at South High stadium, Youngstown, Saturday afternoon. It is almost certain, however, that Beede will use most of his men in an effort to determine the comparative ability of the men on the squad.

The combination which has been worked together for the past two weeks includes Boone at center; Machin and Tweedie or Bowen, ends; Dombrowski and Furno, tackles; Ayers and Smith, guards; Hall, quarterback; Campbell and Lauder, halfbacks; and McQuiston or Dible, fullback. Other men which have been used with this combination include Havrilla and O'Donovan, fullback; Aker and Wrigley, quarterbacks; Cordes, center; Crowell and Kelly, ends; Armour and Sweet, tackles; Fisher and Krueger, guards; and Holzapfel and Riccy, halfbacks.

Coach Wally Steffen of the Carnegie Tartans has all his men available but Kerr, backfield star. It will be of interest to many to see the outcome of Tech system against Tech system, of tutor against pupil. While there is little doubt but that Tech, conquerors of Notre Dame last year, will defeat the Blue and White outfit, it is certain that there will be 60 minutes of real football played before the final whistle blows.

The entire Westminster students body, townspeople, and faculty members will journey to Youngstown on Saturday to see the opening game. These, together with the Carnegie Tech student body, the alumni of the two schools, and the high school cheering sections will make a crowd of at least 15,000 spectators.

The Westminster squad will leave New Wilmington Saturday morning after witnessing part of the Freshman Stunt Day exercises which take place on the athletic field at 9 o'clock. In all probability they will return to New Wilmington immediately after the game Saturday afternoon.

In preparation for the game, head cheer leader William Blakely has called a pep meeting in the college gymnasium for Friday evening. At this time the cheer leaders, dressed in their new outfits, will lead the students in rehearsing the old cheers and learning a number of new ones. The cheer leaders for the year are William Blakely, Turtle Creek; Kenneth Dyer, Pittsburgh; and Wilson Botsford, of Pittsburgh.

Pirates-Giants Open Important Series Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Either they clinch the pennant or they don't.

This was the sentiment here as the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants clashed today in a twin bill, initiating their four-game series at Forbes field.

Pirate fans, looking back over the record of the McGrawmen during the last few weeks, viewed the situation with more or less elation. If the Giants continue their splitting act, dividing the games with the Corsairs, the situation will remain in a status quo, the Bushmen holding their 3½ game lead.

The sentiment here today was that everything depended on the games today, pennant hopes and all.

Should the Pirates win both ends of the bargain bill, it was pointed out, the Bushmen will emerge this afternoon with a 5½ game lead over the Giants, and margin almost insurmountable at this late date.

On the other hand, should the Giants cop both ends of the double header, they will be within a striking distance of the Pirates and may take the lead by half a game before the series is completed.

There was a continued demand for world series seats today, letters pouring into the office of Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the club, asking for reservations

Crucial Series Starts Today

Pirates And Giants In Final Test Of Year At Forbes Field Today

MEADOWS-ALDRIDGE READY TO PITCH

International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The most crucial series of the year begins in Pittsburgh today when the embattled Giants, tied with the Cardinals for second place, tackle the Pirates in a double-header. The Giants trail the leaders by 3 1-2 games this morning as a result of Pittsburgh's victory over Brooklyn yesterday, and must take at least three of the four games to remain within striking distance of the Buccaneers in the last short rush down the stretch.

John McGraw, fiery leader of the New York outfit, has rejoined the club following an illness and will be in there telling the Pirates where to get off and the Giants when to go on. He probably will shoot Fitzsimmons and Benton at the Bucs in today's twin bill.

Meanwhile the Cardinals, who play two games today with the somewhat demoralized Boston Braves, have an excellent chance of forging to the front while the Giants and Pirates are slitting each others' throats.

In order to clinch the pennant the Pirates must win eight of their remaining eleven games, provided St. Louis and New York both win ten straight. Even if the Giants and Cards win eight games, Pittsburgh can grab the bunting by taking only six out of eleven.

John Miljus, the perennial rookie who was with Brooklyn in 1920, was a life-saver for Pittsburgh yesterday. He beat the Robins 4 to 2, his mates taking him to four runs in the fourth inning.

Other National League clubs were idle. In the junior circuit, Babe Ruth saved the Yanks from a shutout by delivering his 55th homer. He needs only five more to break his 1921 record. Gibson pitched for Detroit and won 6 to 1. The Yanks made no less than six errors and the fans razzed them without restraint.

After helping the Athletics lose to Cleveland 6 to 5, Ty Cobb decided he had had enough baseball for the season and departed on a hunting trip, undecided as to whether he will play next year. Connie Mack offered to renew Ty's salary at the same impressive figures.

The Santors swamped the Browns 10 to 0, and are still tied with Detroit for third place. Ganzel, a Washington rookie with a famous baseball name and a wicked wallop, clouted a triple, two doubles and a single.

A pinch double by Red Rollings in the ninth staked the Red Sox to a 3 to 2 victory over the White Sox.

Grocers Form Football Team

Italian Bulldogs To Be Known As Marcella Grocers This Season

The Marcella Grocers after enjoying a successful baseball and basketball season, will turn their attention to football. Fred Marcella well known South Side amateur athlete, today made the announcement that the Italian Bulldogs would play under the name of the Marcella Grocers this year.

The Bulldogs were the junior champions in 1925, and runnersup last year to the Croton team. Bruce Alexander and Nick DiCarbo former members of the Bulldogs will not be with the team this year, due to the fact that both boys are members of the New Castle high football team.

Bogdon, Kaufmann and Baptiste from the East Side Buccaneers, champions in 1922, will be with the Grocers this year. The Grocers lineup for 1927 will include some of the following well known athletes: Mike-Di Thomas, Fernati, "Yanks" Marcella, Nocera, F. Ross, Scaglione, S. Campoli, Augostine, R. Campoli, Pascarella, L. Ross, Tom Marcella, Scopio, Long, Mash, E. Gennock, Cassachia, Blundo, and Fred Marcella. Charles Haddah, former fighter and member of the Italian Bulldogs last year, has moved to Chicago and will not be available this year.

The Grocers have selected Centennial Field for their games this year, due to the fact that the B. & O. grounds are unfit for play. Ernie Richeal and Harold Hannon, former New Castle high players, are asked to get in touch with Fred Marcella.

Kirker To Stage 1700 Mile Marathon Swim

New Castle Natators To Cover Distance From Here To New Orleans At "Y" Pool

One Lap To Count One Mile In Feature Event; Big Race Starts Next Monday

A 1700-mile marathon swim, the distance from New Castle to New Orleans, will be held here for men and boys, according to Walter E. Kirker, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., today.

The contestants, however, will not plunge into the Shenango river here, to swim to the Mahoning, thence to the Ohio river and down the Mississippi river to their destination, but will try another method which Kirker has devised—which will be something entirely new for local aquatic stars.

Almost 20 Miles.

Every lap of the Y. M. C. A. pool will be regarded as one mile and the first man or boy to swim the 1700 laps will be adjudged the winner. One lap of the pool is exactly 20 yards, making the distance to be covered 34,000 yards or approximately 20 miles.

There will be no designated time for men and boys to swim at the association pool, everyone competing having the privilege of swimming as far as he cares during his regular swim period. The boys will swim at class periods while members of the senior department may try any time that they care to enter the pool.

Honor System.

Records of participants will be kept in the locker room office. Official count will be kept of the boys swimming the marathon, but senior members will be placed on their honor and after each swim they will report their distance covered during that day.

There will be no regulations as to when or how the contestants swim. It is permissible to swim three, five or 50 laps at one time, or if one cares to swim one lap and then rest for ten minutes or a half hour before swimming another lap, he can do so. "Just so they swim the entire distance, that's what counts," said Kirker in making clear the rules of the marathon event.

Who Will Win.

The marathon event begins Monday, September 26. Start the big grind the first day and see how long it takes you to finish. Reports will be published weekly. Who is the first boy or man to swim the distance? It will be quite a feat and well worth trying for by the many male natators who frequent the association pool here daily.

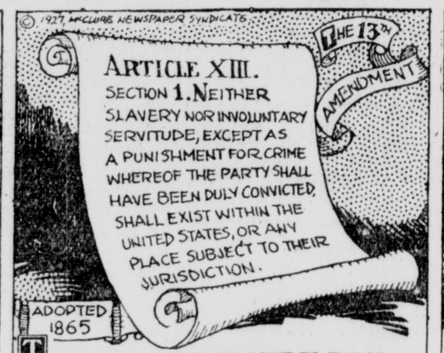
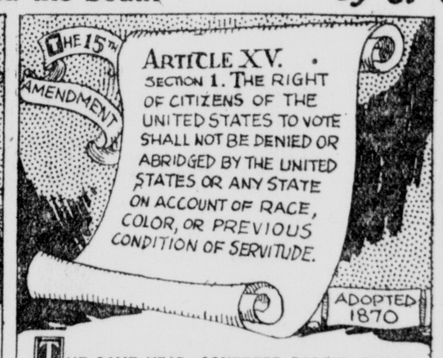
Congress and the South

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

AFTER THE CIVIL WAR, THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SLAVERY WAS AT AN END, BUT THEY BELIEVED THE "FREEDMEN" SHOULD BE PUT TO WORK. SOME OF THE SOUTHERN STATES PASSED "VAGRANCY LAWS". THESE PROVIDED THAT ANY "FREEDMAN" WHO WOULD NOT WORK COULD BE FINED AS A "VAGRANT", AND BOUND OUT TO WORK FOR ANYONE WHO WOULD PAY HIS FINE.



THESE LAWS SEEMED TO POINT TO THE RETURN OF FORCED LABOR IN THE SOUTH. TO PROTECT THE FREEDMEN, CONGRESS (1866) PASSED A CIVIL RIGHTS BILL, GIVING THE NEGROES CIVIL RIGHTS AND SPECIAL PROTECTION OF THE FEDERAL COURTS. THIS BILL AND A SECOND FREEDMAN'S BUREAU BILL WERE PASSED OVER PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S VETO.



THE SAME YEAR, CONGRESS PASSED THE 15TH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION. IT GAVE THE FREEDMAN CITIZENSHIP, REDUCED THE REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS OF ANY STATE THAT WOULD NOT ALLOW NEGROES TO VOTE, REPUDIATED WAR DEBTS OF THE CONFEDERACY, AND BARRED ALL CONFEDERATE LEADERS FROM VOTING OR HOLDING OFFICE.

WHEN THE AMENDMENT WAS SUBMITTED TO THE SOUTHERN STATES FOR RATIFICATION, ALL BUT TENNESSEE REJECTED IT. AFTER GREAT DIFFICULTY THREE-FOURTHS OF THE STATES RATIFIED THE AMENDMENT AND IT WAS ADOPTED IN 1868.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the grading and paving of the cartway of South Mercer Street Extension, between Jefferson Street and Lawrence Street, for the payment of the costs and expenses thereof and for the assessment of the same upon the abutting properties.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the City of New Castle, Pa., that the cartway of South Mercer Street Extension, between Jefferson Street and Lawrence Street, be reduced to grade its full width throughout, and that the same be paved as follows:

(a) With vitrified paving block upon concrete foundation, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(b) with reinforced concrete, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(c) with some form of asphaltic or concrete pavement, or both, to be approved by Council, and to be done according to a standard or patent process, prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council.

SECTION 2. The advertisement for bids for the said work shall be for the above materials, viz:

(a) With vitrified paving block upon concrete foundation, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(b) with reinforced concrete under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(c) with some form of asphaltic or concrete pavement, or both, to be approved by Council, and to be done according to a standard or patent process, under and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by the Council, and upon the receiving of the bids, the City Council shall determine the kind of material with which the said street shall be paved, and thereupon award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder for the kind of material with which the Council determines the said street shall be paved.

SECTION 3. The costs and expenses of the said work shall be assessed against the abutting properties according to the foot-front rule, and the said assessments are hereby appropriated to the payment of the said work, which is to be done and paid for subject to the General Improvement Ordinance of the said City, and its supplements and amendments and other ordinances relating to paving. The City's part or portion of the said work shall be paid for out of a fund to be provided for by Council.

SECTION 4. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

I, Edna Hopkins Reimold, Acting City Clerk, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing ordinance has been regularly introduced and is now pending in the council of the City of New Castle, Pa. In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the city, this 8th day of September, 1927.

EDNA HOPKINS REIMOLD,
Acting City Clerk.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The industrial stocks developed a reactionary tone at the beginning of trading today and prices of the active stocks were generally lower. The unexpected passing of the dividend on Mid Continent Petroleum Common resulted in a 4½ point decline in that stock to 30, but the balance of the oil stock list was fairly steady, with standard oils making fractional gains.

Failure of the fall recovery in the steel trade to materialize, as reported by the steel trade authorities, was a distinct disappointment to the bulls, as also was the new decline in steel prices this week to the lowest level of the year. From the money market standpoint, it was believed that the President's appointee to the Reserve Board Governorship would stand with those advocating higher, rather than lower, rediscount rates thus ending the period of "easy money" which has buoyed up the security markets this year.

Report Accidents To City Police

J. H. Taylor, 626 forest street, reported Wednesday to the police that he was driving east on Washington street, and making a left turn onto Butler avenue, when one of a bunch of boys playing in the street, stepped out in front of his machine and was hit but not knocked down, He was not injured.

John H. Meyers of 231 Euclid avenue, was driving east on South street, Wednesday, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 308-570 turning off South Mill street onto South street, hit and damaged his machine. He had stopped for the stop sign.

Peter Lapizo of 938½ North Liberty street, reported he was driving south on Moravia street, when the car of Mrs. H. Vautrin of West Pittsburg, R. D. No. 7, ran into and damaged his machine.

Another Bad Check Passer Works Here

There is another bad check passer at work here, or at least he was at work here this week, according to the records at the police station. Once more the police advise the people of the city to refrain from cashing checks of strangers or others, unless they verify the fact that they are good.

The check was presented to Mrs. Charles Smith of 119 North Mercer street, by a young man, who was seeking a room. The check is for $15 and is signed W. E. Martin. He was paying $6 in advance on the room rent and received $9 in cash in return. He was to have brought his trunk the next day but failed to return. Now the police are seeking him.

Air Mail Goes Million Miles Minus Disaster

Not A Letter Or Parcel Lost Or Person Injured Is Transport Record

New Schedules Insure Still Greater Speed In Delivering Letters

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—One million miles of flight without a life lost, a single person injured or a letter or parcel lost.

That is the record of the National Air Transport, Inc., of Chicago, operators of the New York-Chicago and other air mail services.

Through the foggy lanes along the Great Lakes, across the mist-covered states off the north Atlantic seaboard, over the snow-topped plains of Iowa, Missouri and Texas the N. A. T. mail flyers have flown week after week, day and night, for more than two years without a casualty.

New Schedules.

And in addition to its record for safety the air mail company has just inaugurated new schedules insuring greater speed in its deliveries. Under the new schedule a letter mailed in Chicago and reaching the Chicago postoffice before 6:30 p. m. will leave on the over-night mail at 8 p. m., central standard time, arriving at Hadley field, New Brunswick, N. J., at 4:45 a. m., eastern standard time, the following morning. The letter will reach the Pennsylvania station in New York City at 6:15 a. m. ready for the first mail delivery.

Likewise a letter mailed in time for the 5:30 a. m. central standard time, airmail plane for Dallas, Texas, will reach that city at 5:35 p. m. the same day.

Saves 12 Hours.

This new speed service saves 12 hours, or one business day, between New York and Chicago; 41 hours between Chicago and San Francisco, 11 hours to Houston, Texas; 40 hours to Los Angeles; 11 hours to Philadelphia, 24 hours to Seattle; 15 hours to Bosotn; 12 hours to San Antonio, Texas; 24 hours to Portland, Ore.; 24 hours to Denver; 13 hours to Newark, N. J.; 23 hours to Austin, Texas; 16 hours to Cheyenne, Wyo.; 36 hours to Reno, Nev.; 12 hours to Paterson, N. J.; 14 hours to Butte, Montana; 16 hours to Hartford, Conn.; and 13 hours to Brooklyn, N. Y.

National Air Transport was organized by business men of New York, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and other cities in May, 1925.

Howard E. Coffin, president of a Detroit motor company, is head of the transport concern.

Several Local Fans To Witness Battle

Numerous fight fans of this city are at the Dempsey-Tunney battle at Soldiers Field, Chicago, today. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dime, accompanied by "Bill" Clark, one of Dime's proteges; Bill Jolley, railroad engineer, Adolph Lang, prominent butcher, Jimmie Travers and Tom McMahon, former heavyweight.

The San Francisco man who shot at the screen just as the villain was about to seize the beautiful damsel must have been firing at the same picture we saw the other night.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Hope you don't feel hurt about yesterday's absence of the column. There really was a good excuse for it, the excuse being the election which was held.

Now to most folks, barring candidates and their immediate friends, an election is just an election that's all. But in a newspaper office it's double distilled work for 36 hours straight on.

It reminds you of a snowball rolling down a hill, the way the speed is accelerated. On Tuesday morning there was nothing out of the ordinary. At eight o'clock in the evening the staff reported for duty and from that on through the night the pace got faster.

After closing the office about one in the morning, came the business of checking the precincts for returns and by daylight the extra edition was ready.

About eleven o'clock the News office looked like an old time convention. The office was full of visitors some of them politicians, some of them ordinary citizens and some of them volunteer workers.

Even some of the candidates came in. Billy Williams, who sang himself into 1536 votes for council did a little work. Early in the evening he conceded defeat and helped out in checking precincts.

And of course there was the usual telephone call from a far outlying precinct for returns for a township office.

The telephone exchange operator, Miss Dart had plenty of fun she claims. This young lady has electric hands in times of emergency and can clear a switchboard as fast as anything you ever saw.

Somehow or other a city is entirely different on election nights. Here and there are gathered little groups of friends talking over the returns, some of them jubilant, some of them downcast.

In the restaurants you see them hung over tables, jotting down figures, estimating missing precincts and enveloping themselves with a haze of tabacco smoke.

For some of the candidates there wasn't much competition in the election. Walter Duff for school board and Clayton Reeves for city council went through the city like a cornborer through a corn patch. After the first precinct was in they didn't have anything to worry about.

This colyum is rather mediocre today. But then remember it's the day after "the day after election" and most of us are trying to get back to normal. Do better tomorrow!

Governor Small of Illinois and Mayor Thompson of Chicago each took 600 tickets to the Dempsey-Tunney fight. Probably for the orphan children of their state and city.

Freshmen Girls Are Entertained

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—Each freshman girl entering Westminster college has among the upper class girls a "big sister" who helps in the matter of getting oriented and settled. These "big sisters" help their "little sisters" in the matter of registration and getting acquainted.

Yesterday afternon and evening the big sisters of the college entertained their little sisters at a picnic and hamfry at Shaky Hollow on the Sharon road. Nearly 150 girls were in attendance and report a very enjoyable time. The big-little sister picnic each year is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. of the college.

Apparently the only thing over which there is no dispute these days is the multiplication table.

RECORD CROWD WATCHES BATTLE IN CHICAGO RING

(BULLETIN)

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 22.–Champion Gene Tunney retained the title heavyweight champion of the world as a result of his battle with the challenger, ex-champion Jack Dempsey in the stadium here tonight, being awarded the decision at the conclusion of the bout, which went the full ten rounds.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
Sports Editor

Ringside Soldiers Field Chicago, Sept. 22.—Deep in the gloom of a great stadium by night rested a tiny platform bathed in the amateur light of the kleigs, as a nation's record crowd of 150,000 sat there waiting tonight for the moment when Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney must do battle for the world's heavyweight championship.

They sat only faintly lined and etched by the flood lights that relieved the jade of a night's darkness. Waiting for what might happen and many grimly believing that Dempsey was due to reclaim the title, thus upsetting all precedent in the heavyweight division.

Even Money.

The hunch of Dempsey was the abiding fact sending the gambling price to even money today, for Dempsey, thirty two and now a staid family man, no longer was the raving, tearing maniac who slapped down everything in the division from 1919 to 1926. He was thought to be better than he was in Philadelphia last year but the same idea prevailed about Tunney, although it was thought possible that he hardly could be benefitted by the fact that he has fought no more since that occasion and that, now, he must carry the burden of defending a title, where, then, he merely was challenging for it. Yes, the hunch players took Dempsey and the form players chose Tunney and so the odds were even, a pardadox for which I am only typographically responsible. Anyhow, form said that Tunney having won last year, should do it again; the hunch players decreed that a man with a punch and nothing to lose might have a lot of trouble in going wrong.

Did I say nothing to lose? Well, I guess that crack will do until a better one turns up. For Dempsey—win, lose or no contest—will get $450,000 for his end. He did not get that much as a champion at Jersey City.

But I can't worry about Dempsey, with Tunney drawing a million dollars out of the grab bag and Tex Rickard taking the remainder of a $2,500,000 gate. All of these figures constitute records, even in this great era of purses.

Records Mean Nothing.

However, records meant nothing tonight. Even the regulations for the bout were unprecedented. These dictums were laid down by the Illinois commission and they included, among other innovations, the provision if the decision proved unsatisfactory to the commissioners there would be no announcement of its purport from the ringside. One hundred and fifty thousand persons therefore would be sitting out in the nether regions beyond the kleigs, waiting for something that never would come.

It might come the next day, it might come never, if one was to credit the commission's statements.

Another intended safeguard against posible chicanery has been sponsored by the board. It calmly plans to remove its referee if his work should prove unsatisfactory to its members.

In brief, there has been no precedent for the size of the crowd, the purses, the receipts, the regulations. But then Dempsey, the man who made all of this possible and precedent have been without even a bowing acquaintance these many years.

Shortly after the preliminary bouts were started at 8 o'clock, rain started to fall.

In the general excitement, which was almost at zero, during the preliminaries everybody forgot to notice that the drizzle of rain had ceased.

It was announced unofficially at the end of the fourth preliminary that the estimated gate was $2,800,000.

Preceded by Leo Flynn and a squad of police Dempsey entered the ring and greeted every one in sight. He seemed unusually calm for the occasion. Jack wore a white flannel bathrobe he stepped around the ring while Jimmy Robinson of the Tunney camp watched his every move. He watched Dempsey apply the bandages in the dressing room but the ex-champion wore no gloves as yet. The announcer was calling silence to introduce all the celebrities gathered within the ropes. But they walked out on him smiling while everyone waited for Tunney to make his appearance. Jack stepped over to a neutral corner to shake hands with Gene Normile, his former manager.

Dempsey was getting restive as the moments passed and Tunney remained among those absent. The champion evidently was giving Dempsey plenty of chance to do a lot of worrying in his corner. Jack Sharkey and Jim Jeffries entered the ring. And Tunney did not. Sharkey and Dempsey shook hands smilingly.

Finally after a long stage wait Gene Tunney appeared at the ringside in a red and blue dressing gown and a bland smile.

Dempsey immediately hurried over to meet him and they shook hands like a couple of society friends. The Dempsey guardian in Tunney's corner was Gus Wilson.

An argument ensued in the center of the ring over the gloves but Dempsey took no part in it. Billy Gibson, the so-called step-manager of Tunney called his man into conference however. Paulino also got in the ropes in time to greet both principals. It was unofficially announced at this time that Dave Barry was to be the referee and this was officially confirmed a moment later when Barry appeared in the ring.

They introduced Tuney and he got a big hand. They introduced Dempsey and so did he.

Dave Barry was also presented. George Lytton and Sheldon Clark of Chicago, were announced as the judges. Walter Eckersall, former football star, was the timekeeper. The usual conference in the center of the ring then followed.

Fight By Rounds

ROUND ONE

Dempsey led with a light left which was short and they went to a clinch. He missed with another and then sent a light left to the body they sparred and both missed with lefts. Tunney scored with a left and right to the head. Again they sparred and then Tunney missed with a left lead there was no action so far. Dempsey bobbed and weaved and took a left on the chin. Tunney hit him again in the same spot and the crowd cheered. They sparred and then Tunney was short with a left lead where upon they went into another clinch. Tunney was boxing flatfooted and not moving away from Dempsey. The latter was not coming in. Tunney missed with a left but scored with a right to the head. Dempsey went inside a right hand lead by Tunney and sent a left to the body. However, Tunney landed a one-two punch to the body at the bell. Tunney's round. Neither man was fighting his fight, both apparently being intent on feeling the other out.

ROUND TWO

ROUND THREE

Dempsey came out fast for the third. Dempsey got in a light left to the jaw. Tunney was short with a left and right. Dempsey landed a left to the body, going close and hit Gene with two rights to the body and cuffed him with five more to the head. Tunney scored with a right. They clinched. Tunney scored with three lefts to the body in close and then they heid. The referee separated them. Dempsey steped inside a right lead but caught a left to the jaw. Jack then socked a right to Tunney's chin and then took a left to the head. Jack scored to the body with a left. Tunney scored with a left and right to the head. Gene came through with two right crosses to the chin. Dempsey hit the back of Gene's neck with a ribbit punch. They were in another fond embrace at the bell. Tunney's round.

ROUND FOUR

Tunney landed a hard right to the head and followed with a left. Dempsey came through with two lefts to the body as Tunney missed. The champion winced, aparently claiming a foul. He hit Dempsey with three short lefts to the head and then mauled him on the ropes. Dempsey missed with a left hook. Tunney scored with a right to the head. It was apparent that Tunney was angry. Gene followed with two lefts and right to the head. Jack got over a left to the body and head, but missed with a left and Gene countered with a right. Two left uppercuts had Jack in some distress, another had him goofy. A third had him almost out. His eyes were glazed and his knees sagging. Tuney's round.

ROUND FIVE

Dempsey seemed groggy. Tunney missed with a left. Jack shot a left and a right to the body. Tunney landed three lefts to the head and fought off Dempsey's body attack. Jack shot a hard right to the body but took two lefts in return. Gene shot another right to Dempsey's head. Jack landed a right to the body and a left to the body and head and took a right. Gene poked three lefts and crossed a right to the jaw. A straight left from Dempsey rocked Tunney's head back on his shoulder. However Gene came back with a right that hurt and then another to Dempsey's chin. He followed with a third. Dempsey clinched. Dempsey was short with a left lead and again they clinched. Tunney missed with a left and right. He shot a right and then a left to Dempsey's jaw. Tunney's round.

ROUND SIX

Tunney's seconds complained that Dempsey's handlers were spreading vaseline on his body. They were warned by the referee. Not a blow was exchanged for 30 seconds and then Tunney landed a right. Dempsey followed with a left to the body, crossing a right to the head. Tunney scored with a left to the head. Dempsey scored with two lefts to the body. A straight right to the head hurt Dempsey. Tunney scored twice with left to the face. A left from Dempsey caught Gene on the chin and the crowd cheered. Tuney shot a left to the jaw and Dempsey answered with a right to the body. Tunney missed a wild uppercut and Dempsey landed a left to the body. Tunney drove Jack to the ropes with a punch to the body. Jack came back with a left to the ear. He missed with a left and they exchanged body punches at the bell. Dempsey's round.

ROUND SEVEN

They came out feinting for the seventh and kept at it for 15 seconds. Tunney then landed two lefts to the head. He scored with another and then missed with a right. Dempsey landed with a left to the jaw and to the head. Gene went down groggy. He got up at the count but in bad shape. Jack scored with a left to the body. Jack scored two lefts to the belt line. Tuney was runing away. A hard left to the stomach hurt Gene. He then went after Gene with a furious attack. Gene took a left uppercut. They clinched. Tunney took two hard lefts on the belt line just at the bell. Dempsey's round.

ROUND EIGHT

Tunney's knees were shaking. Dempsey landed two lefts to the body. Tunney still was running. He took a left to the jaw and two more to the body. Jack shot a left hook to the jaw. Tunney countering with a right. Jack had Gene down to his own speed now. Gene scored a right to the head and left to the body. Dempsey's left to the body had Gene hanging on. Dempsey shot in a hard left hook the champion being staggered and was sent to the ropes. Suddenly Gene brought up a left upercut to the jaw and Jack went down to the knees. The referee only counted number one. Tunney landed with a left. Before another blow could be struck the bell sounded. Tunney's round.

ROUND NINE

Dempsew missed with a left. He got in close and pounded Tuney with a rabit punch. Neither man was strong at this time. Tunney landed a hard right behind Jack's ear. Gene scored with a right to the body as Dempsey rushed in. Both of Jack's eyes were cut. Gene scored with two hard overhead rights to Dempsey's eyes and Jack was bleeding freely. Tunney backed Dempsey against the ropes. Tuney shot two hard rights to Dempsey's head. Dempsey cuffed him with two left hooks and a left to the jaw and then came three hard rights from Gene had Dempsey fighting all around. A left to the body added to the carnage. Tunney's round.

ROUND TEN

Dempsey hooked a hard left to the Tunney's jaw and wrestled him to the floor but it was not a knockdown. Tunney came back with a right to Jack's chin. Gene scored with a right. Jack missed with a left lead. As Jack fought his way in Gene clouted him with left and rights. Two rights and a left. To Dempsey's much abused jaw had him in a bad way.

Stadium Sidelights

International News Service Staff Correspondent

RINGSIDE, SOLDIER'S FIELD, CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—James J. Jeffries, former world's heavyweight champion and the original "hollow shell" was a conspicuous figure at the ringside. He told the folks over the radio that the fighters of today are just as good as those in his day and much better business men.

The temperature was fifty-four above at the ringside, according to the radio man's thermometer. Overcoats came in handy.

The gates were opened promptly at five and at seven p. m. The forty blazing arc lights above the ring were turned on. This gave the crowd its first chance to cheer.

Twenty feet north of the ring, three platforms were erected on steel griders. Perched on these platforms were three score or more photographers. Flashlights popped on all sides.

Another former champion, James J. Corbett, smiling and debonair, strolled about, shaking hands and renewing old acquaintances.

Battling Nelson, the one time durable dane, was the personal guest of Tex Rickard. Nelson was Rickard's star attraction in the first big bout he staged in Goldfield, Nevada, years ago when nobody ever dreamed of $3,000,000 gates.

Fashionably gowned sociey women diamonds glistening on their fingers, lent class and brilliance to the occassion. They sat among Rickard's '600 millionaires" and seemed to be enjoying themselves immensely.

The two women most directly interested in the outcome of the fight were not present. They are Mrs. John Tunney, the champion's mother, who remained in New York and Estelle Taylor, the motion picture wife of Jack Dempsey who secluded herself in a Chicago hotel.

Fifty thousand people were in their seats in the big egg shaped stadium at 7:30 p. m. and the place actually looked empty. The crowd was coming in by drove at this hour, however. Two thousand of Rickard's trained ushers handled the throng with neatness and dispatch.

Airplanes zoomed and circled over the field, drawing indignant glances from the spectators when they came directly overhead or swerved down low.

One of the many distinguished spectators were James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio and former Democratic presidential candidate. Mr. Cox praised Gene Tunney as one of the nation's "finest athletes." He said that when Gene is through with the ring he will devote his life to the betterment of American manhood, delivering lectures to young men.

Tom Taggart of Indiana, another prominent politician, was among those present. He never saw a crowd like this, even at a national political convention.

At 8 o'clock employes of Rickard came into the ring and began testing the ropes and putting rosin on the floor. The first preliminary was scheduled to start in fifteen minutes. By this time 100,000 or more fans were in the stadium. They were coming in great numbers and it was practically a certainty that the gate would exceed $2,500,000.

A huge blackboard at the south end of the great stadium, ordinarily used during the football season, was operated as an indicator of the rounds. The name "Gene" and "Jack" were chalked up in huge letters and the numbers of the rounds were blazed forth in six feet high electric lights.

The Marquise De La Falaise, better known to the cinema as Gloria Swanson, looked glorious indeed, sitting in a $40 ringside seat.

Two young men hid themselves away underneath the concrete eaves of the stadium for four days. They were discovered just before the first preliminary and were ejected by the bluecoats.

The police felt a red-faced man's bulging hip pocket. It was a forty-five calibre gun, not a bottle, and he, too was escorted out.

Beneath the ring sat half a dozen wire chiefs working at the A. T. and T. switchboard. It was hard to say who had the worst seats, those under the ring or those in the $5 seats, 313 rows back.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

RINGSIDE, SOLDIERS' FIELD, CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Cool and cloudy weather prevailed tonight shortly before Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey were scheduled to climb through the ropes. Menacing clouds hovered over the stadium and a stiff breeze blew in over Lake Michigan.

TUNNEY 189 1-2 DEMPSEY 192 1-2

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Champion Gene Tunney weighed 189 1-2 pounds this afternon and Jack Dempsey, the challenger 192 1-2, when they weighed in officially in the gymnasium of the Illinois Athletic club this afternoon.

They were weighed separately, Dempsey first, at 1:30, and Tunney at 2:30 p. m. It was the first time that the principals in a World's heavyweight championship battle had not tipped the scales in each other's presence. Dempsey had left the building amid cheers, long before Tunney entered.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT IN MAYBERRY CASE

After being out approximately twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of Fred Mayberry, charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of Emma Mary Gibson of Sheridan avenue, about 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, returned a verdict of 'not guilty but pay the costs."

When the jury had been received and Judge R. L. Hildebrand was discharging the members of it, he took occasion to remark on the rather unusual verdict in a case of this kind, saying among other things, "I am at loss to understand how you arrived at such a verdict."

It is the second occasion on which Mayberry has stood trial on charges made in connection with the death of the little Gibson girl.

In the first trial, he was tried on charges of murder, second degree murder and manslaughter. The jury first returned a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, which Judge R. L. Hildebrand declined to accept as that charge was not in the indictment and directed the jury to return some other verict. The second time, the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter with a recommendation for mercy.

A short time later and after the sentence of the defendant, the case was carried to the supreme court, which directed the return of the case to the Lawrence county court.

Schiller Forced Down In Montana

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

SPOKANE, Wash., September 22.—"Duke" Schiller, attempting a non-stop flight from New York to Spokane, in the national air derby, was forced down at Billings, Mont., this evening, air officials here were advised tonight. Previously Eddie Stinson was forced down at Missoula, Mont., by engine trouble.

Schiller and Stinson were the only planes making the non-stop flight.

Question Of Whether Local Court Has Jurisdiction Was Principal Point Raised

Arguments on the petition of William E. Marquis for a declaritory judgment, on the validity of the act providing for an additional judgeship for Lawrence county, and on the petition of David S. Pyle, Harry K. Gregory and Rev. Samuel Irvine, asking that the Marquis petition be dismissed, were heard before Judge Parker in Lawrence county court Wednesday afternoon.

Attorney C. H. Akens appeared for the Marquis petition, taking the position that it was within the jurisdiction of the court here to pass upon the validity of the act. Attorney Wm. McElwee, for dismissal of the Marquis petition, argued that the local court did not have jurisdiction, but that it was a question for the supreme court to pass upon. Attorney John P. Lockhart, appearing for the county commissioners, took the same position as Mr. McElwee.

After hearing the arguments in the case Judge Parker took the papers in the case and will hand down a decision later. The trouble grew out of a mistake in the printing of the act providing for another judge in this county, the error being with reference to the time when the act became operative.

Eight Granted Re-Hearing By Pardon Board

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 22.—Eight of the thirty-two pleas for re-hearing of pardon cases previously refused have been granted, F. H. Hoy, secretary of the state board of pardons, announced today. The board refused twenty-two cases, continued one and one was withdrawn.

Rehearing cases are submitted to the board on papers filed. The cases were considered in executive session last night.

MAYOR DUVAL FOUND GUILTY

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 22.—Mayor John Duval of Indianapolis, was found guilty tonight by a jury in Marion county criminal court of violating the corrupt practices act.

The court imposed a fine of $1000 on the mayor, sentenced him to serve 30 days in Marion county jail and barred him from holding public office for 4 years.

Deny Rumors Butler Will Resign Post

Administration Leader Forestalls Resignation Rumor Concerning William Butler

WILL CONTINUE AS REPUBLICAN LEADER

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Persistent rumors that former senator William M. Butler, of Massachusetts, close personal friend of President Coolidge, shortly will resign as chairman of the Republican national committee, were denied today by an administration spokesman.

Butler will remain as titular head of the committee, it was said, until the next Republican convention selects a new standard-bearer to lead the party in 1928. This procedure was said to have been decided upon by Butler at the expressed wish of the president.

Mr. Coolidge was pictured as feeling he should remain out of the next Republican convention fight and that if Butler resigned at this time, it might provoke dissension in the party through a fight over naming the new chairman. The president was said to feel that the committee should be headed by a "neutral" man until a new standard bearer is chosen and that Butler amply fitted the task.

Two men however have been mentioned prominently as Butler's successor in rumors going the rounds of the capital. They are C. Bascom Slemp, former secretary to the president, and Charles D. Hillis, New York Republican leader.

Prefers Schools Be Closed Friday For County Fair

Discussing the county fair this morning County Superintendent John C. Syling said that he would prefer to have school directors close for the fair, which begins next week, on Friday. By closing on Friday there would be but little break in the week's work. If schools should be closed on any other day the pupils would do very little good for the balance of the week as they would be excited over what they had seen at the fair.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE NAMED FOR CONVENTION

Fred L. Rentz, chairman of the reception committee of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association convention which convenes in New Castle October 12-13-14, announces the members of his committee which are given below.

The reception committee of course will be on hand at the cathedral to welcome visiting delegates and each member of this committee, as well as all committees, will wear "Ask Me" badges with ribbons naming the committee. The reception committee also has charge of furnishing the automobiles to meet the trains and bring the delegates to the cathedral for registration, and also to furnish transportation for the delegates from the cathedral to the homes where they have been assigned. The reception committee will also have an information bureau in the lobby of the cathedral and Miss Cora Ritchie, the secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., will have charge of this bureau. A. C. McCoy is chairman of the automobile committee.

The chairman of the reception committee, Mr. Rentz, has been actively on the job for some time and is securing the cooperation of the city officials in seeing that every courtesy is extended to the visiting delegates who will be here from every county in the state in large numbers.

The following are the members of the committee:

Fred L. Rentz, chairman.
John S. Wallace.
Robert A. McKinney.
Judge R. L. Hildebrand.
Ex-Judge S. Plummer Emery.
Mayor W. H. Dunlap.
Mrs. Pamphalia H. Phillips.

Seeking Good Foe For Emmett Rocco

If He Can Be Secured Another Fight Will Be Staged Here

Officials of the New Castle baseball club today sent telegrams to Jack Renault and Johnny Risko offering them a chance to fight Emmett Rocco at Centennial ball field early in October. "We want the best heavyweight we can get as Rocco's opponent," said an official of the club today. "The fans demonstrated they want fights and if we can get a good opponent the fight will go on."

Rocco has been offered fights at McKeesport, Youngstown and Pittsburgh and on account of his quick knockouts of Joe Burke, Romero Rojas and Sailor Maxted is attracting notice from fans.

Fly-Tox Helps Reduce Infant Mortality

Every year in the United States 250,000 children under 5 years of age die. Health authorities say it is significant that more deaths occur during the time flies are most active. Flies transmit more than thirty different diseases. Every fly should be killed. Fly-Tox kills flies. It is fragrant, safe, stainless, sure.—Adv.

Probe Charge Of Chicken Theft

When complaint was made to the police this morning that chickens were missing from 1022 South Jefferson street, Detective C. C. Horner and Officer Thomas Lynch were detailed to solve the mystery.

Now these gentlemen of the police force have good noses. It's not recorded at the police station just how they discovered the supposed whereabouts of the chickens, but some of the chickens were in the pot, it is alleged, when the visited the place of Mrs. Mary Mitchell, rear 901 Moravia street, and the odor of good chicken may have attracted these officers.

At any rate, Mrs. Mitchell, Thomas Johnson and Guy Tisdel, all negroes, were arrested this morning by Officers Horner and Lynch at the Mitchell place when cooked chicken and other chickens ready for the pot were found at the place.

They are being held at the city police station on a charge of suspicion pending the outcome of the investigation now under way, which the police say indicates that the chickens in the Mitchell place were probably those missing from 1022 South Jefferson street.

450 MILES ON A GALLON OF GAS

The president of the General Motors Research Corporation, in a recent article points out that there is enough energy in a gallon of gasoline, if converted 100% in mechanical energy, to run a four cylinder car 450 miles. Much experimenting has been done to convert this latent power into mechanical energy, but at present the annual waste in gasoline is appalling. In an effort to conserve gasoline and to increase motor efficiency, Mr. Oliver, noted automotive engineer, has perfected an invention that slashes gas costs to the minimum. He is launching a campaign to equip every car with this wonderful invention, and as he is now appointing agents, is willing to send a sample for trial. For full particulars write Mr. Oliver today in care of The Whirlwind Mfg. Co., 999—1236 E. Third St., Milwaukee, Wisc.—Adv.

DEBT CANCELLATIONISTS AGAIN

RETURNING tourists who made a "comprehensive study" of the European attitude and international relations during their two weeks abroad this summer are pleading with congress to cancel the war debts so the English, French and Italians will "love us." Their pleas are actuated by conversations abroad in which they learned that the debtor peoples are "disappointed" with the American people.

If the debtor nations succeed in convincing the hundreds of thousands of American tourists that America's claims should be canceled and send all back as their propaganda agents, another season should see the American people solidly with the cancellationists. Either Europeans are convincing or Americans are easily convinced.

What these enlightened tourists are asking is that the American people buy the "love" of the debtor nations. In other words, only a little matter of a few billions of dollars stands between the United States and its former allies. It will be remembered that this country bought that same love back in 1917 by lending to the allies the billions now in dispute.

Why is Europe "disappointed" in America? Is it because President Wilson failed in his mission to bring perpetual peace to Europe? Is it because penniless Europe is envious of prosperous America? Or is it because Europe has picked the United States for an easy mark? Whatever the answer, there are many Americans, knowing they must pay every dollar of debt Europe fails to pay, who are disappointed in their former allies.

These tourists who presume, after a hurried journey through some foreign land, to counsel their government on foreign policy are not to be ignored because they exert an influence upon public opinion far greater than is commonly supposed. They can do a world of mischief.

THE CROSS-CONTINENT DERBY

THERE was no cry for government intervention to prevent the New York-to-Spokane Air Derby because of the risks involved, although at the time there was much agitation in many quarters for prohibition of transoceanic flights. Since the derby fliers covered a greater distance than the overwater distance covered by Atlantic and Pacific fliers, it follows that the public makes a distinction between ocean and land flying.

The public was not inconsistent. It merely betrayed a belief that flying above land is safer than transoceanic flying. A few years ago it considered any form of aviation more hazardous than continent-to-continent flying now seems to it, which leads one to suppose that a few years hence not even long distance flights over water will be looked upon as unnecessarily risky.

No insurmountable obstacles were involved in the transcontinental derby and practical purposes of aviation were served. The division of the derby into three classes was for the purpose of ascertaining the feasibility of nonstop commercial flying from coast to coast in comparison with one-stop and two-stop coast-to-coast flying.

Flying across the United States is not a feat wholly devoid of danger as the flight has already shown. Added to the ordinary risks of flying are the dangers encountered over mountain wastes, plains and desert country. Between the two coasts an aviator will run the whole gamut of atmospheric conditions from tropical heat to zero temperatures and from fog to snow. Climatic conditions present one of the greatest obstacles to commercial aviation in the United States.

FOLLOWING THE LEAD

THE movement of peoples seems to have gone through several phases in its evolution. In the early days the right of immigration was asserted by force of arms and members. When nations became too crowded they sent forth an army to conquer and colonize a less thickly populated neighboring land, thus solving the domestic problem of population while adding to their dominions.

After the discovery of the New World, settlement was largely a colonial enterprise. The Old World had more people than it could feed and the New World had need for immigrants in unlimited numbers. With the opening of the American West the peoples of Europe were welcomed as immigrants and came over by the millions. In time the principal immigrant-producing countries looked upon immigration as a right no country could refuse to citizens of another country.

Had not some of the home governments of Europe sought to exercise control over their emigrants in the new homeland and had not the movement of the people been in such great masses, immigrant-receiving nations would probably never have questioned the right of foreigners to come to their shores.

Mass immigration taught this country that unemployment in Europe would stimulate the desire to leave and that hard times in this country would create opposition to the admission of large numbers of foreigners. At the same time the racial and national jealousies raised by the war made thoughful Americans see danger in unrestricted and unregulated immigration.

Canada and Australia and now France have sustained the principle of restriction as promulgated by the United States after a long struggle with the problem of immigration.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:58. Sun rises tomorrow 5:49.

It's hard for some people to get over an election and it isn't always a defeated candidate.

It's the votes that count after all.

There is what is known as the "Dry Progressives" in the Democratic party. They are in the minority we are betting.

Some of the vacation enthusiasts are now back on their jobs and getting a real rest. Some people can rest better while on the payroll than at any other time.

One of the boys in the office who lives out beyond the cemetery contributes this one. "Every day, after passing the cemetery I meet a funeral I am on the way to hard labor, but somebody else is through."

The man or woman who cannot go into the booth and vote without having assistance should not be allowed to vote. There is ignorance enough among those who can read.

The best thing our old friend Krazy Kat ever said was this: "What good is the toot of the locomotive whistle when the caboose is on your neck?"

Already we hear complaints against fliers who run their airships recklessly. Some people cannot do anything in a sane manner and the rest of humanity has to suffer for their madness.

A local restaurant advertises—on their window—grapefruit pie. We would just as soon eat cucumber pie.

We were told yesterday that there was quit a bit of criticism about the new hotel. We know for an absolute fact that none of the criticism has come from any of the stockholders and those are the persons who are interested the most—in fact they are the only ones who are interested and they are all satisfied with this as far as they have gone.

Jack Dempsey's mother says Jack will give a good report of himself tonight Leave it to the mother to have all the faith in the world in her boy no matter what his business may be.

It's a crool ole world! A man is either mortified to death by the shabby clothes he wears or worrying himself to death over the bills for the glad rags he has on.

The pastor of a Presbyterian church in Omaha is going to have a radio that will give the Tunney-Dempsey fight blow by blow in his church so all those who attend the services can hear the results. It's getting so now people will not go to church just to hear the old-fashioned service of long ago.

"My husband," said the proud Eighth ward woman "plays a wretched game of golf and drives a second-hand auto, but I never heard him use a bit of profanity." It's your turn to tell one now.

A New York actress says she met a man on Saturday afternoon and took a ride with him in his automobile. They were accompanied by three quarts of booze and she says she married the man while full and does not remember anything about it now and wants a divorce. This should be a warning to women. She wasn't even able to walk back.

A safety pin can hold up most anything but an airplane or a hammock.

A California man is asking a million dollars for befriending an Indian. For that amount he ought to be willing to befriend a couple of 'em.

It is generally the rich man who inherited his money who believes there is no excuse for poverty.

No mayor has ever been elected from the North Hill. One was appointed once from the North Hill to fill out an unexpired term. That was a mistake at that some people contend.

Most all the mayors have come from the Third ward. A few from the Fourth and one from the Sixth ward. No mistake was marde in nominating Mr. Genkinger. He will make a good mayor and New Castle at this time needs a mayor who will work for the best interests of the city instead of quarreling about small matters.

And by the way, speaking about ex-mayors, two of them live within a hundred yards of each other on the same street on the North Hill.

The man who is lost without his coffee doesn't seem very convincing while scorning a man who misses his beer.

Quite a few of the candidates who are defeated deserve just what they got. In fact they have their nerve some times to even think of running for an office. The men who are really best fitted for public office very seldom run.

The character assassins and gold diggers are already in the field with their blackmail and scandalous tongues. Any person, male or female who digs all the coin they can out of politics are not good citizens.

Today's Storyette.

An automobile dashed along the country road. Turning a curve it came suddenly upon a man with a gun on his shoulder and a weak, sick-looking dog beside him. The dog was directly in the path of the motor car. The chauffeur sounded his horn but the dog did not move until it was struck. After that it did not move either.

The automobile stopped and one of the men climbed out and came forward. He had once paid a farmer $10 for killing a dog that belonged to another farmer. This time he was wary.

"Was that your dog?"

"Yes."

"Looks as if we had killed him."

"Certainly looks so."

"Very valuable dog?"

"Well, not so very."

"Will five dollars satisfy you?"

"Yes."

"Well, then here you are." He handed a five dollar bill to the man with the gun and added pleasantly: "I'm sorry to have broken up your hunt."

"I wasn't going hunting" replied the other as he pocked the bill.

"Not going hunting? Then what were you doing with the dog and the gun?"

"Going to the woods to shoot the dog."

If New Castleites were as anxious to be good as they are to be good looking the churches would be as crowded as the beauty parlors are.

No man likes to have his wife call at the office. It makes him feel and seem so much less authoritative.

With the coming of cold weather comes also the pumpkin pie season, and that is one season we like just as well as the corn roast time.

Well, the "I told you so" boys are at work again, but they never have anything to say until after the election. None of them would risk a guess before the vote, but everyone is right now. We were wrong on several of our guesses, but we're satisfied with the result.

Tonight's the night of the big scrap. Big because of the money in it. We would like to trade places with either Tunney or Dempsey, just for the pile of kale that is going their way. We'd rather have the title to the money than to the championship.

Some prominent Democrat has come out with an announcement that it would be a good thing for the party to hold its convention next year at Charlottesville, Va., the home of Thomas Jefferson. Charlottesville isn't a very big city, but then, it will be able to accommodate all the Democrats that are left.

Wonder why it wouldn't be possible for the legislators and those who want to be to pass a measure providing for sufficient help in an election booth to have the ballots counted quickly and properly. A corps of trained clerks would quickly count the votes and the work would be done much more satisfactorily. It is a crime the way some of the boards have to work now.

John L. and Mitchell.
A Suicide's Lament.
Ask Him For An Option.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Fighting has changed. On March 10, 1888, this writer saw John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell fight in a muddy, slippery 24-foot ring on Baron Rothschild's training grounds near Chantilly in France. It was not like arrangements for tonight's fight.

Thirty or 40 men stood around the ring. One was Billy Porter, the bank burglar, who afterwards died in the German salt mines. He had a revolver in each overcoat pocket, and notified those in Mitchell's corner that Sullivan was to have fair play. Sullivan got it.

The men fought with bare fists soaked in walnut juice, and had long spikes on their shoes.

Sullivan requested Mitchell to "be a gentleman, you ——— ———, if you can," when Mitchell drove a spike into Sullivan's instep.

The fight was under London prize ring rules, each round ending when either man went down with one knee on the ground. No gate receipts, no purse, only a side bet.

When the fight ended in a draw both men were locked up by French gendarmes at Senlis, bombarded by Germans. This writer saw them there. The French jailer had taken away their silk handkerchiefs "to prevent their hanging themselves." Both wept. Both are dead. What would they think of a modern fight with $3,500,000 gate receipts?

Frederick Gastier, a teacher of languages, killed himself, leaving written in correct Latin this, "I am nobody, I never was anybody."

That could be said truly in many languages by 999,999 people in a million. With few exceptions, nobody is anybody. We are human microbes doing work for which we were put on earth, then disappearing.

A microbe has no right to expect that he will ever be anybody, but the fact that he is nobody is no excuse for suicide.

Mr. J. J. Mitchell, able and conservative Chicago financier, who says stocks are too high, does not like "the antics" of the market. Ask Mr. Mitchell what he would charge for one year's opinion on 10,000 shares of General Motors, for instance.

Every well managed, necessary American concern is selling for less than it is worth. Ten years hence the country's wealth will be scores of billions greater than today, and that increased wealth will be reflected in prices of good securities.

Speaking of American wealth increases, the Chase National bank dug out of an old vault Tuesday a faded copy of its first report issued 50 years ago.

The Chase bank then had in all $1,042,000. The same bank told the comptroller of the currency last June that it had one billion and forty-two million dollars. Every dollar the bank had 50 years ago has grown to a thousand dollars. That's how this country goes ahead. Many things that foolish men are selling short now, 50 years hence will be worth a thousand times what they are today. Make a note of it, but DON'T GAMBLE.

Colonel Ralph Isham brings to America the "Boswell Papers." Unpublished writings, insured for $570,000 and worth it.

Samuel Johnson, thanks to Boswell, lives in the minds of thousands now as he lived in London in the 18th century. And now, as then, people are familiar with his conversation that never read books.

As time passes we know more about Johnson's personality, less about his writings. That's unusual. His conversation was marvelously direct; his writings rather "high-stepping." Burke said of Johnson's descriptions of women: "All the ladies are Johnsons in petticoats."

Johnson is not read as he should be. Young advertisement writers might try their hands at writing better prose than the opening lines of Rasselas—written by Johnson in a few hours to pay for his mother's funeral.

"Ye who listen with credulity to the whispers of fancy and pursue with eagerness the phantoms of hope; who expect that age will perform the promises of youth, and that the deficiencies of the present day will be supplied by the morrow—attend the history of Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia."

Mr. Morrow gives up his partnership with J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. to accept a poorly paid job as minister to Mexico. This he does to oblige his friend and classmate, President Coolidge.

Many ministers, ambassadors and others would gladly give up their diplomatic jobs for a partnership with Morgan & Co.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

A BUSINESS ROMANCE

Just another one of those amazing stories of the rise from nothing to affluence, stories which are so common now in America.

Many people know that the motor business is becoming quite common, but few of them are aware of how important a part it plays.

Only a few years ago, in 1912, a man by the name of Hayes had to leave Mexico and he located in San Diego, where he could be near his Mexican interests. Here he found he had to make a living, and with a second-hand Ford automobile he established a regular route for passenger traffic between the towns of San Diego and Escandido, a distance of about 50 miles.

That little industry has now expanded until it has 438 regular schedules with buses that arrive and depart with the accuracy of railroad trains.

It covers territory from Portland to Amarillo, Texas, a distance of some 5,000 miles.

It serves some 1,000 towns with its various branches. Between San Diego and San Francisco it runs de luxe buses that serve meals, have toilets and wash stands, radios and card tables.

Many people find it pleasanter to travel by bus through the country than to travel by railroad.

It is as safe or safer than railroad travel, for only one person has been killed in the last three and a half years.

It makes its own buses, it buys second-hand motors of the very best quality and makes them over, so that the buses are not run by cheap and shoddy motors.

It buys no tires; in fact, it does not own any tires, but rents all its tires at so much per mile.

In six towns it has terminal buildings for its passengers and in two towns it owns hotels.

The man who ran a second-hand Ford and carried passengers between San Diego and Escandido fifteen years ago is still the managing head of the company. It is now a public utility under the control of the state.

To increase a business from a little private automobile to a huge flock of buses operating on 438 schedules is going some. The man has scored a signal and typical American success.

REASONABLE ATTORNEY'S FEE

There are many people who cannot refrain from writing letters to newspapers. The newspaper publisher always welcomes these letters if signed by the writer. Many such letters are interesting, instructive and very worthy of publication on that account. Some are not so instructive but are quite amusing, and are worthy to be printed, that they may add to the Gaiety of Nations. A business man in a town not a thousand miles from New Castle became seized with a desire to tell the public about his troubles, and wrote a letter to his local newspaper. I quote a paragraph from this letter.

"Interrupted here by a man who wanted to borrow ten to pay back a ten which he did borrow from a man who, with another, had signed a 30 days' note at a banking house, and the time having arrived, the bank did notify the man, and the other who had signed with him, to please call at their convenience, if their convenience was immediately, and take up the note or renew it according to the discount rates, and if they, or either of them, failed to call and do so, the bank would be compelled by the law and its charter to turn the note over to a barrister for collection along with a reasonable attorney's fee; and the one who did wish to borrow the ten from me said that that's where the sticker is, that reasonable attorney's fee, as no man living had knowledge what it should be or was, and in faith, so continued the man, the attorneys themselves knew not what it was or would be, and the man did fear that, failing to get the ten to pay the man so he could pay the bank, he might lose all he had, since a reasonable attorney's fee might be such as would plunge him and his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns into debt forever. So after I had carefully resolved this thing out I gave the man the ten because, granting that I never see it again, I shall receive my reward in the shape of a fine grade of player harp in the next world by saving this poor man and all his descendants from the direful possibilities of a reasonable attorney's fee."

Grover Cleveland in his lifetime might have written sentences equally long and equally involved, but how different!

Harry E. Hull, who advocates a liberalization of certain sections of the United States immigration law to permit the entry of parents of American citizens who under present conditions are barred, has been commissioner general of immigration since 1925. Previous to his appointment to his present position Mr. Hull had served four terms in Congress as a representative from Iowa, of which state he is a native. In early youth he removed to New York City and later returned to Iowa to make his permanent home. He located in the town of Williamsburg, of which place he later served as alderman, mayor and postmaster. Mr. Hull believes that the present immigration law has resulted in many cases of unnecessary unhappiness and should be revised as an act of mercy.

KNOWLEDGE FOR EVERYBODY

You don't have to know Greek and Hebrew and Syriac in order to be educated, these days. Of course, if you do know those languages, so much the better.

But the difference between being educated today and being educated fifty years ago, lies very largely in the fact that knowledge has been put on the lower shelf, where we can all reach it. Formerly, you had to stand up very tall and straight, or maybe climb upon a step-ladder of ancestry or wealth, in order to get yourself enough knowledge and culture to be classed among the knowing ones.

During the last twenty years the process of democratizing knowledge has been going on at a tremendous pace. In fact, this process is the outstanding mark of our civilization.

Nearly all children go to high school now. Everybody learns enough English to be able to read the newspapers. Even if one read nothing but good newspapers nowadays, one would soon become quite familiar with a goodly portion of the world's great body of knowledge. Most of the newspapers now print a great deal of cultural and educative material.

* * *

Within the last few years, authors and editors have been at work on books that are designed to place the most important cultural information within the reach of all who have learned to read well.

Hendrik Willem Van Loon contributed vastly toward this desirable objective when he wrote his "Story of Mankind." He produced a history of the world on a new plane. Whoever can read a Fourth Reader can read the "Story of Mankind." And whoever absorbs the knowledge and considers well the implications in his book has ceased to be ignorant about some of the very important phases of life in this interesting world.

* * *

Now there has been announced a prize of seven thousand five hundred dollars for the best book of "humanized knowledge," the Forum magazine and the publishing firm of Simon & Schuster co-operating in furnishing the money, striking a medal, and publishing the book.

Such a prize doubtless will bring out something monumental in a popularization of knowledge. It won't be a royal road to learning. No; what's wanted is a democratic road to learning, so that everybody will know something and whoever wants to learn will know enough to make life interesting.

By the way, are you reading any of the good books already published for the purpose of humanizing and popularizing knowledge?

Ty Cobb Through For Season, Plans For Hunting Trip

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Ty Cobb may not play again with Connie Mack's Athletics.

The great Georgia Peach left last night for a hunting trip in Wyoming, discarding his uniform at the close of the fifth inning of yesterday's game between the A.'s and Indians at Shibe Park.

"I have enjoyed my year with the Athletics," declared Cobb before leaving. "Connie Mack has asked me to return next season. I won't decide until this winter. I've been playing for more than 20 years, and while I may give up the game, there is a chance the sport may lure me back."

Cobb, it is understood, drew a $60,000 salary with the A.'s. If he cares to play again next season it will be renewed.

As a Mackian Cobb was a decided success.

Boyd Winner On Democratic Ticket For Commissioner

Three Precincts Missing In Democratic Contest Not Likely To Alter Result

With but three precincts missing from the tabulation, returns of Tuesday's primary show that Calvin Boyd of Pulaski, has won the Democratic nomination for county commissioner. Boyd had 610 votes against 413 for Tad Shields, his nearest opponent. Craig had 202 and Drake 261. It is not likely that the missing precincts will make any change in the result.

Tall Corn Stalk Attracts Notice

One of the largest corn stalks to be brought to the city or believed grown hereabouts is being displayed at the Del Post tavern, having been grown by Zersal Post on the farm of T. C. Post in the vicinity of Eastbrook. The stalk is attracting considerable attention.

Former Residents Here; Surprised At Growth And Progress Of City

J. P. and Thomas J. Lanigan of Cortland, N. Y., residents of this city back in the seventies, accompanied by the latter's son Harold Lanigan, stopped over here Tuesday to visit the old home town of the first two named men.

It was the first occasion on which Thomas J. Lanigan had returned here in nearly fifty years and the second occasion on which J. P. Lanigan has visited here since residing in the city. It was the first visit of the son of the former.

Thomas Lanigan and son were especially surprised by the size and appearance of the city, the former stating that there had been many changes since he left here. He was able, however, to discover a few old landmarks which made him feel more at home.

Even J. P. Lanigan was surprised at the appearance of the city, although it is but five years since he paid a visit here. Most of the many magnificent buildings erected here in recent years have been erected since his former visit.

Both of the elder men worked in the old mill when residents here. While here Thomas Lanigan played a clarinet in St. Mary's Parish Band of those days. He has since played under one of the most noted band leaders of the day, named Patrick Conway, who conducted a band at Cortland, until he became more famous. Now he travels all over the country.

J. P. Lanigan is continuing at Cortland in his business of heat treating and tempering metals and blacksmithing. Harold Lanigan is employed in the office of the Cortland County Traction company.

They dropped over here for the day, stopping at a local hotel. They went to Pittsburgh today to see the ball game at that place. While here they visited The News office and other places of interest and met a number of old friends.

They first came to this city in 1874 and resided here for seven years before going to Cortland to make their home.

Virgin Mary Mirage In Pittsburgh Home Attracts Attention

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haber, and their family were convinced today that a miracle has happened in their little home in this city. The outline of the Virgin Mary has appeared on the wall of their home, they say.

The outline appeared on the wall a week ago last Tuesday, and has remained. For a few days the outline appeared to be fading, but since has become clearer again, today being almost as perfect as when it first appeared, the Habers reported.

Thousands have visited the Haber home since the outline first appeared. The crowds finally became so great, it was necessary to ask for police protection, the officers finally coming to close the house to all visitors.

The outline first appeared after Rita Haber, cleaning the house, accidentally dropped a statue of the Blessed Virgin, in the pose of the immaculate conception. The statue shattered as it fell to the floor. Three weeks later the outline appeared on the wall.

Priests, nuns, police, nurses, laymen, doctors, newspapermen, even children, visiting the home have reported seeing the outline.

GARDNER

The announcement had been made that Rev. J. R. Routledge, pastor of Providence Baptist church at North Sewickley, would be the speaker at the service at the county home last Sunday afternoon, but upon the arrival of Miss Reece from Wilkinsburg, Mr. Routledge withdrew, and Miss Reece gave an inspiring message, and Mr. Routledge will be the preacher next Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Altman and two children of Butler, and her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Badger, of Gardner, were guests at the Robb home in Gardner where Miss Gladys Palm, of Butler, is spending her vacation.

Mrs. Whitaker of East New Castle, entertained the E. M. C. club on Wednesday.

George Maxwell of the old Pittsburgh road, and Gordon Peterson, of New Castle, left last Friday for an automobile trip to Florida, to spend two weeks.

Mrs. Lucile Showers, of Pittsburgh, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Huey, of East New Castle.

Gardner Sunday school will meet next Sunday at ten o'clock, Eastern Standard Time. The children were pleased last Sunday to find forty beautiful new books in their library. The books came from Charles E. Graham, of Newark, N.J., and are lovely. They are all Bible stories.

Rev. Mr. Wagner will preach at the East New Castle Mission next Sunday night. Sunday school is at three o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

Mrs. Mary Miller of Basil, Ohio, is spending her vacation with her relatives, the Comstock family at Gardner.

Miss Pearl Zehner, of New Castle, was a recent guest of Mrs. E. O. Alexander and called on other friends at Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clapper and daughter, Savilla, returned to their home at Gardner, after an automobile trip to Lewistown where they spent a week with their relatives.

Rev. Claude Downs, pastor of Savannah M. E. church, returned last Monday from Westfield, New York, from the conference which was presided over by Bishop Francis McConnell. There were three hundred ministers of the Erie conference present. Savannah church raised the pastor's salary two hundred dollars. Mrs. Downs went to Westfield with the delegates from their church, Mr. and Mrs. Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Hanna, and all returned on Saturday. Frank Reno who lives next door to Mr. Downs was helping to pull a tree across the road and in some way his leg was broken and he is now in the New Castle hospital.

Miss Emma Body, a member of Savannah church, is confined to bed with rheumatism.

Joseph Weinschenk is bedfast with a mild case of pneumonia.

Mrs. Roy McDanel of Lilyville, called on friends at Gardner on Wednesday.

Have You Piles

Then You Have Something to Learn

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in hundreds of cases with a marvelous record of success, such a wonderful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from McKee's Kut Rate, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and must do the same for you or money back.

Women's Societies At Pulaski Church

Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church of this city will possibly be well represented at the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Sharon and New Wilmington districts, Friday, September 22, in the Pulaski Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Alexander M. Lamb of the national board of missions will be the speaker of the afternoon. She will tell of the work of national missions.

Mrs. S. A. Kirkbride of New Wilmington, will speak during the morning session on "Reminiscenses." The business session will be in charge of the president, Mrs. J. J. Fisher.

Clearfield Boys Get Autographs Of Noted Men

(International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Curtis and Max Smith, brothers, bass drummers in the American Legion band of Clearfield, Penna., have obtained a prize collection of autographs.

They have requested, and received, the signature of General Pershing, Marshall Foch and hundreds of other celebrities on the broad white expanse of their drumheads.

The brothers are displaying their trophies with pardonable pride, and expressing the conviction that the names will "go over big" with the folks back in Clearfield.

REES NOMINATED FOR CONSTABLE

W. G. Rees was nminated by the Republicans at the primary of Tuesday for the office of constable in the Neshannock township district. He will take the place of Howard D. Leslie who recently resigned that position.

Symphony specially demands and develops the power of music to sustain itself in flight unaided, and is the supreme test of musical airmanship. —Sir Walford Davies.

Yoemen Will Hold Special Meeting

The local lodge of the Brotherhood of American Yoemen will hold a special meeting Friday evening September 23 in the Alexander Cut Rate store on East Washington street. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock that evening. Mr. Roberts of Ohio will be present and have matters of interest to discuss with the members.

Notice

Sunshine Quartet are giving a concert at King's Chapel church on the Pulaski road Friday night, September 23. Adults 35c, children 20c. Everyone welcome.

GRUEN WATCHES

"The Most Beautiful and Accurate Watch Sold in America"

It is with pride that the Norman Jewelry Co. recommends without question Gruen Watches. It is our honest opinion, that there is no other watch sold in America, that can compare with the beauty and accuracy of the Gruen Watch products. For over 52 years the Gruen Watch Guild, located at Cincinnati, Ohio, U. S. A., has strived to give the American public, a product, that will add prestige to the discriminating buying public.

There Is No Extra Charge for Credit at NORMAN'S

"Where Quality Is Higher Than Price"

Please do not conflict our organization with that of a cheap, irresponsible one, as the Gruen Watch Guild emblem on our windows assures you that we are an organization of character. We do not charge you one cent more for credit accommodations. Never be ashamed to open a dignified Norman Charge Account. Buy any day and pay Norman on pay day, is our motto.

Some Local Comment Ideas and Suggestions As Given To News Man

SAMUEL FALKNER, Madison Avenue.

When the Dodgers set back Pittsburg things are beginning to look rather bad. It seems that Dornie Bush's boys would have to fight to get a chance at the flag, after all.

But I am sure of this: If they do get a wallop at the pennant they will put into their effort to win it all that they have and I am sure that they will bring home the bacon, not only for Pittsburgh, but also for Western Pennsylvania, since many of the boys hail from Western Pennsylvania towns.

MILDRED JOHNSON, Chestnut Street.

Speaking of dancers the most famous male dancer, to my mind is the late Maurice, the Frenchman, who died just recently.

Although he seemed to have had rather a sorry time keeping partners, yet in them he developed a sense of rhythm which made them famous even without his guiding hand.

He himself was the acme of rhythm and grace. He did not dance, rather he seemed to glide across the floor. And he performed the most intricate of steps without hesitation, the thing which seemed to be the fault of so many of the social dancers.

M. D. JOHNSON. Madison Avenue.

New Castle, it seems, is going to have another winning football team. And why they should not win I do not know. They have everything which should go to make up a team which will bring home the bacon to the town.

One of the best high school coaches in the east is their tutor and the boys themselves are no slouches. Then they are always in training, a thing which is so seldom found in a high school aggregation. And besides they play football as a game and not as a profession, which goes to make up for a good deal of sportmanship which is often missing from a team.

EVELYN DAVIS, Harrison Street.

There are many people who think that bobbed hair has come to stay, but I count myself with the number who predict that it will not be long before long hair will again be the style.

Short hair, while it seems to be old as the race, can never be popular for long, for it has always been conceded that the crowning glory of a woman is her hair and if the hair is shorn the glory seems to be gone, although I have seen some women who look much better with their hair bobbed than any other way.

SPECIAL TRAIN IN COLLISION

(International News Service)

ROME, Sept. 22.—A special train carrying 300 former Italian soldiers from Naples to Rome, collided at 6 o'clock this morning with a freight train near the Tiburtina station. The two center carriages of the special train overturned and 50 of the occupants were injured.

The accident was believed to have been caused by a sudden fog which obscured the engineers' vision.

The Great New Light

DUPLEX-A-LITE

Like the sunset from the sky
Without a glare to hurt the eye

SCIENCE and Art together have developed the perfect light---Duplex-a-lite. The light that banishes glare and gloom---the light that conserves eyesight.

GOVERNMENT investigators have found that approximately 25% to 30% of the children in public schools have defective vision. The alarming fact is that this percentage increases with grade progress through the schools.

The Government has published a booklet, "The Eyesight of School Children," treating on this condition. It cites as one of the chief causes the poor lighting by which children read, write, study and do their lessons at home.

Adults' eyes are affected in the same way, though there are no places like schools in which to gather statistics.

Installation of Duplex-a-lite in America's homes will remedy this condition.

After many months of careful study we now make this truly unusual offer as a service to our customers. To all we give an opportunity to install this modern and beautifully decorative light at a special low price and on remarkably easy terms.

The Duplex-a-lite is practical as well as beautiful. It floods the room with a light like warm sunshine. It provides you with home lighting to suit your taste—and your eyes. The light is always soft, well diffused and pleasing, eliminating glare and dark corners.

It is the ideal light for dining room or living room. Special convenience outlet for the dining room permits use of any electrical appliance at the table.

Special Offer!

Celebrate Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn of London celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 17. The celebration wah held in the London Grange hall on the Mercer to Butler pike.

A sumptuous dinner was served at noon. Generous portions of chicken was one of the unusual treats of the dinner which was served by the friends and neighbors of the couple. After the dinner hour was over the relatives and friends gathered in the upper story of the hall where a program of speeches was presented with John F. Nelson as toastmaster. Rev. S. A. Kirkbride, D. D., of New Wilmington a former pastor of Center church, spoke a word of greeting and congratulations. He was followed by Rev. S. C. Elder of Jackson Center, also a former pastor of Center church. A letter of greeting and congratulation was read from Rev. A. Fulton who is a student in the Union Bible school of New York city, recent pastor of Center church. Short talks were given by Robert McClelland, David Gilson and Mrs. S. C. Elder.

The closing talk was made by the groom who thanked the friends for their kindly greetings after which the audience stood and sang "God be With You Till we Meet Again." Prayer was offered by Rev. Elder and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Kirkbride.

The remaining part of the afternoon was spent in conversation and the recalling of pleasant memories of the past 60 years. In the farewell greeting the hope was expressed that they might all meet again at the diamond wedding anniversary in 1942.

Money isn't everything, but it is very useful in paying bills.

Ground Drops 18 Feet As Farmer Stops Plowing

SALINA, Kan. Sept. 22.—On the farm of Prosper Lahey, twelve miles east of Saline, the earth fell in about eighteen feet deep, making a yawning hole about the size of a large room. The dropping of the ground is a mystery to Mr. Lahey and the neighbors who have seen it. Mr. Lahey was plowing in his field and he had driven his tractor and plows over the ground. He felt the ground tremble, but thought nothing of it until upon his return trip with the machinery he observed the large hole in the ground just in time to stop the tractor.

What lies at the bottom of the hole is not known, as an investigation has not been made, but there is no water in it. There seems to be rocks about the cavity. So far as can be learned, no other ground has disappeared since the opening of the first cavity.

Hard Times In Japan Slowing Up Marriages

(International News Service)

TOKIO, Sept. 22.—Even in prolific Japan, hard times have a pronounced effect upon marriages. The Census Bureau has just issued figures showing that 18,591 fewer marriages were celebrated in Japan during 1926 than during 1925. This marked decrease is attributed entirely to disordered economic conditions. There is said to be every evidence that a further decrease will be recorded in 1927, as business is even worse than in 1926.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

WASHED UPON THE ROCKS

"Salt Water Turtle stopped his story telling and looked at the crowd gathered about him.

"'Well, grandson, what are you thinking of now?" asked his grandmother. 'Something interesting, I'll be bound."

"The traveler nodded.

"'I was just wondering if you folks had any idea how many creatures there are that can live on the land as well as in the water besides ourselves and the Frogs and the Beaver and your very near neighbors of the pond and field. I tell you, one doesn't have to go to school to learn things when one can travel. Poor Mother Seal! What a shame!'

"'Who is Mother Seal? What is a shame?' demanded inquisitive Box Tortoise.

"'Two questions at once!' exclaimed the jolly Tar. 'And I'll answer both, but in my own good time.

"'One fine afternoon I was sleeping on the sand in the sun when I was awakened by the strangest noise. "Thud! Swish! Flap!" I couldn't imagine what it was. I opened my eyes with a start and cautiously turned my head in the direction of the sound, ready to crawl off at top speed should any danger threaten me. But what I saw was such a surprise I couldn't move a foot. Only a short distance away from me was the strangest animal I had ever seen.

"HELLO! WHAT ARE YOU DOING ON THIS LONELY BEACH?"

"'"A dog," thought I. Nothing but a dog has a round head and pointed nose and such bright eyes as that, and just at that moment the creature barked—"Woof, Woof!" Then I was sure my guess was right.'

"'"Hello, Dog," said I. "What are you doing on this lonely beach? I never heard that you were a long distance swimmer, and you never came down over all those great rocks above us."

"'I was going to ask more questions when the creature made a sudden turn and I saw that instead of having four legs like a dog its body was long—must have been every bit of six feet—and as slippery looking as an Eel's, and tapering from the shoulders down, ended in two fish tails at the end.

"'"Hello, yourself, Turtle. Basking in the sunshine, as usual, I see. Oh, that I could have made my own home rock, but the waves were too strong for me, and washed me ashore here. Better here than in the depths of the ocean, I suppose. Although my baby should have seen the light of day on the rock of my birth if it had not been for that blow on my head. It weakened me. I must have a nap now. I am all worn out struggling with the waves. Tell you all about it when I wake up."

"'And before I could say another word the stranger had clambered with his funny flippers up higher on the rocks and fallen into a dose, from which I had not the heart to waken her.'"

Next—"Seal Cub's Cradle Song."

October 1 Will Be Straw Hat Day For Ambridge Men

(International News Service)

AMBRIDGE, Pa., Sept. 22.—Let Paris rave—Ambridge is going to wear its straw hat as long as it likes.

Aroused by an edict that the fashionable man should have discarded his straw hat on Sept. 15, a group of Ambridgeites formed a club wherein each member has pledged himself to wear his straw hat until Oct. 1, weather permitting.

Rev. Bernard Fetterly was named president of the new association, and John S. Duss is secretary-treasurer.

STUDEBAKER COMMANDER

2–Wins 1st and 2nd places in Atlantic City Stock Car Race!

3–Climbs Pikes Peak–22 minutes, 47 seconds!

During the first week of September, The Studebaker Commander, by thrilling victories over time and space, again proved itself "the greatest achievement of post-war automotive engineering."

Endurance—Stamina—Dependability

New York Harbor to San Francisco Bay in 77 hours and 40 minutes—total elapsed time. You may not have Ab Jenkins' craving to shatter records, but you will find in the car which he used dependability, freedom from repair expense, long life, and abundant, eager power for all your needs.

Speed—Smoothness—Comfort

Two Studebaker Commanders were entered in the 75-mile race for stock cars listed below $2000, at Atlantic City on Labor Day. They finished first and second, with average speeds of 85.95 and 84.58 miles per hour. The latest models of Chrysler "72," Buick Master Six, Nash Advanced Six and Hudson were also entered.

You won't ever want to go that fast, but you can find daily use for the acceleration, the smoothness, the comfort which the quiet Big Six motor offers at ordinary speeds.

Mountain-Climbing

In the stock car race to the top of Pikes Peak on Labor Day, The Commander was second only to a car which lists at three times The Commander price.

Thus we not only claim but prove that this versatile automobile will out-perform any other car within a thousand dollars of its price.

NEW LOW PRICES

All Studebaker models have more than $100 in extra equipment without extra cost, including front and rear bumpers; shock absorbers; coincidental lock to steering-ignition; engine thermometer and hydrostatic gasoline gauge on dash; etc.

Radio Advertising By Government Is Stopped By McCarl

Comptroller General Orders Government Cease Using Radio Stations

Payment Of Funds To Broadcasting Stations Will Not Be Made In Future

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Radio advertising by the federal government was put on the taboo list today by Comptroller General J. R. McCarl.

Payments of funds to broadcasting stations for this purpose will not be aproved in the future unless specific statutory authority is obtained, according to a letter from McCarl to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

The incident arose over a series of short talks by Undersecretary Ogden L. Mills, Assistant Secretary Charles S. Dewey and J. U. Calkins, governor of the federal reserve bank of San Francisco, urging the public to replace Liberty bonds with other federal securities.

Cost Mounts

The talks cost $5,781, payment in that amount having been made to the National Broadcasting company, which arranged a nation-wide hookup of stations. McCarl, while approving the payment, advised that congress did not contemplate the use of appropriations for broadcasting purposes. He suggested to Mellon that in the future should it be advisable to employ radio for advertising, proper authority must be shown.

"It is understood that the cost of advertising through the usual mediums of the public press and posters in public buildings has been considered a legitimate expense under the appropriation for administration of loans, but it would seem that the radio talk is not in this instance so clearly advertising, as it is in the nature of information which appears in financial newspaper columns without charge," McCarl declared.

"Radio communication is a modernism, but in recent years the automobile in its sphere was equally so, yet Congress has and still does require specific authority in appropriations to authorize the purchase of passenger-carrying vehicles.

"Credit will be allowed in the accounts of the disbursing clerk of the Treasury Department for the payment refered to, but the Congress has shown in the past a purpose to control uses of appropriations in expending for modernisms, so I feel it proper to ask if advertising loan issues by radio talks is desired hereafter more specific statutory authority be shown than now appears."

McCarl questioned whether or not radio expenditures come within the heading of "necessary costs". None of the treasury appropriatons specifically provide for this form of advertising, but possibly a fund for the purpose will be asked in the next budget.

Levine Again Delays Flight

(International News Service)

CRANWELL AERODROME, England, Sept. 22.—A further postponement which is authoritatively expected to result in complete abandonment of the long delayed eastward flight of Charles A. Levine, American transatlantic airman, was announced here today.

Levine sprang another sensation on England in the early hours this morning when, although everything was in readiness for the attempted non-stop flight to India, Levine called up his British pilot, Walter G. Hinchcliffe, and announced the weather was too bad to attempt a start.

Close Rase For Nomination In Mercer County

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Unofficial returns compiled in Mercer county for the Republican party primaries, this afternoon, showed the following to be county nominees:

Sheriff—W. H. Eagleson.

County commissioners—Harry Hunter of Leesburg and Harry Gibson, of Sharon. W. A. Bone, of Mercer, is but 16 votes behind Gibson, and the official count may be needed to determine the winner.

Leo McKay of Sharon was nominated for District Attorney.

A proposal to empower the president of the United State to raise or lower the barriers of immigration at will, was voted down after a bitter debate, in the course of which the Illinois and Pennsylvania delegates declared the proposal would grant the nation's chief executive a "monarchial and grave delegation of power."

The convention became involved in another row over aeronautics when General William Mitchell, former head of the American army air service, as chairman of the aeronautics committee, brought in a report favoring the establishment, immediately, of a separate department of aeronautics in the American government, to be co-equal with those of the army and navy.

New York Now Interested In Foreign Movies

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Interests is being shown by New York's movie-going populace in foreign film offerings.

The technique of the German film makers has almost become a by-word with a number of domestic producing organizations, and the newspaper critics, hailing certain new pictures as potential successes, are inclined to judge the American products by foreign standards.

The producing organizations in Hollywood are making much of the fact that their directorial ranks have been augmented by foreigners, and the American products of Paul Leni, F. A. Murnau, E. A. DuPont and others are heralded as great successes.

"Everybody else seems to be talking about Rinso, so I want to say a few words, too. My grocer had been boosting Rinso to me as a great work saver, so one day I got a package. It's simply grand! All you do is soak the clothes in Rinso—you don't even need a water softener—then give them a good rinsing—and your wash is done. And, mind you, it's cleaner and whiter than if you had spent hours scrubbing and boiling it. It's surely the safest and easiest way to wash clothes. We also use Rinso for dishes, woodwork, windows, and all the other cleaning. It's just wonderful!

MRS. ROY HAINES,
15 Atlantic Ave.,
New Castle, Pa.

Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.

This new kind of soap makes hardest water soft and sudsy

Soaks clothes whiter than you could scrub them

A GRANULATED laundry soap—that makes the hardest water soft, rich and wonderfully sudsy.

That's Rinso! Once you try it for the week's wash, you'll never go back to old-fashioned methods again.

There's nothing like Rinso! It soaks dirt and stains free without one bit of hard rubbing. No boiling, either—for Rinso soaks clothes so clean they're actually sterilized!

In washing machine or tub, Rinso gets the wash whiter, brighter than ever! Millions everywhere know this to be true. No wonder the makers of 31 leading washing machines endorse Rinso!

With Rinso, you need nothing else on washday. It takes the place of water softeners, bar soaps, chips, powders.

And Rinso is so safe—contains no acids or bleaches of any description.

Saves hands—saves clothes

Clothes last longer with Rinso. This is because even the most soiled parts—cuffs, hems and edges—come snowy with just a gentle rub or two between the fingers. They don't need to be scrubbed threadbare.

Saves hands from getting red and washworn, too. Try Rinso this washday, and see! For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on the package.

If you wash by hand
—you'll be amazed to see how Rinso saves you hours of hard rubbing. It actually soaks clothes whiter than you could scrub them!

Reveal Acts Of Heroism In Mission Fire

MISSION LOCATED IN ISOLATED SECTION

(International News Service)

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 22. — The tragic story of how eight members of the Order of Grey Nuns and eight brothers of the order of Oblate Fathers worked heroically to save the lives of 80 Indian children in a fire that destroyed the Roman Catholic mission at Beauval Monday night was revealed today.

Sister Lea and 19 of the children perished in the flames, according to the news brought here by Dr. Amyot of Regina, who flew to this city in an airplane to request that doctors and nurses be sent to those who escaped with their lives.

Beauval is 125 miles north of Prince Albert, through treacherous country, and is an isolated section of the province.

Many children were able to escape from the burning mission, Dr. Amyot reported. Those who did screamed in terror and clung to the veils of the nuns.

The fathers, headed by Father La Jaunesse, Father Ancel and Father Adam, worked heroically to save the 20 persons caught in the fire trap.

There are several buildings in the mission, Dr. Amyot said. The fire swept through the dormitory and hospital. Many of those who died were patients in the hospital and were unable to help themselves out of the burning buildings.

The fathers and nuns worked to save the children until it was obvious that further attempts to enter the blazing inferno would be foolhardy.

Temporary hospital arrangements have been made at the mission, Dr. Amyot said, but insisted that doctors and nurses are needed to care for the patients.

The exact cause of the fire, Dr. Amyot said, has not been determined. It occurred suddenly, he said he was told, and it was impossible to do anything but attempt to save lives.

Prayer easily sinks into inert meditation.—The Rev. W. Hodson Smith.

W. C. T. U. Organized In Seventh Ward

West Side W. C. T. U. Organizes Union; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Wednesday afternoon in the ladies parlor of the Mohoning Presbyterian church the West Side W. C. T. U. held a meeting for the purpose of organizing a new union in the seventh ward. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Roy E. Long, president of the West Side W. C. T. U. About fifteen were present.

Interesting talks were given by Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoning Presbyterian church and Miss Margaret Walker, president of the Lawrence County W. C. T. U. Rev. Schnebly, spoke of the history of the organization. Miss Walker told of the work done by the organization, how to start a new union, and work that might be done by an organization of this kind in the seventh ward.

Mrs. D. C. Schnebly, was elected chairman of the organization to act as leader until other officers were elected. Five members were secured for the organization at the meeting. A number of years ago there was an organization of the kind in the seventh ward.

Friday evening at 7:30 Eastern Standard time, there will be another meeting in the ladies parlor of the Mahoning Methodist church. At this meeting, which is open to all ladies of the ward, officers will be elected.

LARKSPUR KENSINGTON

Mrs. Al Johnson of Rosemont, O., was hostess to the members of the Larkspur Kensington at a 12 o'clock dinner at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Chris Ketzel on East Madison avenue, Tuesday. Nine were present. Following the dinner the afternoon was spent informally at the Ketzel home.

In two weeks, the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Stickle on the West Side.

Mrs. D. S. Evans of East Cherry street is spending today at the home of her son William Evans and family at Energy, Pa.

HAVE CORN ROAST

Wednesday evening the teachers at Mahoning school had a corn and weiner roast. Immediately after school the teachers left the school via cars for Flat rock, where they had their corn roast.

About thirty were present. On the huge flat rock leading down to a natural pool in Hickory Creek, the bonfire was built, and corn and weiners roasted. A delightful time was had by all present.

Committee in charge of the arrangements for the event was comprised of the Misses Geneva Flemming, Thomas, McElron, Helen Drumn, and Messrs. D. W. Burnsides and Wayne.

HAVING CORN ROAST

The Senior Christian Endeavor of the Mahoning Presbyterian church and friends will have a corn and weiner roast, Friday evening.

AT BUTLER

Mrs. Adda Robinson and Mrs. Charles H. Clark of Sunny Side, and J. M. Bevan of West Clayton street were at Butler, Pa., on Wednesday where they represented the Madison Avenue Christian church at the state convention of the Disciples of Christ being held in the first Christian church at Butler. This convention concludes this evening.

INFORMAL PROGRAM

Sunday the annual rally and promotion will take place in the Madison Avenue Christian church. As planned, there will be a short Sabbath school period conducted, then an informal program will be carried out.

There will be a number of recitations and the promotion of Bible school classes. Committee in charge of the program is comprised of Mrs. Mrs. C. J. Bernhart, Mrs. Adda Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Gilmore, Mrs. C. H. Clark and J. F. Edmunds.

BANK FUNDS AT SCHOOL

Tuesday was the first day the pupils of Mahoning school had their bank day this term. About nineteen dollars was banked by the pupils of the elementary grades. The Junior High pupils have their bank day today.

MAHONING BOOK CLUB

The members of the Mahoning Book club had a business meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. W. L. Jenkins of Sheridan avenue, this afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to have their annual business meeting and the election of officers for the year. No meetings of the club had been held throughout the summer.

TO MOVE SOON

Mrs. William Carnes and family of North Liberty street plan to move soon to their property on Wayne street.

L. C. S. BOOK CLUB

Mrs. R. G. Clark of Cedar street will receive the members of the L. C. S. Book Club in her home, Friday evening.

NAME CHANGES SUNDAY

The name of the Mahoningtown Pennsylvania Railroad station in the seventh ward will be changed. Beginning Sunday this station will be known as the Cherry Street Pennsylvania station of New Castle. The station will be listed under the new name on the new schedule that will come out Sunday.

Primary Results In Butler County

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Complete returns from Butler county show that District Attorney Thomas W. Watson was defeated for the Republican nomination to succeed himself by Charles H. Miller.

For register and recorder Roy E. Phillips won the Republican nomination against three candidates. W. Marks Starr for clerk of courts defeated Lloyd E. Henry. N. N. Moon, Republican, was nominated for prothonotary in a field of four. Frederick McGregor, Butler chiropractor serving time in jail for practicing medicine without a license, was second.

Ten Republicans contested for commissioner, the winners being E. H. Hutchison and John Faull. There was a lively contest for coroner, Dr. William F. Pohl of Butler, winning the Republican nomination against three candidates.

Democratic nominees for county commissioner are Isaac M. Dyke and J. D. Fleming. One Democrat will be elected to the bi-partisan board.

BESSEMER SCHOOL REPORTS ACTIVITIES

FOOTBALL.

Monday evening, this year's football team had its first real scrimmage Although the team this year is light the boys are gaining some real speed and expect to put up a good fight at their first game on October 1. The scrubs are also working hard and report having given the regulars a hard fight. The strong opposition of the scrubs held the first lines to two touchdowns.

Grist, a freshman, is showing up well at center. Snyder, Stanich, Glassic and Shrefler are doing good work in the backfield.

CHAPEL.

The second assembly period at the Bessemer high school was undoubtedly one of the best in the history of the school. The program was presented by the senior class under the able leadership of Miss Keys.

The program was a graduation farce with the motto, "Unfinished, But Not so Dumb." After devotionals, Naomi Farrell, as salutatorian made her bow finishing her speech with the word "Welcome."

The president's speech by Hettie Crum and the class history by Ina Reine were both humorous addresses. John Rader as class poet, cut ridiculous capers. Joe Stanish as class knocker proved well versed in the faults of his fellow students. The class will by Wilbur Stanley, class prophecy by James Williams and the valdictorian's speech by Robert Griffin were all well developed.

The faculty address to the seniors was given by Mr. Colton. After the class song "Ain't We Sweet" Dorothy Nord presented each senior with a mock diploma which had been tied with long strings of black candy.

SEN-SOERS.

The Sen-Sores met for tehir first class Monday evening. Nine members were present. The first half hour was spent in class work, everyone working on the same project. After the half hour of class work each member began her own individual project. Dresses were cut out, aprons were begun and some fancy work begun. Misses McLaughlin and McClelland, hostesses for the evening served a light lunch and a social hour was enjoyed.

MANUAL TRAINING.

Two machines were installed lately in the manual department a circular saw and a joiner. The saw is constructed along the line of the larger kind and is handy though small. It has an improved safety device.

The joiner is constructed about the same as a plane. It has a large motor and a cylinder with three blades on it which do the planing or smoothing. Both motors are run off an ordinary light socket. Boys that know something about it will be able to use them and they will be a great help to the department which is supervised by Mr. Lukkatila.

Last year an exhibit was given of lamps, radio tables, stands, etc. This year an even better exhibit is expected on account of the new tools.

HEALTH PROGRAM.

The regular health program begins this week. The boys and girls of the junior high have classes twice a week. The boys of the senior high are also going to have a health program this year.

SCHOOL PAPER.

The members of the Journalism class have just completed their first paper. The manuscript went to press Wednesday and the paper will be on sale the last of the month. There are 16 members in this class and each has his own particular work to do. Aside from the editor-in-chief there are ten minor editors, a business manager an advertising manager and three reporters. Miss McClelland is the instructor.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Thirty-seven students are enrolled in the typewriting classes this year. Thus five new typewriters had to be purchased in order to furnish the students with equipment. Many students which are not enrolled in the regular commercial course are taking such subjects as business law and typewriting in addition to their regular course.

Opportunities for a business career are far greater today than ever before. It is necessary in order to be successful in business to have special training in a business line. It is the aim of the commercial department of the Bessemer schools to give this training so that they may go out into the world and take their places with men and women who carry on the commerce of the world.

Those who study the rudiments of a business education may not always remain a stenographer or bookkeeper, etc., but it gives them an opportunity to come in contact with the big business men of the country and it is not long until he has risen to the position of manager, superintendent or president of the business. Sucess comes to those who prepare for the minor positions. As Mark Twain says "Do not stare up the steps of success. Step up the stairs."

There are more American actors who can play gentlemen than there are American dramatists who can write them.—Percy Hammond.

Machine production is learning that beauty is not the foe but the friend of utility.—Glenn Frank.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Constance Talmadge, American film star, today filed suit for divorce from Captain Alastair William Mac Intosh, according to advices received here from Edinburgh.

The suit was filed in the Edinburgh courts. Lord Fleming will hear the case, the date of which has not yet been scheduled.

The grounds upon which Miss Talmadge seeks her freedom were not learned

Mayberry Jury Out All Night Discussing Case

NO SIGNS AT NOON OF ANY AGREEMENT

Apparently there is a serious deadlock of the jury, composed of two women and ten men, who heard the evidence in the case of Fred Mayberry, charged with involuntary manslaughter, in connection with the death of Mary Emma Gibson. The trial, which started Monday before Judge Hildebrand, ended yesterday afternoon, so far as the evidence, arguments of counsel and charge of the court were concerned.

Attorneys argued the case yesterday forenoon. Judge Hildebrand began charging the jury upon the convening of court Wednesday afternoon. It was about 3 o'clock when his charge was completed, and the jury retired.

The jury was taken to a nearby restaurant for supper, and went back to deliberate. All night long the case was discussed. This morning, looking somewhat worse for wear, the jury was taken down to breakfast.

This forenoon was again spent in the jury room without an agreement being reached. The jury was taken out for dinner, and again retired to continue deliberations.

Owing to the length of time the jury has remained out there is considerable speculation as to what the verdict is likely to be. The jury can bring in a verdict of acquittal, one of guilty, or can report a disagreement.

The jury is composed of the following persons:—

Edward Winter, laborer, Union Township.
Clyde N. Griffith, steelworker, Second Ward.
W. H. Morgan, laborer, Fifth Ward.
E. W. Eller, carpenter, Fourth Ward.
A. S. Eberhart, engineer, Seventh Ward.
G. S. McCurdy, steelworker, First Ward.
Guy Fullerton, farmer, North Beaver Township.
Samuel P. Long, carpenter, Second Ward.
Laura Fullerton, housekeeper, North Beaver Township.
Mary Adams, housekeeper, Pulaski.
Francis Reno, farmer, Shenango Township.
Leroy H. Smith, farmer, Perry Township.

YOUNG COUPLE GIVEN SURPRISE

Mistaken For Bride And Groom Gang Was Awaiting

Perhaps there is one thing which happens only once in the life of the average young man or woman and that is being serenaded, but last evening a celebration was staged on Beckford street which was entirely uncalled for.

A large group of young boys and girls were seated on the steps of a store on the corner of Washington and Beckford streets waiting for a recent bride and groom. All of the noise makers known in the realm of childhood were gathered together; they were sure that the celebration would lack nothing.

One of the boys with sharper eyes than the rest and a more vivid imagination saw a young man and woman walking up Washington street. Promptly he called to the rest of the gang that "there they were."

In a very short time the young couple were surrounded and accompanied up Beckford street. Despite their protestations, the youngsters still believed them to be the happily married pair.

But even nightmares, for it was a nightmare for the young man and woman, end some time and when they turned into the wrong house on Beckford street the children passed on headed for the home of the real bride and groom.

Hi-Y Clubs To Meet Week Of October 3

First Fall Meeting Of Senior And Junior Hi-Y Club Scheduled Soon

Announcement is made today by John Leonard, Boys' Work Director of the Y. M. C. A., that the fall and winter Senior and Junior Hi-Y programs will get under way early in October.

The Senior Hi-Y Club, composed of boy students of the Senior high school, will hold their first fall meeting on Monday evening, October 3.

The North Street Junior Hi-Y Club will meet for the first time on Tuesday, October 4, and the Ben Franklin Junior high school Hi-Y Club convenes on Thursday, October 6, for their initial session.

Assault Case Is On Trial Today

The case of the commonwealth against David R. Lewis, charged with attempting to assault his step-daughter, Carlotte May Eskew, at their home on South Mill street, is on trial before Judge Hildebrand this morning. There are three women and nine men on the jury. Much of the testimony is unfit for publication. Lewis denies the charge.

Democratic Slogan For 1928 Advanced By Governor Ritchie

"Less Government In Business", Maryland Executive Tells Insurance Men

Warns That States And Business Will Be Swallowed Up By "Federalism"

By KENNETH CLARK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—A campaign slogan for the Democrats for 1928 was advanced here today by Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland. It was:

"Less government in business."

The steady encroachment by the federal government into the state fields, the development of federal bureauocracy and the growing tendency of the government to get into business are problems which must be faced squarely by the voters, he told the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies.

Unless this trend is checked, he said, the states and business will be swallowed up in an era of "excessive federalism."

Significance was attached to Ritchie's views because he is regarded in influential Democratic circles as a possible legatee of the political strength of Governor Al Smith of New York should the latter fail to receive the presidential nomination next year. Like Smith, Ritchie is a wet but he has not stressed the prohibition issue other than to declare that the question should be solved by the states, rather than the federal government. Some southern leaders have declared that Ritchie would be more acceptable than Smith. He will go into the convention with the solid Maryland delegation.

Plan Platform.

There is a growing feeling among Democrats here that the party in the next campaign should go before the country on a states' rights platform. This, they hold, would give them a definite line of attack upon the more federalistic political philosophy of the Republicans. Ritchie has taken the lead in advancing this view, to the exclusion of almost all other issues.

"Personally I am of the Jeffersonian school of Democracy which believes that the government governs best which governs least," he declared.

"The country's annual grist of laws is affecting and regulating our social and economic and personal habits and customs and methods of life until one begins to wonder where the Goddess of Liberty will find an abiding place.

"Everyone who wants something changed or who wants somebody reformed or protected or punished or saved, tries to get a law passed to do it, until if Solomon with all his wisdom were with us today he could not know or even understand a fraction of the laws which would govern him.

"Anything that chills the free enterprise of business or that deadens its initiative or interests arbitrarily with the free play of economic opportunity is destructive of social and economic progress. Too much government in business does this."

Bergdoll Will Be Given Right To Return Home

Order American Consul To Issue Passport To Grover Cleveland Bergdoll

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the draft dodger who fled to Germany, will be issued a passport to return to the United States, it was announced at the State Department today.

Instructions to give Bergdoll a passport were sent to John E. Kehl, American consul at Stuttgart. Kehl had received a letter signed by Bergdoll which asked for a passport. The passport will not permit Bergdoll to visit any other country.

As an American citizen Bergdoll does not need a passport to return home, but it was explained that it would be issued to prevent any trouble he might encounter in crossing European countries on the way to America.

If Bergdoll returns, federal officers will be waiting to take him into custody for fleeing the draft.

Governor Fisher Grants Respits

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 22.—Governor John S. Fisher today issued respites for Raymond Winter and William Meyers, Allegheny and Philadelphia murderers, who were to be electrocuted Monday. The date for their electrocution, if they are adjudged sane, was fixed for November 28.

The respite today was the second for Raymond Winter, who was convicted of the murder of two small children near Pittsburgh. The board of pardons has received a report on tests made of Winter's mentality but want to continue observation on the case.

The board at its session yesterday agreed to the appointment of a commission to determine if Meyers is sane. Meyers was convicted of the fatal shooting of a Philadelphia patrolman.

I think I am safe in saying that we (Great Britain) are willing to enter into official relations with Russia again as soon as the government chooses to behave toward us as one civilized government should behave toward another.—Sir Arthur Willett.

Rushing Work Feverishly At "The Castleton"

Preparatory to the grand opening, to be held the first week in October, work at The Castleton has reached fever pitch as men are being rushed in all departments so that the hotel can open complete on the date set.

Representatives of the W. G. Chew company of Pittsburgh, hotel outfitters, are busily engaged in laying the carpeting and placing the furniture in all of the guest rooms. An army of cleaners, hired by the hotel management, have practically completed washingdown the bed room floors.

In the lobby, workmen of the H. J. Conrath company of Erie, who are erecting the hostelry, are putting on the finish woodwork. Floors, which are of a special tile construction have been laid, and as soon as the woodwork is applied, they will be finished.

This morning the refrigerating system for the hotel arrived, of the very latest type, and especially adapted for hotel work.

To the emploment office, which is temporarily located on the third floor, many local people are going, where they fill out an application blank prior to receiving employment.

According to the assistant to the manager, William Huskamp, applications for rooms for the opening, and requests for reservations are continuing to pour into the hotel office, and will be taken care of immediately.

D. A. R. Delegates Seek To Elect New Officers For Year

(International News Service)

BEDFORD, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Interest in the 31st state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution being held here, centered today on the election of officers scheduled for this evening, following a series of entertainment features. Attorney General Thomas J. Baldrige is scheduled to speak after the election.

An address by the Rev. H. Howard Stiles, an automobile trip to points of interest as the guests of the Bedford Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis club and a tea by the civic club and the Bedford County Federation of Womens clubs also were on the program for today.

Chambermaid Dies From Injuries Due To Fall Out Window

(International News Service)

DONORA, Pa., Sept. 22.—Madeline Jaco, 17, a chambermaid in the Hotel Donora fell to the street from a fifth floor window and was fatally injured today. She leaned too far out of the window while shaking a rug and lost her balance. Her back and neck were broken. She died an hour later in Monongahela Memorial hospital.

The girl fell at the feet of two pedestrians about to enter the hotel.

Miss Lee's Concert Friday Evening

Program For New Castle Girl's Concert Is Announced

Friday evening, September 23, New Castle will be given the opportunity of hearing Loretta Lee, a New Castle soprano who seems destined to reach the topmost pinnacle of success in her chosen field.

Miss Lee graduated from Peabody Institute in Baltimore, Md., in June, the third diploma graduate of this historic institution in 57 years. Her teachers and her coaches, and the musical critics of Baltimore are unanimous in predicting a glorious future for her, and in her success New Castle can again take pride, for Miss Lee follows in the train of a procession of splendid singers who have come out of New Castle.

The concert Friday evening is being sponsored by the Music Club and will be given in the New Castle Senior High School auditorium at 8:30 o'clock Daylight Savings Time. She will be accompanied by Howard Green. Her program follows:

Group One

A Un Verde Practicello,—Woef-Ferrari.
B Io dei Saluti.
C E tanto ce pericol.
D Mimi's aria from La Boheme—Puccini.

Group Two

A Ariette—Vidal.
B Chere Nuit—Bachelet.
C Les Papillons—Chausson.
D Die Lorelei—Liszt.
E Widmung—Schumann.

Group Three

A Iris—Wolf.
B Cuckoo—Shaw.
C Trees—Rasbach.
D Song of the Open—La Forge.

Group Four

A My Heart's A Yellow Butterfly—Bochau.

Election Boards Do Excellent Work

Boards In Large Precincts Cooperate Wonderfully With News

With the returns of every precinct in the county reported, the work of the election boards for the primary on Tuesday, September 20, stands out as a splendid piece of work. Particularly is this true of the work of the boards in New Castle and Ellwood City where the vote was most heavy.

The request of The News of a week ago that the boards co-operate with this paper in getting returns as they were completed for each office, was met with in almost every case. The city boards in New Castle reported their returns as they made them and through this co-operation The News was able to give the citizens of the county some idea of how the election was running.

The total vote in the entire county was about 18,000, with approximately 10,750 of this coming from the city of New Castle.

Prather Loses Out In Crawford County

Judge Thomas J. Prather of Crawford county, who is well known here, where he has assisted local judges, lost out in the race for nomination for a third term at the primary Tuesday. He was beaten about two to one by Attorney O. Clare Kent.

Discharged: Fred Beck, Neshannock avenue; Jennie Dukukn, New Castle, R. D. 9.

Many Get Votes For County Surveyor

It will take the official count to determine who has been selected by the Republicans for the nomination as county surveyor. Some indication of the problem in counting the votes of this office may be seen in the returns of the first district of the First Ward. There, names of ten different persons were written in on the ballot. Most of them received but one vote and it is probable that there will be at least as many names for which the vote for county surveyor must be counted as there are districts in the county, namely 81. In fact, if the record of the first district of the First Ward is any criterion, there will be a record number of names for which those making the official count will be required to compile their votes.

READING

Summer is over and summer sports give way before the lengthening shadows of fall and winter. It is time to read. Don't worry if you are not keeping up with the new books. Read the old ones first—the ones that have stood the stormy weather of the years. If you are about to read a modern novel, change your mind for a few days and read Thomas Hardy's "Tess of the D'Ubervilles" or "The Mayor of Casterbridge" or "Jude the Obscure." If you care for realism they have more realism and better realism than all the moderns.

* * *

KNOWLEDGE

Speaking of reading, recall the words of Daniel Webster: "Knowledge, in truth, is the great sun in the firmament. Life and power are scattered with all its beams."

There is no getting away from the fact that the prizes of the world are for those who know.

* * *

An old proverb says to "be content with your lot while you look for a better."

That's more than merely an old saw. It expresses the desirable end of a whole personal philosophy. The calm confronting of circumstances, the acceptance of things as they are—that is the way to peace. But this does not mean we should lack the enterprise and courage to change our circumstances when the way really opens.

* * *

DIVORCES

Seventeen thousand divorce suits are pending in the Chicago courts. This does not mean that the system of marriage is a failure. It merely means that too many young folks are getting married before they are prepared, financially or otherwise. They lack the judgment of maturity. Youth must ever proceed by mistakes. It is too bad that some of their mistakes must last so long and be so serious.

AMBITION

A traveler in England finds the state of the British workingman much below that of the American. The principal reason is not merely one of wages and home conditions. Britain is a country of classes. The thing that makes the American worker what he is will be found in his determination to better himself—to rise from the place in which he is to a better place. He knows that no social barrier stands in his way. He will be accepted for what he is worth. Nobody cares who his grandfather was.

The difference between a "going" man, and one who is not, lies in the single word ambition. The right to ambition is the single greatest heritage of the rank and file of us in America.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Wily New York photographers, in the summer dog-days of slack business, canvass the suburban districts. My neighbors in Mamaroneck and Larchmont are continually being besought to sit for home photographs, which, says the silken-voiced lady at the other end of the telephone, are sure to be shown in the suburban society sections of the metropolitan papers. Usually this bait works, and usually, also, a good sized order results from the tryout. The prices are high, and so the scheme repays the firms which use it.

One of the daily devotees at a Westchester beach is the town fire chief. I asked the police in charge of the beach if it weren't unsafe for the village to be unprotected as its fire boss ploughed around among the jellyfish. He gave me a contemptuous look. Ain't had a fire since the first of May," he told me, witheringly.

"Good News," a fair-enough musical show of the campuses, has turned up an original, a really first-rate comedian, in the person of Gus Shy. This man Shy is as funny as his name, and all without effort, apparently. Dorothy Gish laughed herself sick at him the second night.

You are lucky if some woman member of the Cosmopolitan club, at Fortieth street and Lexington avenue, invites you to dinner there. Contrary to all I have ever heard about pallid food and indifferent service at women's clubs, this one does its members awfully well. The other night we had roast duckling cooked with oranges, in a way to cause an epicure to shut his eyes for very ecstasy. The soup, too, had a subtle flavor, and the service was sure footed and quiet. The club has an inner courtyard which defies all city heat and dirt by remaining cool and green as a California patio which has been well watered.

The glimpses you get into tenements from the New York Central tracks uptown fascinate me. The only trouble is, I find the train goes too fast to give me a really good look at any one establishment. Here, in these honeycombed tenements, life seems pretty much to circle around the kitchen. Even when I ride home on the late theatre train, I see whole families gathered around against a background of white kitchen dressers and pots and pans. Usually there is an eating fest in progress. (Food is one of the joys of the poor in New York, especially in the tenement neighborhoods, where pushcarts bulge with cheap, excellent edibles.) Then, on Friday nights, along the railroad right of way, I always watch for the glimpses of lighted candelabra in the flats of the orthodox Jews. Every other window, it seems, blazon, this symbol of the old religion, fast dying out among the Park avenue members of the same race.

* * *

The lady who teaches in Brooklyn's tenement section says, comprosedly: "Italian wine? No, none for me, thanks. My pupils all stay home during the wine making season; we just can't get them to come, and I think the grape stomping is part of the annual bath for them."

USELESS

We are reminded that the open season for conventions is now on by a snatch of conversation we heard in a hotel lobby recently. Two brother something-or-others had bumped into each other.

"Did you get a room all right?" one of them asked.

"What do I want with a room?" replied the other with disdain. "I am only going to be here three days."—The New Yorker.

It is great to have a clear skin

A clear skin means everything to the popularity of men and women. If you are unfortunate enough to have pimples or skin blemishes, in justice to your friends and yourself, you should treat the source of the trouble. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much desired.

Thousands have been enabled to free themselves of unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

S.S.S. helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I was troubled with pimples and blackheads, but thanks to S.S.S., I got rid of them. My face now has a smooth feeling. I think S.S.S. does many wonders for the system. Besides giving me a clear complexion, it gave me a healthful look." Miss Angela Annunzio, 1007 S. Racine Ave., Chicago, Ill.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants. It is time-tried and reliable.

Auto Is Overturned, Destroyed By Fire, Couple Escape

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex McC. Campbell of the Atlas hotel, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon, when their automobile turned over on the road near McBride crossing, Plank road, and was completely destroyed by fire.

According to a report of the accident, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were going towards Pittsburgh and were nearing McBride crossing when Mr. Campbell noticed two automobiles approaching from Pittsburgh.

As the cars neared each other, the second car approaching Mr. Campbell attempted to pass the first car, causing Mr. Campbell to turn off the road to avoid an accident.

Mr. Campbell is said to have attempted to return to the road and in doing so, lost control of his car, causing it to turn over and catch fire.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell escaped with minor injuries, and the machine was completely destroyed. The drivers of the other cars are not known as they continued on their way to Butler.

PROSPERITY PAYS A VISIT

Prosperity came to the poor man's door,
And a welcome sight was he,
For he had struggled to win him o'er
For his wife and his children three.

So he greeted him with a radiant eye
And he wished him long to stay,
And the woman uttered a joyful cry
As their poverty went away.

"Since wealth has come as a lodger here,"
Said she to her children three,
"We are done at last with our neighbor's sneer,
As proud as they are we'll be."

"Beware of me," said their new found friend,
"Though I shine in all men's regard,
Thousands have learned e'er by visit's end,
I'm a difficult guest and hard."

And the man said: "Let us stay humble still,
Let us cling to our manners plain,"
But the woman had wanted to work her will,
And the morning found her vain.

She dressed her children in gaudy style
And she gave them gold to spend,
She ceased to teach them the things worth while
And they came to a shameful end.

At last to her lodger the woman said:
"Never friend comes here to call,
We were happier far when we earned our bread
And we had no wealth at all."

"I'd have kept your friends had you wished," said he,
"But you turned yourself to the new,
And you lost your heads at the sight of me
As so many people do.

"Now you've found the truth at my visit's end
Which all men come to know,
To the wise Prosperity is a friend,

English Educator Dies At Cambridge

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, England, Sept. 22.—Sir Arthur Shipley, Master of Christ's College, Cambridge, died here today at the age of sixty-six.

Sir Arthur was one of England's foremost educators. He was formerly vice chancellor of Cambridge University, and held many important posts in educational institutions in Great Britain during his career. He was the authority of a number of educational works.

Sir Arthur held degrees from important British universities, as well as from the University of Michigan, Princeton University and the Drexel Institute of Philadelphia.

Things to Know Before Baby Comes

During expectancy and at childbirth many muscles, tissues and nerves undergo great strain and tension. Much of this suffering may be avoided by simple means.

The method is not a new thing. It has been successful for over three generations.

Tonight! apply Mother's Friend to the abdomen, back and hips. It relieves tension and soothes the nerves. Do this each night and you will be amazed how effectively Mother's Friend aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily during expectancy.

"Everyone was surprised how well I got along," writes Mrs. Alfred E. Ammon, Muncie, Ind. "My pains disappeared after using Mother's Friend and I was sick only an hour and a half at baby's birth."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

"DISH WASHING"

We knew just what the answer would be, because the women here are no different than the women anywhere else. You have always been sorry that you had to get up from the dinner table and wash the dishes. You may not of thought however of the unsanitary part of washing dishes. You would not even wash your hands in the dish water some dishes are washed in. Think of the dish cloths, towels and equipment you use in washing dishes. How would you like to do away with this system. There's "An New Day in Dish Washing."

BIRTHDAY EVENT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buchanan was the scene of a merry gathering recently, the occasion being a surprise party to celebrate their daughter Ruth's eighth birthday anniversary. A delicious dinner was enjoyed and a birthday cake, on which were pink and white candles presented an attractive appearance. The honor guest received many beautiful gifts in memory of the occasion.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. C. E. Miles, Mrs. Andrew Erickson and daughter Corrine, of Sharon; Mrs. J. R. Miles, Ralph Miles and daughter Marian; Miss Francis McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. John Hogue and family of Sharpsville.

PULASKI NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McClennahan and daughters, Betty, Jean and Helen, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bell of New Castle.

Mrs. Susanna Bird, Misses Helen, Mary and Katheryn Bird, have left for Pittsburgh to spend the winter. The Misses Bird are teaching in Pittsburgh.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. James Black Friday evening.

L. J. Doyle left Wednesday evening for a several days' trip to Atlanta, Ga.

T. J. Shea of Ashtabula has returned to the Hotel Pulaski to spend the week.

Mrs. Martin Schell spent Wednesday as the guest of Youngstown friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orr of Erie are spending several days as the guest of the former's sister, Mrs. John Headings.

Mrs. Fred Shields has been spending some time as the guest of Mrs. Wilson McCluskey of New Bedford.

Butler To Clarion Highway Opened

BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 22.—The opening of the completed highway between Butler and Clarion by way of East Brady will take place Saturday. The last stretch near Reidsburg has been completed. A section of about a half mile in East Brady remains to be improved but it is ashed and kept in fair condition for travel. Northbound travelers may find the road from Butler to the Lake-to-Sea highway at Clarion a pleasant change from the Butler-Slippery Rock road to Franklin and other northern towns.

CONSTIPATION CAUSES HEADACHES

Get sure, prompt relief with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

When you're dizzy in the morning—look out for constipation. This terrible scourge is the direct cause of many a throbbing head—and in the end may lead to more than forty serious diseases. Bad breath, bad complexions, listlessness, are just a few symptoms of what may be worse! Guard against constipation.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation if eaten regularly. Doctors recommend Kellogg's because it is 100% bran—100% effective.

Eat two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey. Use in cooking, mixed with other cereals, in soups. Ready to eat. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold and served everywhere. Recipes on package.

Slayer Of Eight Is Found Insane

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 22.—Tony de Capua who shot and killed eight persons here September 3, was found insane by the Mahoning county grand jury. He will be committed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Lima.

De Capua killed his wife, three children, three grandchildren and a neighbor and wounded his daughter-in-law, a patrolman and a passerby. He himself was wounded in a gun battle with police and later made three efforts to kill himself in a hospital to which he was taken. He now is in jail.

Fifty Local Church People Hear Famous Canton Minister

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Fifty members of the Christian church of his city took advantage of the proximity of Dr. P. H. Welsheimer of the Canton Christian church, and journeyed to Butler last evening to hear his address on "Ministers of Jesus Christ," at the Convention of Western Pennsylvania Christian churches conducted this week in Butler.

Dr. Welsheimer is a huge man physically as well as mentally and spiritually, standing about 6 feet four. His Bible school at Canton is the largest in the world, boasting an enrollment of 6,600, and the church proper covers one entire block. Dr. Welsheimer attributes his success to hard labor, and an infallible system of keeping track of new people coming into Canton. His organization is so trained that any of his men can spot a newcomer, and take special pains to make him welcome.

He has been preaching in the Canton church for 28 years, and still looks youthful, in spite of the years which must be behind him in his church record.

Mrs. Reinhart Is Speaker At Meet

Try Marshroot For Sleepless Nights

When your bladder is irritated and you have to jump out of bed two or three times every night it breaks your rest and you feel tired and weary during the day.

Time then to think of Marshroot because this good old medicine is guaranteed to help this condition or money back—and no time is wasted doing it either.

If you want to sleep sound at night, keep free from bladder weakness and gain in energy, get a bottle of Marshroot. It isn't expensive and is guaranteed. Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., sells lots of it.

New Secretary Is Elected By Class

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Twenty members of the Margaret Pugh Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church conducted their monthly business meeting and tureen dinner last evening in the dining room of the church.

The important business of the evening was the election of Miss Freida Wadsworth as the new secretary. Mrs. Sharp Jackson was named as a delegate to attend the Sunday school convention in New Castle October 12, 13 and 14.

A delicious menu was enjoyed, and a charming arrangement of fall flowers provided the color note. Members of the committee in charge of the dinner were: Mrs. George Fordyce, chairman, assisted by Miss Eleanor Humphrey, Miss Freida Wadsworth and Miss Sara Aiken.

Dr. Cook Of Valley Will Speak Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Dr. William Cook of Beaver Falls, a well-known man in public circles, will for the second time appear in this city in the capacity of speaker at the local Rotary Club dinner meeting which takes place this evening in the dining room of the First Presbyterian church.

His talk will be a continuation of his subject the last time he visited here, "International Convention of Rotary Clubs which took place at Ostend, Belgium". Dr. Cook will show a number of pictures taken at the convention and will be able to paint an interesting word picture of the activities there.

Pretty Luncheon For Mrs. Hainer

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Complimenting Mrs. Kathryn Hainer, who returned last Friday from an extended trip to Alaska and the California coast, Mrs. R. T. Brown entertained 20 guests at a pretty bridge-luncheon at the Ellwood Country Club Wednesday afternoon. Fall flowers formed an attractive center for the tables.

At the conclusion of the menu four tables of bridge and one of 500 were in play, at the conclusion of which Mrs. H. E. Helling and Mrs. Ben Gardner won score honors in bridge and Mrs. Retta Johnston the 500 prize. Assisting Mrs. Brown in receiving were Mrs. R. C. Stiefel and Mrs. L. L. Gelbach. The honor guest gift was a beautifully arranged basket of mixed fall flowers.

Those enjoying the event were: Mesdames Kathryn Hainer, R. C. Steifel, Adda Fisher, L. L. Gelbach, Lillian Thomas, M. W. Conway, W. R. Johnston, Retta Johnston, Harold Seidel, Ben Gardner, C. M. Iseman, Cleo Ferguson, Marie Benford, E. T. Hazen, H. B. Anderson, H. E. Helling and George Pugh.

Mrs. Snedden Is Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Tillman Snedden of Ninth street entertained the members of the T. S. B. Club at her home last evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ross were special guests and a pleasant evening was passed at bridge.

High score honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levere. Later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. King, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levere, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoover and Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Lawther.

Pirates Down Brooklyn, 4-2

MILJUS HURLS FIVE-HIT GAME

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 22.—Donie Bush's Pittsburgh Pirates advanced another notch toward the National league flag yesterday by downing the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-2 here in their final game at Forbes field this year. The Pirates are now three and one-half games to the good over the New York Giants, nearest contenders for the flag.

It remained for John Miljus to set the Dodgers down. He allowed but five hits and not a man passed first base until the eighth inning. He hurled a masterful game. McWeeney hurled for the Dodgers and was effective throughout but loose fielding by his mates caused his downfall.

The hitting of Lloyd Waner who registered three hits yesterday and four fast double plays, three of which were executed by the Pirates, were features of the game.

Mail Carriers Win Over Bankers, 3-2

Wilson And Funkhouser Engage In Mound Duel; Clark And Flynn Hit Doubles

New Castle Bankers dropped a close game to the Mail Carriers last evening at the Croton field, the setto ending 3 to 2.

Wilson and Funkhouser engaged in a mound duel with the latter having a little the better of the argument. Wilson was nicked for six blows and Funkhouser touched for four. Loose playing behind Funkhouser caused his downfall.

Davis-Elkins To Oppose Geneva In Opening Game Of Season Saturday

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Sept. 22.—"Geneva Prepares for Home-Coming Day." On Saturday, September 24th, "Bo" McMillin's Golden Tornado will meet "Cam" Henderson's "Scarlett Hurricane" of Davis-Elkins, at Reeves Stadium in the annual Geneva Alumni Home-Coming Day festival. Every effort is being extended to get in touch with all Geneva grads in order to make this the biggest and best Home-Coming Day Geneva has ever had.

Plans are being made for all class reunions on the campus and the usual alumni banquet will be held after the game.

The 323rd Field Artillery is having their reunion in Beaver Falls and are the guests of the Geneva students at the game. A special section of the stadium is being reserved for the soldiers who will furnish a lot of pep through the mediums of their military band.

Geneva has another great team this year and expect to enjoy a banner season, but in Davis-Elkins they have an exceedingly tough assignment for the opening game. The Covenanters are putting on the finishing touches for the big game and should be in tip-top shape and ready to go at the whistle on Saturday.

A special program has been arranged by the students for the entertainment of the spectators between halves.

Pennant Chase Is Now Interesting Pittsburgh Fans

Western Pennsylvania Speculates On Outcome Of Championship Melee

By CARL L. TURNER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH Sept. 22.—Smoketown is finding it extremely difficult to keep its mind on business and politics these hectic days with the Pittsburgh Pirates almost certain of winning the National League pennant.

Down where the Allegheny and the muddy Monongahela converge they are talking baseball mor earnestly than at any time since 1925 when the Dreyfuss hirelings won the National League and subsequently the World Series flags.

Pittsburghers are well initiated to the famous and widely heralded tumbling act their major league has staged so often in the final and telling days of the pennant chase, yet for all their experience it is difficult to find a fan west of the Alleghenies who does not consider the Buccaneers "in."

As far down the Monongahela as Morgantown and as far north as Bradford and Erie the baseball fans are arranging their chores to allow them to get away to Pittsburgh foe envisioned Pirate-Yankee melee early in October.

In Oil City where Joe Harris, one of the mainsprings of the Pirate offense, could almost unanimously be elected mayor this year, if the baseball fans constituted the bulk of the electorate, it is beginning to look as if business will be at a standstill if the big event comes to Pittsburgh.

"Coulter" Joe spends the off seasons in Venango county and his popularity is outdone only by the valiant Lindbergh in the oil country. Farther north, at Corry, the boys are equally excited about the post-season class. Carmen Hill ace of Pirate pitchers, hails from Corry.

Out at Forbes field the venerable Barney Dreyfuss whose pockets bulge with the gate receipts of one of the Pirates most remunerative years, maintains the attitude of a poker player with three aces in his hand waiting for a duffer with a pair of kings to lay his money on the line.

Barney won't talk about a World Series—yet; not superstitious, of course but nevertheless not wanting to lay down any mental or imaginary barriers between his team and the bunting by making world series preparations with the Pirate not quite "in" numerically.

But after awhile Barney will have plenty to say. He'll tell about the flock of circus seats. He is secretly contemplating now; he'll tell the hungry mob of fans his nice baseball orchard will accommodate only so many thousand and the rest will have to take a little static with their World Series.

Pittsburgh's all too few first class hotels report wholesale World Series reservations at this early date. And the New York Yankees, American league champs, expect Pittsburgh to win in the senior league too, it would seem. They have placed reservations for 75 persons at a local hotel.

Optimism here has reached the stage where the boys down at the corner drug store are speculating on which pitcher Manager Donie Bush will start in the first game with the Yankees.

SEVERAL HURT ON ALLEGHENY FOOTBALL TEAM

MEADVILLE, Pa., Sept. 22.—After two weeks of hard training in the Allegheny College football camp, with practically no injuries, several blue and gold gridders have, within the last day or two, developed minor ailments that have compelled Coach Merritt to excuse them from practice.

Moon has developed a "charley horse", Lusk a knee injury, C. Davis a bruised leg, N. Kinnunen a bad ankle and C. Behrhorst a strained tendon. The absence of these players from active practice has given an opportunity for other candidates to step into the limelight.

Thompson Impresses

In today's scrimmage the varsity backfield was composed of C. White, quarterback; Hepler, left half; Thompson, right half, and Forbes, fullback. This combination performed exceptionally well, the work of Thompson of Coraopolis high school attracting special attention. The scrimmage session lasted but 15 minutes, but it was long enough for the varsity to carry the ball the full length of the field for two touchdowns.

Kinnunen at Tackle

The announcement of Coach Merritt that Niles Kinnunen would be transferred from end to tackle was enthusiastically received by followers of the team. Kinnunen is a sturdy lad weighing 180 pounds, who possesses considerable speed and plenty of fight. Coach Merritt is well supplied with ends, but is in need of additional tackles. It is believed that Kinnunen will quickly develop into a sterling tackle and that he may be found holding down the regular tackle job that was filled by his brother, who was captain of the team last season.

New Men Joining Westminster Squad

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—Contrary to expectations Westminster's grid squad instead of decreasing numerically is steadily gaining in numbers. In the last two days three new men have reported to Coach Beede for tryouts on the Blue and White eleven. Though these men have arrived too late to be of any assistance to Beede in the game with Carnegie Tech this Saturday they will however, according to the dopesters greatly enhance the potentalities of the blue-jerseyed squad.

The new men are Cameron, a 160 pound end from Turtle Creek; Finney, a 170 pound lineman from McKeesport and Clark a 175 pound guard from Bradford. With these new additions the squad now numbers about 33 men.

It is only a matter of seven or eight years before we will have between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000 registered motor vehicles on our streets and highways.—Walter P. Chrysler.

Miser Who Lived On Dollar A Day Dies Worth $800,000

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Word has been received here from Honolulu telling of the death of John R. Keys in the Queens Hospital. Keys lived in the Salvation Army home and made it a point to live on a $1 a day.

He was seventy-nine and little was known of him. Investigation, however, revealed Keys had an estate of more than $800,000, largely in realty, from which he drew an income of more than $1,500 a month. He also owned blocks of sugar and pineapple plantation stocks and bonds, and had substantial deposits in sevral Honolulu banks.

A canvass of the banks confirmed the reports that Keys carried large balances. The banks declined to make any statements concerning the amounts.

An old friend of John's, who walked into the city department of a Philadelphia newspaper, said he wasn't laying claim to the $800,000; just wanted to say he was convinced the John R. Keys, who died in far off Honolulu, was the same John R. Keys he knew twenty-five years or more ago.

Named After Character

"We called him 'Happy Jack'," said the visitor, Albert G. Haines, a bookbinder, who resides at No. 3328 North 18th Street. Back in the nineties he worked for the National Publishing Company on South American Street near Locust. Denman Thompson then was starring in 'The Old Homestead,' and there was a character in the play who was for all the world like Jack Keys. 'Happy Jack, the Rover' was the character, and our Jack became 'Happy Jack.'

"Judging from the despatches 'Happy Jack' had not changed very much. He was always eccentric and loved to hoard his money. It is said that Keys lived on a dollar a day. Why, he must have become extravagant! When I knew him he used to boast that when out of work he lived on exactly $1.27 a week.

"'Happy Jack' lived in a room, which he furnished himself, above a barber's shop on Fourth Street near Vine. He wasn't a bookbinder; only did odd jobs around the place. Work was scarce and he felt the pinch of poverty and when he had employment he made it a point to save his money. H paid specified sums weekly into an insurance company to guarantee him an annuity. He made up his mind that his would not be poverty-stricken in his old age.

"Keys was very methodical in his habits. When he worked for the publishing company he ate at a restaurant on Second Street at the same time every day. As soon as he entered the place the waiter would sing out, Pot pie and plenty of crust!"

"In those days saloons served free lunch. Keys would stroll into a barroom, watch his chance, grab a partly consumed blass of beer and then demand, "Where's my lunch?"

"When out of work he would sleep until noon to save breakfast money. He cooked his lunch, and his daily repast was prunes and coffee. Then he would saunter up to the Y. M. C. A. and spend most of the afternoon and evening reading. When he was put out at 10 o'clock, he would go to one of the railroad stations and continue his reading until early in the morning."

"Happy Jack" was born in Ireland. He served in the British Army and also in the American marines. Haines thinks he may have a few relatives in this country, but believes most of his folks are in Ireland.

CHURCH CRUSADE STARTS SUNDAY

Dr. Earle Wilfley To Be One Of Speakers At Series Of Meetings

DR. EARLE WILFLEY

The program of the National City Christian Church Crusade will be launched in Lawrence county on Sunday, September 25, which speakers will address the congregations of the Christian churches of the county.

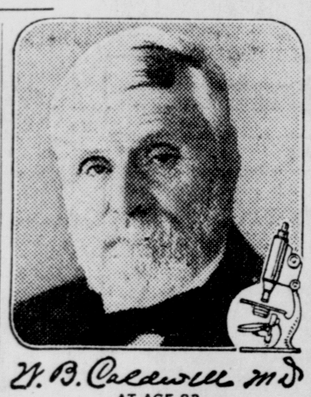
Dr. H. J. Corwin will speak at the First Christian church of New Castle at the morning hour; Rev. S. R. Bradley will be at the Central church and Rev. C. J. Robertson will speak at the Madison Avenue church in the evening. Rev. Carl Cheek will address the Ellwood City congregation, Rev. G. W. Wise the Chewton church and Rev. Robertson will be at Edenburg in the afternoon.

On Tuesday evening at 6:45 o'clock at the First Christian church a fellowship banquet will be served to which all adult members of the above mentioned churches are invited and urged to be present. The dinner is complimentary and no call for funds will be made.

Dr. Earle Wilfley of Washington, D. C., will be the principle speaker of the occasion. Dr. Wilfley is a speaker of great power and well known by many of this city having formerly been pastor of the First Christian church.

The National City Christian Church Crusade is a brotherhood movement among the Christian churches to build a great representative church at the nation's capital. Many meetings have been held throughout Western Pennsylvania where hundreds have gathered to learn more of the purposes and plans of this great project.

Doctor Found Women and Children Sick More Often than Men



W. B. Caldwell M.D.
AT AGE 83

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have gotten many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.

While women, children and elderly people are especially benefited by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, it is promptly effective on the most robust constitution and in the most obstinate cases. It is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause griping and strain. Containing neither opiates nor narcotics, it is safe for the tiniest baby. Children like it and take it willingly.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep a bottle in your home,—where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

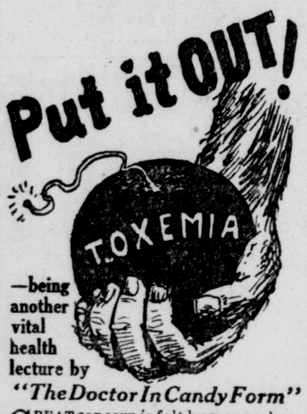
Put it OUT!



—being another vital health lecture by "The Doctor In Candy Form"

GREAT concern is felt by many when an infernal machine (bomb) is discovered hidden under some structure, sizzling, ready to destroy life at a given time. Yet few people pay attention to another kind of "internal machine" that is sizzling with dangerous, poisonous bacteria that will surely destroy health and life if not put out in time.

This "internal machine"—seething with millions of disease-producing germs—causes System Poisoning, professionally called TOXEMIA. Constipation keeps it sizzling. Nervousness, sleeplessness, weak and dizzy spells and forty other symptoms tell you the bomb is getting ready to explode your health and happiness. Ordinary laxative pills and waters do not put it out. But if you will just take Partola, the internal antiseptic and laxative (The Doctor in Candy Form) you will clean out the poisonous toxins that cause it, and thereby prevent bodily disaster. Partola is fast becoming the National system cleanser and health preserver. Safe, pleasant, economical. All good druggists sell regular box 30¢, double size 60¢.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Work has been started on paving of Mills way on the North Hill.

Just one thing after another. Election excitement one day and now comes the Dempsey-Tunney battle.

Election board workers in one North Hill precinct report that one voter entered the booths on Tuesday afternoon and asked for a non-partisan ballot. Another board reports that one of the ballots was found marked with one cross, the voter evidently believing that he was voting it straight.

With the nomination of Louis Genkinger as the Republican party standard bearer for mayor, a well informed local citizen comments that it has been the history of the city that most of the mayors have come from the east side section of New Castle.

Negroes Attack Young Nurse, Is Severely Beaten

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Three negroes attacked Miss Frances Kline, 20, a nurse at the Montefiore hospital here early today after taking her from a parked car where she had been sitting with a friend, according to attaches of the hospital. The young woman was in such serious condition, hospital authorities refused city detectives permission to question her. A search for the negroes was fruitless.

Small Truck Drags Airplane Fuselage Over City Streets

Last evening there was a great clatter at the intersection of Morton and East Washington streets. At about 11 o'clock a small truck panted painfully up the hill, dragging an airplane fuselage, which was painted green.

Up the hill the truck chugged, and every minute seemed about to be its last. Finally, though, when it reached the turn, it went triumphantly down Morton street.

BULLET CRASHES THROUGH WINDOW

When a .45 calibre bullet crashed through the plate glass of the front door of the home of John Rote, 1025 East Washington street, last night, breaking the plate glass into many pieces, he called the police.

Officer Samuels and Officer Lockard were detailed and could find no indication of where the bullet came from or why it had been fired.

Fortunately no person was in line of the bullet or they might have been seriously injured or killed. The police secured the bullet and are holding it at the police station.

GENE TUNNEY-JACK DEMPSEY READY

Chicago Seething With Excitement As Fight Hour Nears

Both Fighters In Prime For Gruelling 10-Round Battle Tonight

Largest Fight Crowd In History To Witness Championship Go

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Chicago, tingling, truant town of romantic realism, was a cauldron that lived and breathed and seethed in the emotion of the greatest moment today, a melting pot of all that was good and much that possibly was bad among the froth and dregs of a sporting nation; a melting pot that made over all classes into the great class, fired with the abiding idea of witnessing tonight the second episode of the Dempsey-Tunney serial for the heavyweight championship of the world.

It was to be circus day at the old county seat all over again, only on a bigger and better scale. And so a record multitude of 150,000 tramped the streets and gorged the lobbies, while late detachments rushed in from the hinterland by air, steel, concrete and water.

Rome, with its first night show at the Colisseum, was just a little, sleepy country village compared with the Chicago that today saw and knew; Ninevah, Babylon and Tyre didn't have a thrill or a throb in them by comparison.

For here was a great town running riot over the greatest show on earth, as another Barnum would have put it, a show that meant a record crowd, a record gate of some $2,500,000, and a spectacle by night such as seldom is given to the eye of man to behold. The fight itself, while the focal point of all the excitement, was merely secondary to the fun and the frolic that has gone with such an occasion since the first day the old circus came to town to the present moment of spectacles and extravaganzas in the heavyweight division.

Chicago Excited

The wine of keen excitement was in the air itself, for the day was cool and the weather general fair, which was quite the contrary to the conditions that prevailed at the first Dempsey-Tunney meeting last year. On that occasion the hittherto invincible Dempsey was shorn of his proud title in a deluge of rain.

On that occasion 130,000 persons gloated over the man's downfall because they liked him not and didn't care who knew it. But defeat brought him the popularity that had been denied him in victory, and so tonight's great crowd and tonight's great money and tonight's gripping drama has been made possible only because the country at large wants to see Jack Dempsey become the first heavyweight champion to win back a title he had lost.

Commission Rules

Such a performance, of course, would upset all precedent. But, as to that, this has been and will be an unprecedented fight.

No fight in boxing history, for example, ever was fought with the understanding that, if the decision of the referee and two judges is not satisfactory to the boxing commission it will not be announced from the ringside. Neither had any one ever heard of a provision whereby a referee may be tossed out of the ring in the midst of the bout if his work does not please the commission. In this event another of the six men nominated would be substituted and the bout would proceed as before.

Unusual? Yes. But think of a crowd of 150,000, straining with open mouth and lifted ear for an announcement that may never be made. Think of the buzz of wonder and comment and speculation that would follow the withholding of the decision, the sly winking behind the hand and the exultant chorus of "I told you so's" that would make the night hideous.

Dempsey blew his title by losing virtually 10 rounds out of 10 to Tunney last year. They will fight another 10-round bout tonight, and, so well has the ex-champion intrigued the popular imagination that many people are expecting him to win the majority of the rounds, if he doesn't win by a knockout.

Dempsey, a prey to devastating worries in 1926, admittedly was a better man for tonight's test; in fact, his speed and general condition were esteemed over that which he had the night, two months ago, when he knocked out Jack Sharkey in his official comeback.

But Tunney was a better man today, too; at least, he was physically. Psychologically, however, his position of 1926 was reversed, since this time he had all to lose and nothing to gain, also, he was under the handicap of having had no fight since that dank, forbidding night in Philadelphia when he lifted Dempsey's crown to the amazement of the multitude.

But did I say he had nothing to gain? Well, to be frank, he had nothing to gain but a cool million dollars. That will be his reward tonight merely for stepping into the ring. If

Cool And Cloudy Weather Outlook For Big Battle

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"Cool and cloudy" is the weather bureau menu for tonight's big battle as forecast by Prof. Henry W. Cox of the weather bureau.

"The weather tonight will be partly cloudy to cloudy, probably without rain and certainly none of consequence. Cool weather will continue, the maximum during the day probably being under 60 degrees and the temperature in the evening at the time of the fight about 55 degrees. The winds will be gentle to moderate and variable."

New Wilmington Tennis Club To Function Again Next Summer

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—At a meeting of the executive committee held here last night the activities of the New Wilmington Tennis Club which has been holding matches during the summer were formally closed until next summer by a unanimous vote of the committee.

Those who played for the local club were the Cummings boys, Clark, O. Crowe, Kirkbride, Herriott, Barnes and Kuhn. Due to illness, Clark was unable to play all of the season, but it is expected that he will be able to wield his racquet for the organization next summer.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

PICKS JACK DEMPSEY

Any man who can like Jack Dempsey always has a chance, and while ring tradition says Gene Tunney should retain his championship, I'm playing a hunch and pick Dempsey to win.

In picking the ex-champion I'll confess that I'm banking on Gene's mental state, the fact that he hasn't fought in a year and Dempsey's sincere desire to win back his crown.

Before Dempsey fought Tunney he had the notion he was invincible and when he entered the ring to be defeated by Tunney a year ago he suffered from ego.

Tunney, the not too powerful, but accurate puncher, fought a cagey battle and determined to take a lead, keep it but not take any chances on being knocked out.

Several times during the fight he had Dempsey in a bad way, hit him on the "button", but his blow failed to stop Dempsey—proving his vaunted punch had been left at Stroudsburg.

Gene battered Dempsey's face and took the championship on a decision and as soon as Jack realized what the loss of the crown meant he turned about face.

MONEY TALKS

He determined to attempt the "impossible". He picked on Jack Sharkey and in that actual fight sharpened his eye for judgment of distance and the training helped condition his body.

In the meantime Tunney bided his time. He only trained when he felt like it, but the big point is that he has not fought for a year, and no fighter can lay off 12 months and not suffer some.

There are other things beside loss of fame that hurt Dempsey. Producers failed to pay the prices demanded for motion pictures of his wife, Estelle Taylor.

This meant probably the loss of a million dollars. Several entirely uncalled for remarks about Estelle, reported to have been made by Tunney attaches, also made Dempsey eager for revenge.

During the past week or more the Dempsey crowd fired verbal broadsides that have annoyed Tunney. In other words, he is the man with the sword hanging by a thread over his head tonight.

Dempsey can hit better than Tunney.

Tunney's legs are better than Dempsey's.

The assimilative qualities of Tunney are unknown, as he has never had to "take it."

Dempsey can absorb terrific punches and recuperate quickly.

He is an instinctive fighter—the cave type. Firpo knocked him through the ropes and he came back into the ring in a daze and whipped the Argentinian.

"MOB" LIKES JACK

Dempsey is cunning, Tunney is a thinker. Dempsey will take instantaneous advantage of every break. Tunney will adopt a plan before the fight and adhere to it throughout.

Should Tunney take a slight lead at the start and find he can outbox Dempsey, he will play it safe, ride his bicycle and coast through the bout without taking any chances with his title.

If Tunney can get that desired lead and finds he can tie up Dempsey at close quarters, he will not stand up and slug and should be returned the winner on points.

But somehow or another I believe this really is not the old ballyhoo, but a "battle of hate". Dempsey will try to make Tunney fight at Dempsey's terms, and if Gene does, I'll pick Dempsey.

The reason for all this is, Tunney is unpopular. Why—I cannot say, excepting that the "mob" regards him as a "foul ball". He does not care for the "associations" that have earned him millions.

Dempsey is unusually popular. The

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 22. One of Westminster's former gridiron warriors, George W. Mansell, who captained the Blue and White varsity eleven in 1910 and 1911, graduating with the class of '12, returned to the home of his alma mater yesterday for a visit about the old college campus.

Mr. Mansell, who at the present time is general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Bradford, Pa., captained the team in the days when Hollenbeck of Colgate coached the Westminster teams and such men as D. G. Ashton, DeOrmand McLaughry, R. M. Russell, L. H. Conway and Everhart were gracing the United Presbyterians' lineups.

On his visit here, Mr. Mansell remarked on the progress that Westminster has made and lauded the men who were making the progressive era possible.

Both Principals In Tonight's Battle Are Claiming Knockouts

Jack Dempsey Says He Will Win By Knockout In Seven Rounds

Tunney Declares That He Will Win Tonight And By Knockout Route

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—"I think I'm good enough to win by a knockout in seven rounds."

Restlessly pacing his suite in the Morrison Hotel like a caged panther, Jack Dempsey made this assertion to close friends today as he waited zero hour tonight when he will have his golden chance to win back the heavyweight championship of the world which he lost in a downpour of rain in Philadelphia just a year ago.

And, at the same time, out at his camp at Lake Villa, Gene Tunney, unruffled and serenely confident, had this to say:

"I expect to win without any great difficulty, this time by a knockout."

The principal actors in the dramatic ring spectacle that is to be staged under blazing arc lights in the vast expanses of the egg-shaped Soldiers' Field before the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a sporting event, had secluded themselves from the public. They were waiting as calmly as they could, for the last few trying hours to pass before the bell summons them to the twenty foot ring pitched close to the breezy shore of the lake front.

Heavily guarded by police, Dempsey came into Chicago last night from his training headquarters at Lincoln Field and went into retirement at the Morrison. He was accompanied by his attractive dark-eyed wife, Estelle Taylor, screen star, who, after kissing her husband goodbye and wishing him "loads of luck" retired to her apartment in the fashionable Edgewater Beach.

Dempsey Up Early

Dempsey was up early this morning, ate a breakfast of bacon and eggs, did light calisthenics in his rooms, and then played cards with friends. Now and then he left the game and walked restlessly around his suite. He was in good humor, however, and joked with his companions. His father, Hiram Dempsey, who came here from Utah to see his son try to regain his lost laurels, visited him and they had a long chat.

Tunney, fresh from a ten-hour sleep, arose this morning in the best of spirits. He jollied with Lou Fink, his trainer, and Sergeant Bill Smith, his bodyguard, who slept in the same room with the champion.

"It won't be long now," Tunney commented. "Cheer up, you fellows, you seem to be taking it harder than I am."

The champion's main concern seemed to be about the weather. "I hope it will be good and cold tonight," he said. "The colder it is the faster we will have to move in the ring. The faster we move the quicker it will be over."

It was clear and cold with a biting autumnal wind sweeping across Fox Lake.

Tunney planned to leave for Chicago shortly before noon and is expected to put up at the Sherman Hotel where his baggage now awaits him. The camp was deserted except for detectives and a few of Tunney's close friends. Tunney ate a hearty breakfast at 8 o'clock and then retired to his rooms to await his departure to Chicago. Two police cars armed with detectives, arrived shortly after dawn heralding the departure of the champion.

Telegrams Pour In

Both Dempsey and Tunney have received hundreds of telegrams wishing them the best of luck. Scores of telegrams came to Dempsey from the motion picture colony of Hollywood. Many of the telegrams to Tunney were from business leaders, society personages and statesmen. Theodore Roosevelt and Joseph Tumulty were

High Team Ready To Meet Franklin

Franklin High Will Bring Strong Team Here Saturday To Battle Locals

Scrimmage was on the bill-of-fare for the New Castle High football team last night, at the Ben Franklin stadium, in preparation for their coming battle Saturday afternoon, with Franklin High.

Coach Bridenbaugh issued orders that all gridders be equipped with head-gears and shoulder pads and after the usual limbering up exercises led by William Klee, the boys were ordered into scrimmage.

The varsity team and second team battled for more than an hour, and then the second team was called on to do conflict with the third team. The practice yesterday proved to be one of the heaviest of the week.

The varsity lineup for Saturday's game will be intact with the possible exception of Paul Reider the quarterback who is suffering with a badly swollen ankle. Reider was injured last Saturday in the opening game shortly after his two long dashes around left-end that paved the way for two of the Red and Black touchdowns. It is likely that Sillman the quarterback from last year will be called on to bark the signals.

Whether or not Reider would be put for the remainder of the season was doubtful today. The injured ankle is being nursed along and it is hoped that the "galloping ghost" gets back in the game before long. Mooney and Sherer were also laid up following the Grove City game, but both boys are now fully recovered and they will no doubt see some action in the Franklin game.

New Castle High got away to a fine start last Saturday by toppling Grove City, and they hope to continue their streak against the strong Lawrence County outfit on this coming Saturday.

Coach Eddie Treadwell of the Franklin team witnessed the New Castle-Grove City game here last week and went on record as saying that his team would give the Red and Black boys a stiffer battle than the Mercer Countians. It will be the opening game of the year for Franklin High. In Miller McClintock the Franklin team has a man who will give the locals plenty of trouble if he breaks away in an open field, the youngster is a 100 yard dash expert and is reputed to be one of the fastest football players in Northwestern Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO SEETHING WITH EXCITEMENT AS FIGHT HOUR NEARS

they carry him out, he still will get the million.

However, the sharpshooting and clean hitting Tunney, with his pestiferous, pecking punches, did not figure to be carried out, although anything was possible when a man like Dempsey starts shooting that terrible left. His legs might be unstable, his right hand may have lost its old message. But Dempsey still can give a licking and take one, and that is one of the reasons he is an even money choice against a younger and faster man today.

Dempsey's end for the fight will be approximately $450,000, which was more than the champion, challenger and promoter combined were able to drag away with them for heavyweight championship bouts five or six years ago.

But times have changed, indeed, they have changed so much that $40 ringside seats were being counterfeited by the thousands last week. They have changed so much that only the fact that Soldiers' Stadium is too big to give the five and 10-dollar man a chance has prevented a complete sell out.

The betting has been light in this town, where betting on anything usually is heavy, but the money was going down on the line last night mostly was laid on the basis of dollar against dollar.

Betting Even

For, in spite of the fact that every disciple of the gloved fist from east, west, north and south will be there to see it, there has been much backstairs gossip about this fight and the so-called smart money has been said to know more than it should.

It is for this reason that the commission took its elaborate though rather unskilled measures to prevent the wagering tongue of scandal to run wild. The board, of course, concedes that it can't reverse a decision of its properly constituted officials, but it feels that it would be justified in withholding "an improper decision until justice is done".

To further strengthen the integrity of its position, the commission has declared itself for two prominent citizens to act as amateur judges and the whisper today was that they would be none other than George Lytton and Marshall Field himself.

The referee will be selected from among Dave Miller, bellwether of local officials; Joe Choyinsky, the old heavyweight; Dave Barry, another; Jimmy Gardner, former welterweight; Emil Thiry, old-timer of the game in this section, and Tommy Thomas. Most of those mentioned were said from time to time to have little chance to get the nod. Yet so uncertain is the referee situation in this section that one of the six cannot miss because they are all there are, there are no more.

However, in spite of all the rumblings from under cover, Dempsey's popularity has carried him into the betting as an even money favorite, where once he was a 5 to 7 short choice.

"mob" likes him because he has never proved a "wild pitch" in the ring. He goes here, there, everywhere, scatters money, strings with the "mob" and doesn't "high hat".

In playing the hunch that Jack will win I also consider the statements alleged to have been uttered by Tunney's camp that the photographers, when they asked for Tunney matter, were told:

"Why not go over to the Dempsey camp and get some publicity in the way of love scenes between Dempsey and Estelle (Taylor)." This was uncalled for.

BATTLE TO DEATH

This remark, plus the slacker talk, has fired Jack to the point where he means to win or go down trying. It means millions to him and greater popularity than ever.

Fighters are booked for big bouts on account of their popularity. No one will say there is Dempsey sentiment lacking. Tunney is too quiet to get along with the fight public.

Tonight Dempsey will enter the ring without worries. Tunney has been annoyed and in addition must bear the responsibility of retaining his championship.

Tunney should win by every known tradition of the ring. They never come back, the old saying says, but somehow or another I'm playing a hunch that Dempsey will smash tradition tonight.

Clifton Flats Defeats Bakers

The Clifton Flats team downed the Model Bakers 13 to 8, in a game played last night, at the Clifton Flats field. The game was halted in the sixth inning due to darkness.

Quinn and Shoaff on the mound for the Clifton Flats boys allowed but six hits between them, while the Flats team gathered twelve safe blows from A. Mehalic and Russell.

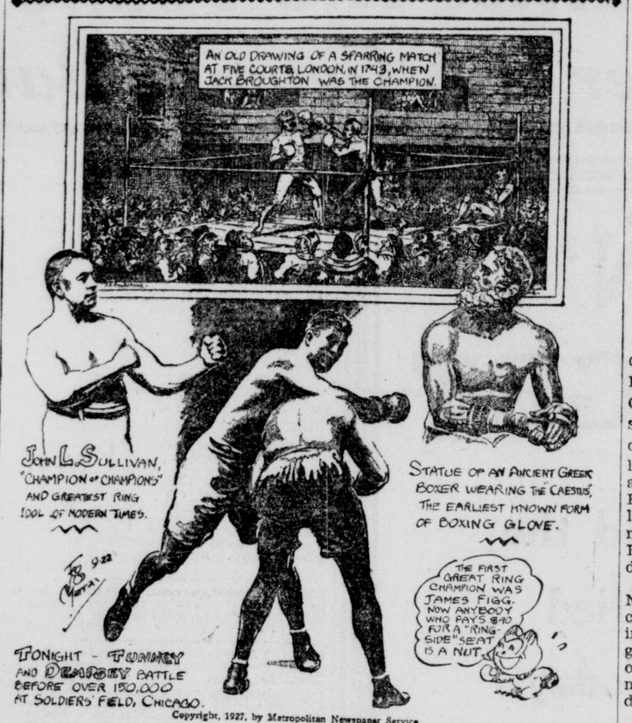
Some Boxing History

By Feg Murray



Tonight, in case you have forgotten it, Dempsey and Tunney meet in Chicago for the world's heavyweight championship. About 150,000 people will pay close to $3,000,000 to see the contest. A little boxing history, therefore, should not be out of place at this time.

Greek mythology and history are full of references to boxing, which the ancients looked upon as a common accomplishment and a popular sport. The invention of fighting with the fists, which the Greeks regarded a contest of skill rather than of brute strength, was ascribed to Theseus, a son of Zeus. Homer, the first sports writer" in history, tells in the Odyssey of a stirring battle between Odysseus and Irus, and in the Iliad he describes the knock-out of Euryalus by Epeius for the prize offered by Achilles at the games of Patroclus.

The caestus, or first boxing gloves, were made of soft leather thongs to which later were added strips of hard stiff leather, and later still, presumably by the Romans, masses of lead and iron. These cruel affairs were never seen in the Olympic games, however, but delighted the bloodthirsty Romans in their exhibitions in the Colosseum.

Skipping down through the years, we come to James Broughton, champion of England from 1732 to 1750, and called "the father of boxing in England" because he drafted the first set of rules for the game in 1743. The first glove contest of modern times was not that between John L. Sullivan and Jim Corbett in 1892, as gloves were used in sparring in Broughton's time, and in 1818 a French publican tells of a fight between two Englishmen, each of whom wore "huge padded gloves." The mighty "John L." won the last world's championship bare-knuckle fight when he defeated Jake Kilrain at Richburg, Miss., in July, 1889. He got $10,000 for going 73 rounds, while Tunney will get about 100 times that amount for going only ten rounds tonight. Oh yes, boxing has made great strides ahead, all right!

Feg Murray Says—

A "Glossary of Technical Terms Employed in the Game of Golf" says that "a gobble" is "a rapid, straight putt into the hole," but it does not say that it fills the cavity best on Thanksgiving day.

Westminster Opens Season On Saturday Against Tech Team

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 22.—Coaches "Dyke" Beede and "Johnny" Lawther of the Westminster football team have put their men through the last stiff scrimmage sessions before the Carnegie Tech game and are now engaged in polishing up the fine parts of the Blue and White gridiron machine.

Little is known concerning the team which will start against Carnegie Tech at South High stadium, Youngstown, Saturday afternoon. It is almost certain, however, that Beede will use most of his men in an effort to determine the comparative ability of the men on the squad.

The combination which has been worked together for the past two weeks includes Boone at center; Machin and Tweedie or Bowen, ends; Dombrowski and Furno, tackles; Ayers and Smith, guards; Hall, quarterback; Campbell and Lauder, halfbacks; and McQuiston or Dible, fullback. Other men which have been used with this combination include Havrilla and O'Donovan, fullback; Aker and Wrigley, quarterbacks; Cordes, center; Crowell and Kelly, ends; Armour and Sweet, tackles; Fisher and Krueger, guards; and Holzapfel and Riccy, halfbacks.

Coach Wally Steffen of the Carnegie Tartans has all his men available but Kerr, backfield star. It will be of interest to many to see the outcome of Tech system against Tech system, of tutor against pupil. While there is little doubt but that Tech, conquerors of Notre Dame last year, will defeat the Blue and White outfit, it is certain that there will be 60 minutes of real football played before the final whistle blows.

The entire Westminster students body, townspeople, and faculty members will journey to Youngstown on Saturday to see the opening game. These, together with the Carnegie Tech student body, the alumni of the two schools, and the high school cheering sections will make a crowd of at least 15,000 spectators.

The Westminster squad will leave New Wilmington Saturday morning after witnessing part of the Freshman Stunt Day exercises which take place on the athletic field at 9 o'clock. In all probability they will return to New Wilmington immediately after the game Saturday afternoon.

In preparation for the game, head cheer leader William Blakely has called a pep meeting in the college gymnasium for Friday evening. At this time the cheer leaders, dressed in their new outfits, will lead the students in rehearsing the old cheers and learning a number of new ones. The cheer leaders for the year are William Blakely, Turtle Creek; Kenneth Dyer, Pittsburgh; and Wilson Botsford, of Pittsburgh.

Pirates-Giants Open Important Series Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 22.—Either they clinch the pennant or they don't.

This was the sentiment here as the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants clashed today in a twin bill, initiating their four-game series at Forbes field.

Pirate fans, looking back over the record of the McGrawmen during the last few weeks, viewed the situation with more or less elation. If the Giants continue their splitting act, dividing the games with the Corsairs, the situation will remain in a status quo, the Bushmen holding their 3½ game lead.

The sentiment here today was that everything depended on the games today, pennant hopes and all.

Should the Pirates win both ends of the bargain bill, it was pointed out, the Bushmen will emerge this afternoon with a 5½ game lead over the Giants, and margin almost insurmountable at this late date.

On the other hand, should the Giants cop both ends of the double header, they will be within a striking distance of the Pirates and may take the lead by half a game before the series is completed.

There was a continued demand for world series seats today, letters pouring into the office of Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the club, asking for reservations

Crucial Series Starts Today

Pirates And Giants In Final Test Of Year At Forbes Field Today

MEADOWS-ALDRIDGE READY TO PITCH

International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The most crucial series of the year begins in Pittsburgh today when the embattled Giants, tied with the Cardinals for second place, tackle the Pirates in a double-header. The Giants trail the leaders by 3 1-2 games this morning as a result of Pittsburgh's victory over Brooklyn yesterday, and must take at least three of the four games to remain within striking distance of the Buccaneers in the last short rush down the stretch.

John McGraw, fiery leader of the New York outfit, has rejoined the club following an illness and will be in there telling the Pirates where to get off and the Giants when to go on. He probably will shoot Fitzsimmons and Benton at the Bucs in today's twin bill.

Meanwhile the Cardinals, who play two games today with the somewhat demoralized Boston Braves, have an excellent chance of forging to the front while the Giants and Pirates are slitting each others' throats.

In order to clinch the pennant the Pirates must win eight of their remaining eleven games, provided St. Louis and New York both win ten straight. Even if the Giants and Cards win eight games, Pittsburgh can grab the bunting by taking only six out of eleven.

John Miljus, the perennial rookie who was with Brooklyn in 1920, was a life-saver for Pittsburgh yesterday. He beat the Robins 4 to 2, his mates taking him to four runs in the fourth inning.

Other National League clubs were idle. In the junior circuit, Babe Ruth saved the Yanks from a shutout by delivering his 55th homer. He needs only five more to break his 1921 record. Gibson pitched for Detroit and won 6 to 1. The Yanks made no less than six errors and the fans razzed them without restraint.

After helping the Athletics lose to Cleveland 6 to 5, Ty Cobb decided he had had enough baseball for the season and departed on a hunting trip, undecided as to whether he will play next year. Connie Mack offered to renew Ty's salary at the same impressive figures.

The Santors swamped the Browns 10 to 0, and are still tied with Detroit for third place. Ganzel, a Washington rookie with a famous baseball name and a wicked wallop, clouted a triple, two doubles and a single.

A pinch double by Red Rollings in the ninth staked the Red Sox to a 3 to 2 victory over the White Sox.

Grocers Form Football Team

Italian Bulldogs To Be Known As Marcella Grocers This Season

The Marcella Grocers after enjoying a successful baseball and basketball season, will turn their attention to football. Fred Marcella well known South Side amateur athlete, today made the announcement that the Italian Bulldogs would play under the name of the Marcella Grocers this year.

The Bulldogs were the junior champions in 1925, and runnersup last year to the Croton team. Bruce Alexander and Nick DiCarbo former members of the Bulldogs will not be with the team this year, due to the fact that both boys are members of the New Castle high football team.

Bogdon, Kaufmann and Baptiste from the East Side Buccaneers, champions in 1922, will be with the Grocers this year. The Grocers lineup for 1927 will include some of the following well known athletes: Mike Di Thomas, Fernati, "Yanks" Marcella, Nocera, F. Ross, Scaglione, S. Campoli, Augostine, R. Campoli, Pascarella, L. Ross, Tom Marcella, Scopio, Long, Mash, E. Gennock, Cassachia, Blundo, and Fred Marcella. Charles Haddah, former fighter and member of the Italian Bulldogs last year, has moved to Chicago and will not be available this year.

The Grocers have selected Centennial Field for their games this year, due to the fact that the B. & O. grounds are unfit for play. Ernie Richeal and Harold Hannon, former New Castle high players, are asked to get in touch with Fred Marcella.

Kirker To Stage 1700 Mile Marathon Swim

New Castle Natators To Cover Distance From Here To New Orleans At "Y" Pool

One Lap To Count One Mile In Feature Event; Big Race Starts Next Monday

A 1700-mile marathon swim, the distance from New Castle to New Orleans, will be held here for men and boys, according to Walter E. Kirker, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., today.

The contestants, however, will not plunge into the Shenango river here, to swim to the Mahoning, thence to the Ohio river and down the Mississippi river to their destination, but will try another method which Kirker has devised—which will be something entirely new for local aquatic stars.

Almost 20 Miles.

Every lap of the Y. M. C. A. pool will be regarded as one mile and the first man or boy to swim the 1700 laps will be adjudged the winner. One lap of the pool is exactly 20 yards, making the distance to be covered 34,000 yards or approximately 20 miles.

There will be no designated time for men and boys to swim at the association pool, everyone competing having the privilege of swimming as far as he cares during his regular swim period. The boys will swim at class periods while members of the senior department may try any time that they care to enter the pool.

Honor System.

Records of participants will be kept in the locker room office. Official count will be kept of the boys swimming the marathon, but senior members will be placed on their honor and after each swim they will report their distance covered during that day.

There will be no regulations as to when or how the contestants swim. It is permissible to swim three, five or 50 laps at one time, or if one cares to swim one lap and then rest for ten minutes or a half hour before swimming another lap, he can do so. "Just so they swim the entire distance, that's what counts," said Kirker in making clear the rules of the marathon event.

Who Will Win.

The marathon event begins Monday, September 26. Start the big grind the first day and see how long it takes you to finish. Reports will be published weekly. Who is the first boy or man to swim the distance? It will be quite a feat and well worth trying for by the many male natators who frequent the association pool here daily.

BOTH PRINCIPALS IN TONIGHT'S BATTLE ARE CLAIMING KNOCKOUTS

Tunney and Dempsey will weigh in at 3 o'clock this afternoon before representatives of the Illinois boxing commission. Tunney is expected to weigh about 189, Dempsey 195. Dempsey planned to take a short nap this afternoon. Tunney will eat his final meal, carefully selected by a dietician, at 4:30 p. m. and then will retire to sleep.

In discussing the fight, Dempsey said this morning:

"I haven't the slightest fear that I cannot whip Tunney this time. He looks the same to me as the rest of them did from the time I knocked out Willard. I expect to knock him out and it shouldn't go farther than seven rounds. I feel like my old self again and that's the most assuring factor of it all to me. I've got everything I ever had, I feel, and that's what makes me sure I am going to win."

Dempsey made no secret of his elation over winning his point not to have to tape his hands in the ring. The bandages will be put on in the dressing rooms, with representatives of the Illinois boxing commission and of both fighters witnessing the procedure. Dempsey complained that he gets "cold" if forced to tape his hands after he has entered the ring.

Tunney in his final interview, said he believed Dempsey will be 25 per cent easier to beat this time.

"I mean to stop him," said the champion. "I feel great. The cold spell has put the proper zip in me. I have planned my style of battle to counter any mode of attack Dempsey employs. I am even more certain I will win than I was when I first engaged Dempsey at Philadelphia last year."

The fight will net Tunney a profit of $1,000,000, the largest amount ever paid an pugilist for a single battle. Dempsey has been given a flat guarantee of $450,000 if Promoter Tex Rickard's estimate of attendance of 150,000 proves correct, the fight will draw 20,000 more spectators than any previous fistic encounter. The gate receipts are expected to total more than $2,500,000.

Local Officials Discuss Grid Rules

Mahoning Valley Officials association held an important meeting last evening at the Y. M. C. A. Football rules were discussed at length by the association members in order that all points on the game be clear to each official. A good attendance was present. Alec Samuels, president of the association, presided at the session.

When people say a man has all the ear marks of a champion they mean he hasn't any marked ears.

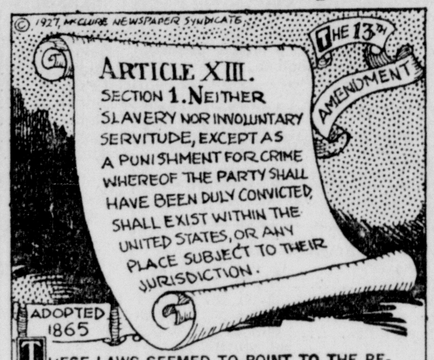
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Congress and the South

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

AFTER THE CIVIL WAR, THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SLAVERY WAS AT AN END, BUT THEY BELIEVED THE "FREEDMEN" SHOULD BE PUT TO WORK. SOME OF THE SOUTHERN STATES PASSED "VAGRANCY LAWS". THESE PROVIDED THAT ANY "FREEDMAN" WHO WOULD NOT WORK COULD BE FINED AS A "VAGRANT", AND BOUND OUT TO WORK FOR ANYONE WHO WOULD PAY HIS FINE.



THESE LAWS SEEMED TO POINT TO THE RETURN OF FORCED LABOR IN THE SOUTH. TO PROTECT THE FREEDMEN, CONGRESS (1866) PASSED A CIVIL RIGHTS BILL, GIVING THE NEGROES CIVIL RIGHTS AND SPECIAL PROTECTION OF THE FEDERAL COURTS. THIS BILL AND A SECOND FREEDMAN'S BUREAU BILL WERE PASSED OVER PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S VETO.

THE SAME YEAR, CONGRESS PASSED THE 15TH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION. IT GAVE THE FREEDMAN CITIZENSHIP, REDUCED THE REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS OF ANY STATE THAT WOULD NOT ALLOW NEGROES TO VOTE, REPUDIATED WAR DEBTS OF THE CONFEDERACY, AND BARRED ALL CONFEDERATE LEADERS FROM VOTING OR HOLDING OFFICE.

WHEN THE AMENDMENT WAS SUBMITTED TO THE SOUTHERN STATES FOR RATIFICATION, ALL BUT TENNESSEE REJECTED IT. AFTER GREAT DIFFICULTY THREE-FOURTHS OF THE STATES RATIFIED THE AMENDMENT AND IT WAS ADOPTED IN 1868.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the grading and paving of the cartway of South Mercer Street Extension, between Jefferson Street and Lawrence Street, for the payment of the costs and expenses thereof and for the assessment of the same upon the abutting properties.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the City of New Castle, Pa., that the cartway of South Mercer Street Extension, between Jefferson Street and Lawrence Street, be reduced to grade its full width throughout, and that the same be paved as follows:

(a) With vitrified paving block upon concrete foundation, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(b) with reinforced concrete, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(c) with some form of asphaltic or concrete pavement, or both, to be approved by Council, and to be done according to a standard or patent process, prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council.

SECTION 2. The advertisement for bids for the said work shall be for the above materials, viz:

(a) With vitrified paving block upon concrete foundation, under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(b) with reinforced concrete under specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by Council, or

(c) with some form of asphaltic or concrete pavement, or both, to be approved by Council, and to be done according to a standard or patent process, under and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the City Engineer and approved by the Council, and upon the receiving of the bids, the City Council shall determine the kind of material with which the said street shall be paved, and thereupon award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder for the kind of material with which the Council determines the said street shall be paved.

SECTION 3. The costs and expenses of the said work shall be assessed against the abutting properties according to the foot-front rule, and the said assessments are hereby appropriated to the payment of the said work, which is to be done and paid for subject to the General Improvement Ordinance of the said City, and its supplements and amendments and other ordinances relating to paving. The City's part or portion of the said work shall be paid for out of a fund to be provided for by Council.

SECTION 4. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

I, Edna Hopkins Reimold, Acting City Clerk, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing ordinance has been regularly introduced and is now pending in the council of the City of New Castle, Pa. In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the city, this 8th day of September, 1927.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The industrial stocks developed a reactionary tone at the beginning of trading today and prices of the active stocks were generally lower. The unexpected passing of the dividend on Mid Continent Petroleum Common resulted in a 4½ point decline in that stock to 30, but the balance of the oil stock list was fairly steady, with standard oils making fractional gains.

Failure of the fall recovery in the steel trade to materialize, as reported by the steel trade authorities, was a distinct disappointment to the bulls, as also was the new decline in steel prices this week to the lowest level of the year. From the money market standpoint, it was believed that the President's appointee to the Reserve Board Governorship would stand with those advocating higher, rather than lower, rediscount rates thus ending the period of "easy money" which has buoyed up the security markets this year.

Report Accidents To City Police

J. H. Taylor, 626 forest street, reported Wednesday to the police that he was driving east on Washington street, and making a left turn onto Butler avenue, when one of a bunch of boys playing in the street, stepped out in front of his machine and was hit but not knocked down. He was not injured.

John H. Meyers of 231 Euclid avenue, was driving east on South street, Wednesday, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 308-570 turning off South Mill street onto South street, hit and damaged his machine. He had stopped for the stop sign.

Peter Lapizo of 938½ North Liberty street, reported he was driving south on Moravia street, when the car of Mrs. H. Vautrin of West Pittsburg, R. D. No. 7, ran into and damaged his machine.

Another Bad Check Passer Works Here

There is another bad check passer at work here, or at least he was at work here this week, according to the records at the police station. Once more the police advise the people of the city to refrain from cashing checks of strangers or others, unless they verify the fact that they are good.

The check was presented to Mrs. Charles Smith of 119 North Mercer street, by a young man, who was seeking a room. The check is for $15 and is signed W. E. Martin. He was paying $6 in advance on the room rent and received $9 in cash in return. He was to have brought his trunk the next day but failed to return. Now the police are seeking him.

Several Local Fans To Witness Battle

Numerous fight fans of this city are at the Dempsey-Tunney battle at Soldiers Field, Chicago, today. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dime, accompanied by "Bill" Clark, one of Dime's proteges; Bill Jolley, railroad engineer, Adolph Lang, prominent butcher, Jimmie Travers and Tom McMahon, former heavyweight.

The San Francisco man who shot at the screen just as the villain was about to seize the beautiful damsel must have been firing at the same picture we saw the other night.

Air Mail Goes Million Miles Minus Disaster

Not A Letter Or Parcel Lost Or Person Injured Is Transport Record

New Schedules Insure Still Greater Speed In Delivering Letters

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—One million miles of flight without a life lost, a single person injured or a letter or parcel lost.

That is the record of the National Air Transport, Inc., of Chicago, operators of the New York-Chicago and other air mail services.

Through the foggy lanes along the Great Lakes, across the mist-covered states off the north Atlantic seaboard, over the snow-topped plains of Iowa, Missouri and Texas the N. A. T. mail flyers have flown week after week, day and night, for more than two years without a casualty.

New Schedules.

And in addition to its record for safety the air mail company has just inaugurated new schedules insuring greater speed in its deliveries. Under the new schedule a letter mailed in Chicago and reaching the Chicago postoffice before 6:30 p. m. will leave on the over-night mail at 8 p. m., central standard time, arriving at Hadley field, New Brunswick, N. J., at 4:45 a. m., eastern standard time, the following morning. The letter will reach the Pennsylvania station in New York City at 6:15 a. m. ready for the first mail delivery.

Likewise a letter mailed in time for the 5:30 a. m. central standard time, airmail plane for Dallas, Texas, will reach that city at 5:35 p. m. the same day.

Saves 12 Hours.

This new speed service saves 12 hours, or one business day, between New York and Chicago; 41 hours between Chicago and San Francisco, 11 hours to Houston, Texas; 40 hours to Los Angeles; 11 hours to Philadelphia, 24 hours to Seattle; 15 hours to Bosotn; 12 hours to San Antonio, Texas; 24 hours to Portland, Ore.; 24 hours to Denver; 13 hours to Newark, N. J.; 28 hours to Austin, Texas; 16 hours to Cheyenne, Wyo.; 36 hours to Reno, Nev.; 12 hours to Paterson, N. J.; 14 hours to Butte, Montana; 16 hours to Hartford, Conn.; and 13 hours to Brooklyn, N. Y.

National Air Transport was organized by business men of New York, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and other cities in May, 1925.

Roaming Round With Richards

Hope you don't feel hurt about yesterday's absence of the column. There really was a good excuse for it, the excuse being the election which was held.

Now to most folks, barring candidates and their immediate friends, an election is just an election that's all. But in a newspaper office it's double distilled work for 36 hours straight on.

It reminds you of a snowball rolling down a hill, the way the speed is accelerated. On Tuesday morning there was nothing out of the ordinary. At eight o'clock in the evening the staff reported for duty and from that on through the night the pace got faster.

After closing the office about one in the morning, came the business of checking the precincts for returns and by daylight the extra edition was ready.

About eleven o'clock the News office looked like an old time convention. The office was full of visitors some of them politicians, some of them ordinary citizens and some of them volunteer workers.

Even some of the candidates came in. Billy Williams, who sang himself into 1536 votes for council did a little work. Early in the evening he conceded defeat and helped out in checking precincts.

And of course there was the usual telephone call from a far outlying precinct for returns for a township office.

The telephone exchange operator, Miss Dart had plenty of fun she claims. This young lady has electric hands in times of emergency and can clear a switchboard as fast as anything you ever saw.

Somehow or other a city is entirely different on election nights. Here and there are gathered little groups of friends talking over the returns, some of them jubilant, some of them downcast.

In the restaurants you see them hung over tables, jotting down figures, estimating missing precincts and enveloping themselves with a haze of tabacco smoke.

For some of the candidates there wasn't much competition in the election. Walter Duff for school board and Clayton Reeves for city council went through the city like a cornborer through a corn patch. After the first precinct was in they didn't have anything to worry about.

This colyum is rather mediocre totoday. But then remember it's the day after "the day after election" and most of us are trying to get back to normal. Do better tomorrow!

Freshmen Girls Are Entertained

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 22.—Each freshman girl entering Westminster college has among the upper class girls a "big sister" who helps in the matter of getting oriented and settled. These "big sisters" help their "little sisters" in the matter of registration and getting acquainted.

Yesterday afternon and evening the big sisters of the college entertained their little sisters at a picnic and hamfry at Shaky Hollow on the Sharon road. Nearly 150 girls were in attendance and report a very enjoyable time. The big-little sister picnic each year is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. of the college.

Apparently the only thing over which there is no dispute these days is the multiplication table.

I wish to thank my friends who supported me in my campaign in nominating me to county treasurer.
